A Girl In A Million:

A Girl in a Million Betty Neels, 2012-06-05 Four classic romances by USA Today bestselling author Neels are available once again in stunning new packages Reissue A Girl in a Million Betty Neels, 1993 A Woman in a Million Monica Wood, 2016-01-14 Warm funny and heart breaking this short story prequel to THE ONE IN A MILLION BOY the book on everyone's lips will make you laugh and cry with the turn of a page If you loved The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry and The Shock of the Fall this is for you There's someone you should meet But before you do She's just turned one hundred She doesn't want a birthday party Or a TV interview She's too busy practising for her driving test And hoodwinking church visitors with magic tricks She's Miss Ona Vitkus And she's one in a million What readers are saying about A WOMAN IN A MILLION A touching story and so well told Excellent book The characters the plot and the writing are something very special indeed A wonderful short story about a remarkable woman Ona has so much spirit I immediately loved her Eight Million Exiles Christopher M. Hays, 2024-02-08 How pastors scholars and others can use Missional Action Research to make a real difference for displaced persons abroad Christian scholars are often motivated to live the gospel by serving the vulnerable But how do we put our academic research to practical use to help those in need Christopher M Hays explains how his interdisciplinary team of theologians social scientists pastors and local partners combined efforts to support internally displaced persons of Colombia Over eight million people have been driven from their homes by violence perpetrated by paramilitary and guerilla groups in the past two decades The Colombian government is unequipped to deal with the sheer magnitude of the crisis To serve displaced persons in a more robust and holistic way the Faith and Displacement project developed Missional Action Research This innovative method incorporated direct leadership and participation from local churches and displaced persons with stakes in the research process The resulting curriculum covered Training in trauma informed mental health care Harnessing the unrecognized skills and resources of the community Empowering displaced people economically through microenterprises and other ventures Supporting participants with effective spiritual and pastoral care Weaving survivors firsthand testimony with interdisciplinary theology Eight Million Exiles will impress readers with the urgency of this conflict and inspire them with the model developed to address it Let a small seminary in Medellin show you how to make a tangible difference in vulnerable communities Women's and Girl's Nylon Hosiery United States Tariff Commission, 1972 A Girl's Got To Breathe Donald Spoto, 2016-02-19 The actress Teresa Wright 1918-2005 lived a rich complex magnificent life against the backdrop of Golden Age Hollywood Broadway and television There was no indication from her astonishingly difficult indeed horrifying childhood of the success that would follow nor of the universal acclaim and admiration that accompanied her everywhere Her two marriages to the writers Niven Busch The Postman Always Rings Twice Duel in the Sun and Robert Anderson Tea and Sympathy I Never Sang for My Father provide a good deal of the drama warmth poignancy and heartbreak of her life story I never wanted to be a star she told the noted biographer

Donald Spoto at dinner in 1978 I wanted only to be an actress She began acting on the stage in summer stock and repertory at the age of eighteen When Thornton Wilder and Jed Harris saw her in an ingénue role she was chosen to understudy the part of Emily in the original production of Our Town 1938 which she then played in touring productions Samuel Goldwyn saw her first starring role on Broadway in the historic production of Life with Father and at once he offered her a long contract She was the only actress to be nominated for an Academy Award for her first three pictures The Little Foxes The Pride of the Yankees and Mrs Miniver and she won for the third film Movie fans and scholars to this day admire her performance in the classics Shadow of a Doubt and The Best Years of Our Lives The circumstances of her tenure at Goldwyn and the drama of her breaking that contract forever changed the treatment of stars Wright's family and heirs appointed Spoto as her authorized biographer and offered him exclusive access to her letters and papers Major supporting players in this story include Robert Anderson Alfred Hitchcock William Wyler Karl Malden Elia Kazan Jean Simmons Dorothy McGuire Bette Davis George Cukor Marlon Brando George C. Scott the artist Al Hirschfeld Stella Adler and more

THE REPTILIAN GODDESS AND MILLION COPS Premkumar, 2025-05-19 Johnny Relevant was killed twice but raised from death both times by God Subsequent attempts on his life by two powerful and ruthless entities one spiritual and other a temporal were thwarted by angels belonging to Islam Hindu and Christian religions This book is an anthology of the battles waged by those angels for defending the author and his family members Some recollections of a senile old man were added to make the book more interesting to the readers

