A Hebrew Alexander Romance According To Ms London:

A Hebrew Alexander Romance According to MS London, Jews' College No. 145 Leo (Archipresbyter), 1992 The reader is presented here with a study of the text of a Hebrew manuscript which is a medieval version of the Alexander Romance or the legendary history of Alexander the Great The Hebrew text in this unique manuscript known as MS London is a translation of the Historia de Preliis Alexandri Magni a widespread Latin version on the Alexander Romance The Latin text was very useful for establishing an almost complete text of the London version and for identifying names and terms A comparison of our text with other Hebrew sources on Alexander was of similar help in establishing a correct reading The introduction which precedes the text and the English translation offers a survey of research into the history and development of Alexander traditions in Greek Latin and Hebrew literature as well as a detailed analysis of the present text concerning its language style and themes This study is concluded by selective notes to the text and indices on personal and geographical names and foreign terms with their Latin equivalents A Hebrew Alexander Romance According to Ms London, Jews' College No 145

Wout Jac. van Bekkum, 1992 The Prophet's Ascension Christiane J. Gruber, Frederick S. Colby, 2010-02 The tales of the mi raj describe the prophet Muhammad's journey through the heavens his encounters with prophets and angels and his visit to heaven and hell The tales are among Islam's most popular appearing in Arabic Persian and Turkish literature and in later adaptations throughout the Muslim world Often serving as narratives designed to promote the worldview of particular Muslim groups the tales were also a means for communities to construct rules of normative behavior and ritual practices and were used to assert the superiority of Islam over other religions The essays in this collection discuss the formation of this narrative the mi raj as a missionary text its various adaptations its application to esoteric thought and its use in performance and ritual

A Companion to Alexander Literature in the Middle Ages David Zuwiyya, 2011-07-27 Drawing on decades of research on Alexander literature from all over the world this book is bound to become a medievalist's best companion It studies Alexander romances from the East and the West in literary form and content Alexander the Great and Egypt

Volker Grieb, Krzysztof Nawotka, Agnieszka Wojciechowska, 2014-09-01 This volume presents the papers of an interdisciplinary conference held in Wroclaw in 2011 dedicated to Alexander's expedition to Egypt as well as to his afterlife and legend tied to Egypt and Alexandria Regarding military aspects there are papers focusing on Egypt's strategic significance in 4th century Greek sources as well as on Alexander's conquest in comparison to earlier conquests of the land of the Nile Furthermore they re-examine the chronology of Alexander's stay in Egypt and discuss the founding of Alexandria e.g. by linking it with 4th century urban developments in the Eastern Mediterranean Since Alexander's policy in Egypt is in large part reflected by hieroglyphic inscriptions and papyri other contributions focus on his legitimation as a pharaoh his royal title as well as on Egyptian temples renovated on his order Alexander's expedition to Egypt and the East was also a powerful stimulus for the development of science in antiquity which is covered by papers on the mystery of the flooding of the Nile and the spread of astrology His afterlife and legend is presented in this volume by a nuanced position of Alexander in Ptolemaic ideology and art while further papers scrutinize and dismantle modern scholarly myths of Alexander's sarcophagus and his tomb in Alexandria Methodological approaches from different fields of scholarship such as Ancient History Classical Studies Egyptology and Archaeology are juxtaposed in this volume and may contribute not merely to the study of the Egyptian episode in the history of Alexander the Great Alexander the Great in the Middle Ages Markus Stock, 2016-01-01

In the Middle Ages the life story of Alexander the Great was a well traveled tale Known in numerous versions many of them derived from the ancient Greek Alexander Romance it was told and re told throughout Europe India the Middle East and Central Asia The essays collected in Alexander the Great in the Middle Ages examine these remarkable legends not merely as stories of conquest and discovery but also as representations of otherness migration translation cosmopolitanism and diaspora Alongside studies of the Alexander legend in medieval and early modern Latin English French German and Persian Alexander the Great in the Middle Ages breaks new ground by examining rarer topics such as Hebrew Alexander romances Coptic and Arabic Alexander materials and early modern Malay versions of the Alexander legend Brought together in this wide ranging collection these essays testify to the enduring fascination and transcultural adaptability of medieval stories about the extraordinary Macedonian leader

