No Greater Love. Marxism and Christianity in Revolutionary Central America United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Security and Terrorism, 1984 Times of Greatness GEORGE E PFAUTSCH, 2005-08-22 Throughout its history the United States has experienced some outstanding periods that are unparalleled by any other nation Such times of greatness have been achieved when this country most closely adhered to the faith based morality intended by our founding fathers A faith based morality requires a belief that all humans receive their freedoms and unalienable rights from a Supreme Creator That belief led to the formation of this nation Greatness is achieved when government does most to extend such freedoms and rights to its own citizens and to all peoples of the world Since the discovery of this nation by Columbus in 1492 the United States has been through periods of time that have been extraordinary in the results it has achieved for the rights of all human beings In this book the greatest moments of this country are compared to the morality the government followed during such periods The Catechism Explained Francis Spirago, 1899 This Catechism is divided into three parts The first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace In the first part Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher in the second in His character of King and in the third in His character of High Priest And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven Preface Annotations Upon the Holy Bible Matthew Themelios, Volume 33, Issue 1 D. American Missionaries in Iran during the 1960s and 1970s Philip O. Hopkins, 2020-09-22 This work explores the interaction of American Protestant missionaries with Iranians during the 1960s and 1970s It focuses on the missionary activities of four American Protestant groups Presbyterians Assemblies of God International Missions and Southern Baptists It argues that American missionaries predisposition toward their own culture confused their message of the gospel and added to the negative perception of Christianity among Iranians This bias was seen primarily in the American missionaries desire to modernize Iran through education and healthcare and between the missionaries relationship with Iranian Christians Iranian attitudes towards missionary involvement in these areas are investigated as is the changing American missionary strategy from a traditional method where missionaries had the final say on most matters related to American and Iranian Christian interaction to the beginnings of an indigenous system where a partnership developed between the missionary and A Treatise on Justification John Davenant, 1844 Fifteen Sermons Preach'd on Several the Iranian Christian Occasions Richard Duke,1714 The Works of President Edwards in Four Volumes Jonathan Edwards, 1858 The Life and Death of Krishnamurti Mary Lutyens, 2003 In the Land of the Living Kenneth L. Sehested, 2014-12-05 If required to summarize my deepest conviction in a single sentence it would be something like this I believe that God is more taken with the agony of the earth than with the ecstasy of heaven So begins the preface to In the Land of the Living Prayers Personal and Public by Kenneth L Sehested What follows from that conviction is a collection of prayers and poems most of which are inspired by one or more particular biblical texts and many of which were originally written for use in Sehested s own congregation Sehested's lifelong work as a justice and peace organizer informs his poetic eloquence which in the words of one reviewer produces reflections on Scripture that create a flash of insight a bolt of courage a stretch of imagination a surprising peek into the heart of God and cries out against second hand convictions In the Land of the Living Ps 27 13 represents a significant addition to that tradition of spirituality which takes seriously both the pain of the world and the claim of a God at work disarming both the heart and the nations Indeed These prayers are jumper cables from the pew to the world
