Roger King

A Girl From Zanzibar:

A Girl from Zanzibar Roger King, 2002 A Girl from Zanzibar is a riveting modern immigration story for a brave new and globalized world Current events murky international finance intrigue and a search for self are played out in the story of Marcella DiSouza Marcella is a smart ambitious young woman of Portuguese Indian Arab background who follows a dangerous path from her home in Zanzibar to the shadowy business world of London to a teaching position in a small Vermont college With a heart stopping plot written in spare luminous and elegant prose A Girl from Zanzibar is reminiscent of the novels of John Le Carre and Graham Greene

Mobilizing Zanzibari Women C. Decker, 2014-11-05 The experiences of African women in the era before independence remain a woefully understudied facet of African history This innovative and carefully argued study thus adds tremendously to our understanding of colonial history by focusing on women s education professionalization and political mobilization in the East African islands of Zanzibar

The Age of Sex Corrie Decker, 2025 As in much of the world societies in precolonial East Africa what is today Kenya Tanzania and Uganda used rites of passage to chart an individual s social and developmental progress toward adulthood Under European colonialism from the 1890s to the 1960s colonial judicial systems and the emerging genre of ethnography converged to subject African people to standardized definitions of childhood and adulthood The coexistence of rites of passage and chronological age regulations generated confusion well into the postcolonial era and the question of when childhood ends sparked extensive debate about gender race and development Corrie Decker argues that ultimately these debates came down to the age of sex The age of sex a term Decker conceptualizes in this carefully researched monograph refers to the hypothetical moment when a girl becomes a woman capable of engaging in heterosexual activity and a boy becomes a man imbued with the right and responsibility to have heterosexual intercourse Colonial ethnographic studies reduced complex precolonial rites of passage to puberty rites fixated on these sexual transformations The resulting stereotypes influenced in turn how colonial and postcolonial court officials decided age of consent and other sex crime cases Court rituals thus legally transformed girls into women by ruling on their sexual maturity and boys into men by sentencing them to corporal punishment marking their acceptance of sexual responsibilities

Kwani? 01 Binyavanga Wainaina, 2003-12 Kwani is arguably Africa s most exciting and varied literary initiative of recent years Describing itself as a magazine of ideas that seeks to entertain provoke and create Kwani commissions and publishes stories poetry art and photography from all around the African continent and the diaspora Rejecting artificial divisions of high and low art and literary snobbery it is dedicated to the flourishing of literature in Kenya and the of African cultural values Kwani 01 is widely available outside Africa for the first time The volume features the writings of numerous prize winners It includes the short story The Weight of Whispers by Yvonne Adhiambo Owuor which won The Caine Prize for African Writing in 2003 Yvonne Owuor is also a screenplay writer and Executive Director of the Zanzibar International Film Festival Other contributions are from Parsilelo Kantai who was short listed for the Caine Prize in

Levison, Mary Jo Maynes, Frances Vavrus, 2021-04-15 This textbook showcases innovative approaches to the interdisciplinary field of childhood and youth studies examining how young people in a wide range of contemporary and historical contexts around the globe live their young lives as subjects objects and agents The diverse contributions examine how children and youth are simultaneously constructed as individual subjects through social processes and culturally specific discourses as objects of policy intervention and other adult power plays and also as active agents who act on their world and make meaning even amidst conditions of social political and economic marginalization In addition the book is centrally engaged with questions about how researchers take into consideration children's and young people's own conceptions of themselves and how we conceptualize child and youth potentials for agency at different ages and stages of growing up Each chapter discusses substantive research but also engages in self reflection about methodology positionality and or disciplinarity thus making the volume especially useful for teaching This book will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including childhood studies youth studies girls studies development studies research methods sociology anthropology education history geography public policy cultural studies gender and women's studies and global studies

Ages of Anxiety William S. Bush, David S. Tanenhaus, 2018-07-31 Six compelling histories of youth crime in the twentieth century Ages of Anxiety presents six case studies of juvenile justice policy in the twentieth century from around the world adding context to the urgent and international conversation about youth crime and justice By focusing on magistrates social workers probation and police officers and youth themselves editors William S Bush and David S Tanenhaus highlight the role of ordinary people as meaningful and consequential historical actors After providing an international perspective on the social history of ideas about how children are different from adults the contributors explain why those differences should matter for the administration of justice They examine how reformers used the idea of modernization to build and legitimize juvenile justice systems in Europe and Mexico and present histories of policing and punishing youth crime Ages of Anxiety introduces a new theoretical model for interpreting historical research to demonstrate the usefulness of social histories of children and youth for policy analysis and decision making in the twenty first century Shedding new light on the substantive aims of the juvenile court the book is a historically informed perspective on the critical topic of youth crime and justice

Harper's Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, Thomas Bucklin Wells, Lee Foster Hartman, 1911 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1883 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Youth Culture James Alan Marten, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Youth Culture features broadly contextualized historical case studies of youth cultures from around the world and over the past several centuries Chapters focus on a wide range of issues and themes including youth agency gender self expression and the tension between community control and youthful independence AF Press Clips ,1970 Domesticating the World Jeremy Prestholdt,2008-01-15 This book boldly unsettles the idea of globalization as a recent phenomenon and one driven solely by Western interests by offering a compelling new perspective on global interconnectivity in the nineteenth century Jeremy Prestholdt examines East African consumers changing desires for material goods from around the world in an era of sweeping social and economic change Exploring complex webs of local consumer demands that affected patterns of exchange and production as far away as India and the United States the book challenges presumptions that Africa s global relationships have always been dictated by outsiders Full of rich and often surprising vignettes that outline forgotten trajectories of global trade and consumption it powerfully demonstrates how contemporary globalization is foreshadowed in deep histories of intersecting and reciprocal relationships across vast distances