A MILLION DOLLAR MAN NOT A DIME FROM A DOZEN Alice McCurdy, 2015-04-27 A Million Dollar Man not a Dime from a Dozen is a non-fiction book about a young lady's ups and downs with twelve men who were millionaires

What eight million women want Rheta Childe Dorr, 2022-07-31 Rheta Childe Dorr's What Eight Million Women Want is a seminal exploration into the burgeoning feminist consciousness in the early 20th century Crafted with the gravitas of an investigative piece coupled with eloquent prose Dorr's work dissects the political social and economic desires of women who were at the time clamoring for recognition and equality Within the literary context of feminist thought and reform literature Dorr's book stands as an influential testament to the women's suffrage movement and the broader campaign for women's rights Its literary style is both assertive and enlightening shedding light on the aspirations and struggles of a demographic poised to initiate progressive changes in society Rheta Childe Dorr is not just any author she is a pioneer whose own experiences as a journalist suffragette and social reformer infuse this work with authenticity and urgency The climate of the period marked by societal change and the fight for suffrage undoubtedly shaped her narrative leading her to channel the collective voices of millions of women into a singular powerful chorus demanding change Through her pen the ethos of an era is vividly captured turning What Eight Million Women Want into a documentary account of historic significance The book comes highly recommended for students of history gender studies and political science as well as general readers intrigued by the dynamics of social reform It serves as both an informative and inspiring read offering a window into the lives and ambitions of women at a pivotal moment in history What Eight Million Women Want is not only a reflection of a movement but a clarion call that continues to resonate in the ongoing discourse on gender equality and women s rights

Million Dollar Secrets LaMeshia Melodic,2023-04-10 A lifetime of friendship bonds this group of seven friends together until a collision of unexpected events shakes up their lives in ways no one could imagine Visits from their past unravels a web of deceit that causes their character to be questioned and poses the threat of life altering secrets being exposed The revealing of these secrets could cost them everything a price they may not be willing to pay Do they know one another as much as they believe they do Will love and time alone be enough to sustain their relationships or will these costly secrets destroy this friendship forever

The Million-dollar Story Edgar Wallace,1926

Two Thousand Million Man-Power Gertrude Trevelyan,2022-11-30 Two Thousand Million Man Power follows Robert a chemist and Katherine a schoolteacher through two tumultuous decades in English history From New Year s Eve 1919 to the funeral of King George V in 1936 they experience youthful radicalism economic boom and bust comfortable middle class life in the suburbs and grinding poverty and the debilitating experience of looking for work where there is none to be found Gertrude Trevelyan sets their story against the backdrop of newspaper headlines radio broadcasts and advertising slogans contrasting the promises of progress and technology with the brutal effects of economic upswings and downturns The result is one of the finest fictional portraits of English life in the 1920s and 1930s the equivalent for England of John Dos Passos s epic U S A Utterly forgotten for over 80 years Gertrude Trevelyan is finally being rediscovered The stylistic and imaginative daring of her fiction arguably makes her one of the finest English novelists of the generation that followed Virginia Woolf A panoramic view of English life from 1919 to 1936 Two Thousand Million Man Power is no wistful nostalgic account of this time Instead Gertrude Trevelyan shows how even the brightest and most able personalities can be ground down by economic highs and lows and a system in which individuals quickly disappear into crowds and statistics One year Robert and Katherine are enjoying the consumer comforts of a radio a car a house in the suburbs The next they are struggling to make ends meet in a tiny squalid East End flat as Robert trudges hopelessly into London each day in hopes of finding work The result is a savage portrait equalled only by George Orwell s The Road to Wigan Pier

