The Gift Aafke E. Komter, 1996 What moves us to give gifts to other people The Gift brings together perspectives on gift exchange and reciprocity from different social scientific disciplines The first part of this book contains anthropological and sociological classics on gift giving and reciprocity In the second part the focus is on social psychological theories and on empirical research on gift giving in Western society Finally the main concepts underlying gift exchange reciprocity self interest and altruism are discussed Here the focus is on fundamental assumptions about human nature Altruism and self interest turn out to be much more interwoven than we are inclined to think The Gift of Grace Niels Henrik Gregersen, This landmark volume the first of two assesses the prospects and promise of Lutheran theology at the opening of a new millennium From four continents the thirty noted and respected contributors not only gauge how such classic themes as grace the cross and justification wear today but also look to key issues of ecumenism social justice global religious life and the impact of contemporary science on Christian belief A Gift of Grace and Time Christine Goetz,2020-02-05 For Ellen faith was nonexistent until faith was all she had to cling to After 24 years together life partners Ellen and Paul were married nine months before his passing to the spirit world When treatments ran out for Paul s dreaded health issues he confided to Ellen that he was very tired of exotic drugs daily doctor visits and feeling terrible He wanted peace and comfort So together they decided hospice was not the only choice but the best choice Before making the transition to his final reward and eternity they shared his time going over memorabilia listening to favorite Big Band music watching movies laughing and telling stories about seashells Ellen read his Tin Can Sailor magazines aloud and much time was spent in expressions of love Ellen stood guard 24 7 Sadly they were wrong to believe family and lifelong friends would be their support system Instead many angels in human form stepped in to give support camaraderie and comfort Ellen an outspoken believer in science was presented numerous miracles miracles that science could not explain These miracles and the subtle comfort she felt through prayer led to a profound epiphany in belief The smell of English leather permeating the night air Paul s brother used that brand of cologne but he had been dead for several years Another incident Ellen being violently shaken awake just in time to untangle her beloved from the blanket and side rail No one else was in the house so whose hand shook her shoulder This is Ellen and Paul s intimate hospice journey The lessons learned are being shared with the deepest of intentions of easing the load of those facing a hospice odyssey of their own A Gift of the Spirit Eugene Victor Wolfenstein,2019-06-30 In A Gift of the Spirit Eugene Victor Wolfenstein offers a reading of W E B Du Bois s The Souls of Black Folk aimed at demonstrating its organic unity and coherence He takes as his interpretive key the experience of the color line with which Du Bois s narrative begins the incident from his youth in which a white girl refused his offer of a visiting card Wolfenstein contends that this instance of misrecognition makes visible an aesthetic and affective configuration involving insult and injury both racial and personal anger as the immediate response to the humiliating wound and when that anger is suppressed a melancholy retreat from the site of injury As Wolfenstein reconstructs it Souls tells the story of Du Bois s twofold approach to waging the battle for recognition proud and disciplined resistance to the impositions and injustices of white supremacy and the development of an intellectual station above the field of battle where it could be surveyed from on high With its serious and respectful approach to this canonical work in African American social theory A Gift of the Spirit is a fitting tribute to the enduring relevance of Du Bois s singular achievement A Gift Upon the Shore M.K. expression of the durability grace and potential of the human spirit set in a post nuclear dystopia where words are worth killing for Jean M Auel author of the Earth s Children series By the late twenty first century civilization has nearly been destroyed by overpopulation economic chaos horrific disease and a global war that brought a devastating nuclear winter On the Oregon coast two women writer Mary Hope and painter Rachel Morrow embark on an audacious project to help save future generations the preservation of books both their own and any they can find at nearby abandoned houses For years they labor in solitude Then they encounter a young man who comes from a group of survivors in the South They call their community the Ark Rachel and Mary see the possibility of civilization rising again But they realize with trepidation that the Arkites believe in only one book the Judeo Christian bible and regard all other books as blasphemous And those who go against the word of God must be cleansed from the Earth In this thought provoking novel of humanity hope and horror M K Wren displays her passionate concern with what gives life meaning Library Journal LOVE A GIFT SHARED

CHARITABLY Lebohang May,2010-04-17 Dear Reader It has been my aspiration to work with an organization that promotes the ideals of literacy projects My goal is to primarily work with all young students and on top of that with parents and teachers respectively I created a comprehensive organization that has alternative programs under the umbrella called Senzeni Literacy Club it is a non for profit organization Its primary focus is to help promote competency and to offer aid to students by preparing them for higher education and help them pay for it I may not satisfy all the expectations But by selecting education as a standard I firmly believe I trounce all the odds I believe the job I have undertaken it s a difficult one that has lot of challenges and disappointments ahead but none the less it is a job I would like to shape with my personal strength character and my true life story and moreover I chose to make this effort part of my philanthropic work to donate my love myself and my personal resources to education episode I decided to put my poetry work together at the same time while I m putting my life together In the hope that courage will restore my harmonious legacy may I simply be remembered as an activist and a contributor in the continuous struggle to encourage every child to have an opportunity to go to college and university and serve his or her country in return Despite my shortcomings my goal is not to be popular instead I have made a solemn decision that my life matters in the same manner the lives of others matters especially living by example to my kid s and others Unfortunately I felt I have lost some pretty good time which I could have made use of it productively and the same time I refuse to allow my failures to impede me and stand in front of my big dreams Senzeni Literacy Club will define my leadership in every corner and hall of our society particularly South Africa My life and my personality speaks for itself I m just an ordinary human being at the same time I m also warning everyone to remember a Mantle of Leadership is only for those who care to listen and those who care to take actions and change the challenged lives that desperately don t know where to turn to Proceeds of this material will be viewed as a charitable contribution to help bring courage and will be directed in the construction project fund that will unveil the model of Senzeni Literacy Center to be built in Washington
