A Guide For Using My Louisiana Sky In The Classroom:

A Guide for Using My Louisiana Sky in the Classroom Maria Matlack, 2002-04 A Guide for Using Peter Pan in the Classroom Betty Burke, 1994 The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators, Upon publication Anita Silvey's comprehensive survey of contemporary children's literature Children's Books and Their Creators garnered unanimous praise from librarians, educators, and specialists interested in the world of writing for children. Now The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators assembles the best of that volume in one handy, affordable reference geared specifically to parents, educators, and students. This new volume introduces readers to the wealth of children's literature by focusing on the essentials: the best books for children, the ones that inform, impress, and most important, excite young readers. Updated to include newcomers such as J.K. Rowling and Lemony Snicket and to cover the very latest on publishing and educational trends, this edition features more than 475 entries on the best-loved children's authors and illustrators, numerous essays on social and historical issues, thirty personal glimpses into craft by well-known writers, illustrators, and critics, and invaluable reading lists by category. The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators summarizes the canon of contemporary children's literature in a practical guide essential for anyone choosing a book for or working with children. A Guide for Using Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day in the Classroom Diane Porteous, 1998 Teaching literature unit based on the popular children's story Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day. A Field Guide to the Classroom Library Lucy Calkins, 2002 Provides comprehensive and accessible leveled lists and guides for 1,200 children's trade books for kindergarten through 6th grade to help teachers build classroom libraries. A Parent/Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance Bob Blumenthal, 2005 How do you teach children to value peace and appreciate diversity? One way is to provide them with books with themes that promote these ideas. The Parent Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance offers readers a wide variety of award-winning titles along with annotations and grade-level recommendations. The book is divided into the following sections: Preschool, grade three, Grades 4-6, Middle school, and High school. Each section has over 100 listings. Topics include civil rights, the Holocaust, slavery, Native Americans, bullying, war, child abuse, bigotry, cooperation, acceptance, apartheid, family relationships, Arab-Israeli conflict, controlling anger, the Civil War, the Vietnam War, WWII, gays and lesbians, and other social issues. Many of these books are the recipients of the following awards and honors: Newbery Award, School Library Journal starred review, Caldecott Award, Boston Globe Horn Book Award, American Library Association Notable Book, Jane Addams Children's Book Award, American Bookseller Pick of the List, Kirkus Reviews starred review, Publishers Weekly starred review, Booklist starred review, Coretta Scott King Award, VOYA Top Picks, National Book Award, and the Michael L. Printz Award. This guide is an excellent resource for parents who would like their children to become peace-loving, accepting adults. Teachers who are looking for books to supplement their curriculum will find the suggested titles to be among the best-written works in the designated areas. For example, one would be hard pressed to find a better written book on the Holocaust for middle and high school students than I Have Lived One Thousand Years The author has done a great service by providing parents and teachers with a list of books that cannot be found anywhere else Reading Raps Rita Soltan,2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational Focusing on children in grades 3 8 and their families the book offers 100 ready made book club instructions for popular children s and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson s Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett s Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz s Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto s Baseball in April and Other Stories Along with thought provoking discussion questions you ll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers plot summary themes and characters description genre reading level author and award information related reads and more The guide describes four types of family oriented book clubs family mother daughter father son and readers rap as well as a book club for kids only The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful For each title she provides a plot summary characterization sketches questions to use for provocative discussion and follow up bibliographies on similar reads Notes on genres themes and reading levels are also provided The selected titles reflect some of the best most current and most popular children s literature In addition a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included Perfect for public library programs and after school book clubs this is a one stop resource with practical ready made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments Grades 3 8