African American Female Leadership in Major Motion Pictures Tracy L.F. Worley,2024-02-09 This book explores the factors contributing to the under representation of African American female directors in mainstream cinema leadership It also unmask the potential strategies African American female film directors might pursue to reduce this inequity Author Tracy L F Worley draws on research around ethics to conclude that there are specific consequences of the male gaze on women in cinema leadership especially African American female directors of box office cinema Combining extensive analysis of ethics and ethical stance relative to the motion picture industry with perspectives from working African American female directors the text discusses the ethical considerations and historical inequities including the male gaze and uses those findings to define how the inequities can be opportunities The efficacy model for cinematic leadership is presented as a mechanism for viewing obstacles through the lenses of gender ethnicity and culture so they become drivers for African American women to achieve success Ideal for students of directing and filmmaking as well as aspiring professional filmmakers wishing to gain a better understanding of the industry as it stands today     A Million Years with You Elizabeth Marshall Thomas,2013 One of the nation s greatest literary naturalists now in her eighth decade turns her famed observational eye on herself and explores why and how an untrained self taught observer and writer could see things that anthropologists and zoologists often missed

Million Wounds Thousand Deaths Richa 'Meervesh',2024-04-17 The story follows the life of a young woman living in Bhopal as she navigates through the trials and triumphs of adulthood From humble beginnings she harbours dreams of success and independence fueled by her talents and ambitions As she embarks on her journey she realises how easily lives can be turned upside down She is faced with the harsh realities of the world which she could never fathom What is more liberating Unaware of the world and falling in love or painfully falling out of it     Islands of Eight Million Smiles Hiroshi Aoyagi,2020-03-17 Since the late 1960s a ubiquitous feature of popular culture in Japan has been the idol an attractive young actor male or female packaged and promoted as an adolescent role model and exploited by the entertainment fashion cosmetic and publishing industries to market trendy products This book offers ethnographic case studies regarding the symbolic qualities of idols and how these qualities relate to the conceptualization of selfhood among adolescents in Japan and elsewhere in East Asia The author explores how the idol manufacturing industry absorbs young people into its system of production molds them into marketable personalities commercializes their images and contributes to the construction of ideal images of the adolescent self Since the relationship between the idols and their consumers is dynamic the study focuses on the fans of idols as well Ultimately Aoyagi argues idol performances substantiate capitalist values in the urban consumer society of contemporary Japan and East Asia Regardless of how crude their performances may appear in the eyes of critics the idols have helped establish the entertainment industry as an agent of public socialization by driving public desires toward the consumption of commoditized fantasies     Brother, Can You Raise a Million? Shlomo Wexler,2003 A rabbi trying to raise money for his yeshiva in Jerusalem inadvertently helps two Americans from very different walks of life find each other and fall in love This book goes behind the scenes of the world of Jewish fund raising to reveal both its noble and not so noble character Many people will recognise the fierce competition and humorous kow towing that occurs when fund raisers from yeshivas in Israel solicit American philanthropists     The Voice of The City: Further Stories of The Four Million O.

Henry,2023-10-01 The Voice of the City Further Stories of the Four Million by O Henry This collection of short stories by O Henry the master of the twist ending delves into the lives of everyday people in New York City With his signature wit and irony O Henry offers glimpses into the diverse experiences of the four million capturing the essence of the city and its inhabitants Key Aspects of the Book The Voice of the City Further Stories of the Four Million Slice of City Life The stories provide a snapshot of different characters and their interactions in the bustling urban environment of New York City Twist Endings O Henry s trademark surprise endings add a layer of intrigue and depth to each story Human Connections The narratives highlight the connections and conflicts between people from various walks of life showcasing the complexity of human relationships O Henry whose real name was William Sydney Porter was an American short story writer born in 1862 Known for his clever wordplay and unexpected twists he contributed significantly to the development of the short story genre His stories often featured ordinary people facing extraordinary circumstances and his unique narrative style left a lasting impact on American literature      Million Dollar Screw Up TJ Lee,2023-04-15 Special Agent Stacey Lennings always had a talent for acting Her parents used to tease her that she was a chameleon able to take on any persona Yet it still took convincing for her to nag her supervisor into letting her be the one to be the bait to catch one of the most notorious human traffickers out there Andre Ever since she rescued Elizabeth and failed to convince her that she was still playing the role of the victim she dreamed of taking down the man responsible 5 Years ago Ricky s sister disappeared Maybe if her skin was lighter and her hair blonder the cops would have tried harder As her older brother it fell to him to find his sister before it was too late He had to dive deep into the belly of the beast but he was going to get her back and no one was going to stop him Not the beast himself and certainly not the agent who made the mistake of underestimating the beast Read the nail biting conclusion of the Million Dollar Duet
