A Guide To Western Historical Scripts From Antiquity To 1600:

A Guide to Western Historical Scripts from Antiquity to 1600 Michelle P. Brown, 1990 For readers who wish to trace the evolution of scripts in the West from antiquity to the early modern period and who want to read the work of their scribes this volume provides a wide ranging collection of materials supported by 55 full page illustrations from manuscripts Brown provides a synopsis of each of the major phases of development a bibliography at the beginning of each section and comments on regional and chronological diffusion where appropriate Each plate is accompanied by a facing page of commentary giving a brief description of the manuscript and its script followed by a transcription of the text The British Library Guide to Writing and Scripts Michelle P. Brown, 1998-01-01 An introduction to the history and techniques of writing that offers a thorough and accessible historical overview of techniques and processes illustrated with examples diagrams and photographs of crafts people at work The Fragments of the Roman Historians Tim Cornell, Edward Bispham, John Rich, 2013 This title is a definitive and comprehensive edition of the fragmentary texts of all the Roman historians whose works are lost Historical writing was an important part of the literary culture of ancient Rome and its best known exponents including Sallust Livy Tacitus and Suetonius provide much of our knowledge of Roman history However these authors constitute only a small minority of the Romans who wrote historical works from around 200 BC to AD 250 In this period we know of more than 100 writers of history biography and memoirs whose works no longer survive for us to read They include well known figures such as Cato the Elder Sulla Cicero and the emperors Augustus Tiberius Claudius Hadrian and Septimius Severus Page 4 of cover Ordines Coronationis Franciae, Volume 2 Richard A. Jackson, 2017-01-30 The ordines coronationis are essentially the scripts for the coronation of Frankish and French sovereigns Combining detailed religious ceremonial and political material they are an extraordinarily important source for the study of individual rulers or dynasties as well as for the study of kingship queenship and the evolution of political institutions Complete in two volumes Richard A Jackson s is the first full edition of these texts including all the ordines from the early thirteenth century through the end of the fifteenth century a period during which the texts shift from Latin to the vernacular and the institutions of kingship become distinctively French Ordines Coronationis Franciae Richard A. Jackson, 1995 The ordines coronationis are essentially the scripts for the coronation of Frankish and French sovereigns Combining detailed religious ceremonial and political material they are an extraordinarily important source for the study of individual rulers or dynasties as well as for the study of kingship queenship and the evolution of political institutions Complete in two volumes Richard A Jackson s is the first full edition of these texts including all the ordines from the early thirteenth century through the end of the fifteenth century a period during which the texts shift from Latin to the vernacular and the institutions of kingship become distinctively French The Oxford Classical Dictionary Simon Hornblower, Antony Spawforth, Esther Eidinow, 2012-03-29 The revised third edition of the Oxford Classical Dictionary is the ultimate reference on the classical world containing over 6

200 entries The 2003 revision includes minor corrections and updates and all Latin and Greek words in the text are now translated into English

The Guild Book of the Barbers and Surgeons of York (British Library, Egerton MS 2572) Richard D. Wragg, 2021 A new exploration of the secular manuscripts and medieval medical texts associated with the York Guild and its members Produced in 1486 and subsequently augmented the Guild Book of the Barbers and Surgeons of York British Library Egerton MS 2572 is a unique record of the knowledge ambitions activities and civic relationships maintained by the Barbers and Surgeons Guild over a period of 300 years The manuscript s earliest folios contain images astrological tracts a plague treatise and a bloodletting poem To these were added early modern ordinances and oaths a series of royal portraits and the names of the Guild s masters and apprentices It is a rare survival of late medieval medical knowledge placed within a civic context This new multi disciplinary examination of the York Guild Book presents a comprehensive edition of its content and a detailed study of the creation and use of this fascinating manuscript The York Guild Book was not owned by any one person but was intended to be representative of the types of manuscripts the Guild s members might have individually possessed The Guild s commission elevated their manuscript s functional content into something which could be proudly owned and displayed as is demonstrated by the stylishly executed pen and ink drawings two of which are possibly unique Through a contextualisation of the form and content of the manuscript the book articulates ideas about material culture and the ceremonial role of secular manuscripts whilst shedding new light on the dissemination and status of medieval medical texts