The Curse of Ham David M. Goldenberg, 2009-04-11 How old is prejudice against black people Were the racist attitudes that fueled the Atlantic slave trade firmly in place 700 years before the European discovery of sub Saharan Africa In this groundbreaking book David Goldenberg seeks to discover how dark skinned peoples especially black Africans were portrayed in the Bible and by those who interpreted the Bible Jews Christians and Muslims Unprecedented in rigor and breadth his investigation covers a 1 500 year period from ancient Israel around 800 B C E to the eighth century C E after the birth of Islam By tracing the development of anti Black sentiment during this time Goldenberg uncovers views about race color and slavery that took shape over the centuries most centrally the belief that the biblical Ham and his descendants the black Africans had been cursed by God with eternal slavery Goldenberg begins by examining a host of references to black Africans in biblical and postbiblical Jewish literature From there he moves the inquiry from Black as an ethnic group to black as color and early Jewish attitudes toward dark skin color He goes on to ask when the black African first became identified as slave in the Near East and in a powerful culmination discusses the resounding influence of this identification on Jewish Christian and Islamic thinking noting each tradition's exegetical treatment of pertinent biblical passages Authoritative fluidly written and situated at a richly illuminating nexus of images attitudes and history The Curse of Ham is sure to have a profound and lasting impact on the perennial debate over the roots of racism and slavery and on the study of early Judaism Christianity and Islam

Silencing the Queen Tal Ilan, 2006 Tal Ilan explores the way historical documents from antiquity are reworked and edited in a long process that ends in silencing the women originally mentioned in them Many methods are used to produce this end result elimination of women or their words

denigration of the women and their role or unification of several significant women into one These methods and others are illuminated in this book as it uses the example of the Jewish queen Shelamzion Alexandra 76 67 BCE for its starting point Queen Shelamzion was the only legitimate Jewish queen in history Yet all the documents in which she is mentioned Josephus Qumran scrolls rabbinic literature etc have been reworked so as to minimize her significance and distort the picture we may receive of her Tal Ilan follows the ways this was done and in doing so she encounters similar patterns in which other Jewish women in antiquity were silenced censored and edited out

The Acts of Peter, Gospel Literature, and the Ancient Novel
Christine M. Thomas, 2003-03-27 The Acts of Peter one of the Apocryphal Acts of the Apostles that detail the exploits of the key figures of early Christianity provides a unique window into the formation of early Christian narrative Like the Gospels the Acts of Peter developed from disparate oral and written narrative from the first century The apocryphal text however continued to develop into a number of re castings translations abridgements and expansions The Acts of Peter present Christian narrative in an alternate universe in which canonization did not halt the process of creative re composition Now in this groundbreaking book Thomas examines the sources and subsequent versions of the Acts from the earliest traditions through the sixth century Passions of the Apostles arguing the importance of its narrative fluidity the existence of the work in several versions or multiforms This feature shared with the Jewish novels of Esther and Daniel the Greek romance about Alexander the Great and the Christian Gospels allows these narratives to adapt to accommodate the changing historical circumstances of their audiences In each new version the audiences defining conflicts were reflected in the text echoing a historical consciousness more often identified with primary oral societies in which the account of the past is a malleable script explaining the present Although the genre most closely comparable to these works is the ancient novel their serious historical intent separates them from the later more self consciously fictive novels and maintains them within the realm of the earlier historical novels produced by ethnic subcultures within the Roman empire

Joseph Dan, 2005 Joseph Dan the Gershom Scholem Professor of Kabbalah Emeritus at the Hebrew University and long time Professor of Jewish Studies at the Freie Universitat Berlin is one of the most influential figures in the fields of Jewish mystical thought homiletical and ethical literature modern Messianism and Hasidism and contemporary belles lettres His studies of the diverse aspects of Jewish creativity with close attention to the dialectics of religious cultural continuity versus historical innovation provide a comprehensive overview of the complex history of Jewish thought and its multiple creative faces It is precisely for this reason to honor Joseph Dan s multifaceted research that his many colleagues students and friends scattered among universities around the world have decided to focus their contributions in this Festschrift on the continuing process of creation and re creation in Jewish thought throughout the centuries Contributors Philip Alexander Dan Ben Amos Peter Schafer Margarete Schluter Bernard McGinn Klaus Herrmann Herbert Davidson Annelies Kuyt Haym Soloveitchik Eli Yassif Gerold Necker Marc Saperstein Giuseppe Veltri Aviezer Ravitzky Avinoam Rosenak Kimmy Caplan