Abbreviating Middle English Justyna Rogos-Hebda, 2025-02-12 Abbreviating Middle English Scribal practices Visual Texts and Medieval Multimodalities investigates the changing dynamics of scribal abbreviating practices in a corpus of late Middle English manuscripts of Richard Rolle s John Lydgate s and John Gower s works and reinterprets these practices from new perspectives of visual pragmatics medieval multimodalities and visual code switching Spanning the boundaries of manuscript studies cultural semiotics and text image approaches to pre modern written sources the book studies scribal abbreviations and medieval visuality and links them with modern practices of textuality by combining tools and methods of traditional disciplines employed in the study of historical texts as well as those developed for the analyses of modern discourse Justyna Rogos Hebda outlines the main directions in abbreviation studies describes research methods and considers the broader developments in manuscript studies integrating aspects of materialist philology multimodality theory visual pragmatics and visual and code switching into descriptive analytical models of medieval textualities Rogos Hebda aims to problematize abbreviation within the socio cultural contexts of medieval mentalities Christian hermeneutics and Middle English multilingualism to unpack the multilayered motivations for the practices of scribal communities

Voices on the Past Alicia Rodríguez Álvarez, Francisco Alonso Almeida, 2004 The purpose of this volume is to offer a number of scholarly papers dealing with various aspects of medieval English language and literature Voices on Medieval is organised in three main sections according to contents 1 medical and scientific texts and manuscripts 2 language and linguistics and 3 literature and culture Bibliographic references and primary sources are given after each article preceding the notes We have devoted a special section to studies which portray ongoing research in the field of scientific and medical manuscripts These essays correspond to a reflection of projects and individual work currently carried out in different European research centres and universities such as in the Department of English of the University of Helsinki in the Department of Modern Philology of the University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria and in the Department of English of the University of M laga This special section will represent we hope a further contribution to the field and also to the forthcoming titles by Irma Taavitsainen and P ivi Pahta Medical and Scientific Writing in Late Medieval English OUP and Corpus of Middle English Medical Texts John Benjamins

Blickling Homilies Richard J. Kelly, 2010-07-15 The Blickling Homilies date from the end of the tenth century and form one of the earliest extant collections of English vernacular homiletic writings The homiletic texts survive in a composite codex consisting of Municipal Entries for the Council of Lincoln 14th 17th century a Calendar mid 15th century Gospel Oaths early 14th century and the eighteen homiletic texts that are based on the yearly liturgical cycle The Blickling Homilies are an important literary milestone in the early evolution of the English prose The manuscript in the collection of William H Scheide housed in Princeton University Library MS 71 s x xi was published in facsimile by Rudolph Willard in 1960 as Volume 10 of Early English Manuscripts in Facsimile Copenhagen It is the only Anglo Saxon MS still in private ownership and together with The Blickling Psalter are the only two Anglo Saxon MSS in the Americas The only previous edition of The Blickling Homilies is by Richard Morris published in three volumes in 1874 1876 1880 reprinted as one volume in 1967 This new edition makes a number of corrections where Morris s manuscript reading is in error The English translations are modernized and made more accurate The original text and facing page translation have been formatted into paragraphs which are hoped to further and aid comprehension Finally the text and translation are accompanied by a general introduction textual notes on each homiletic text tables and charts and a select bibliography

The Queen Mary Psalter Anne Rudloff Stanton, 2001 Illuminated manuscripts are among the more intimate works of art surviving from the medieval period The Queen Mary Psalter c 1316 21 has long been recognized as one of the most outstanding English Gothic manuscripts Its devotional texts are framed by an encyclopedic series of narrative images painted in a delicate and courtly style The psalms are introduced by an Old Testament preface in which tinted drawings are explained by French captions The psalm decoration incorp a combination of framed illuminations of the life of Christ at the beginnings of important psalms and tinted drawings in the bottom margin of every page that tell stories ranging from the bestiary to the lives of the saints Winner of the 2000 Millennium Award 100 illus
