Altogether Elsewhere Writers On Exile:

Altogether Elsewhere Marc Robinson, 1994 After the Fall Noemi Marin, 2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance Realms of Exile Domnica Radulescu, 2002-01-01 Realms of Exile brings together authors writing on diverse themes of Eastern European exile The book defines the experiential and linguistic peculiarities of exiled people who share similar cultural geographical and mythological backgrounds and who have suffered under totalitarian rule The contributions discuss a variety of media from the soulful melodies of the Russian gypsies to the delicate sensuousness of Kieslowski s films as the authors treat some of the most crucial issues of our times such as political dissent and resistance the fractured self alienation and migr consciousness Realms of Exile is interdisciplinary and cross cultural scholarship at its best casting new light on the many nuances and variations of many of the cultures and ethnic groups of Eastern Europeans Literary Exiles from Nazi Germany Johannes Franciscus Evelein, 2014 Captures the learning process of Nazi era literary exiles following in the footsteps of legendary literary exemplars of exile Exile is as old as humanity itself but a radically new fate for the novice exile who falls into a world about which personal experience can tell him nothing He does however know a great number of stories myths legends allegories biblical or historical accounts about exile The novice s search for a foothold initiates a learning process in which the exilic tradition assumes a major role The present book captures this learning process it is a cultural history of exile as it was experienced by thousands of German and Austrian writers and intellectuals who opposed National Socialism among them Brecht Canetti Seghers Remarque the Manns and Ludwig Marcuse It shows how slowly exile becomes a reality through the growing awareness of and reference to the exemplary figures of a shared fate Scores of fellow travelers from the mythic figures Odysseus and Ahasverus The Eternal Jew to writers such as Heinrich Heine and Victor Hugo frame the experience of exile imbuing it with meaning giving it depth and even elevating it to a High Moral Office They frequently make appearances in the narratives of the Nazi era exiles The Russian American exile poet Joseph Brodsky called writers in exile retrospective and retroactive beings What their retrospective gazes yield as they search for meaning in banishment is at the heart of this book Johannes F Evelein is Professor of Language and Culture Studies at Trinity College Hartford Connecticut An Impossible Friendship Sonja

Mejcher-Atassi,2024-05-28 In Jerusalem as World War II was coming to an end an extraordinary circle of friends began to meet at the bar of the King David Hotel This group of aspiring artists writers and intellectuals among them Wolfgang Hildesheimer Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Sally Kassab Walid Khalidi and Rasha Salam some of whom would go on to become acclaimed authors scholars and critics came together across religious lines in a fleeting moment of possibility within a troubled history What brought these Muslim Jewish and Christian friends together and what became of them in the aftermath of 1948 the year of the creation of the State of Israel and the Palestinian Nakba Sonja Mejcher Atassi tells the story of this unlikely friendship and in so doing offers an intimate cultural and social history of Palestine in the critical postwar period She vividly reconstructs the vanished social world of these protagonists tracing the connections between the specificity of individual lives and the larger contexts in which they are embedded In exploring this ecumenical friendship and its artistic literary and intellectual legacies Mejcher Atassi demonstrates how social biography can provide a picture of the past that is at once more inclusive and more personal This group portrait she argues allows us to glimpse alternative possibilities that exist within and alongside the fraught history of Israel Palestine Bringing a remarkable era to life through archival research and nuanced interdisciplinary scholarship An Impossible Friendship unearths prospects for historical reconciliation solidarity and justice

The Capacity to be Displaced: Resilience, Mission, and Inner Strength Clemens Sedmak,2017-04-03 The experience of displacement is shared by people who work internationally The capacity to be displaced is a necessary strength and skill for people working across cultures particularly for missionaries In order to deal with the stressful nature of displacement people need to be resilient resilience makes people flourish in adverse circumstances This volume presents a specific type of resilience namely resilience nourished by inner sources Cultivating inner resilience draws on all the facets of a person s interior life thoughts and memories hopes and desires beliefs and convictions concerns and emotions The notion of inner strength and resilience from within is developed using many examples from missionaries and development workers as well as case studies from all over the world

Conceptualizing the World Helge Jordheim,Erling Sandmo,2018-12-17 What is and what was the world Though often treated as interchangeable with the ongoing and inexorable progress of globalization concepts of world globe or earth instead suggest something limited and absolute This innovative and interdisciplinary volume concerns itself with this central paradox that the complex heterogeneous and purportedly transhistorical dynamics of globalization have given rise to the idea and reality of a finite and thus vulnerable world Through studies of illuminating historical moments that range from antiquity to the era of Google Earth each contribution helps to trace the emergence of the world in multitudinous representations practices and human experiences

Twentieth-Century Music and Politics Pauline Fairclough, 2016-02-17 When considering the role music played in the major totalitarian regimes of the century it is music's usefulness as propaganda that leaps first to mind But as a number of the chapters in this volume demonstrate there is a complex relationship both between art music and politicised mass culture and between entertainment and propaganda Nationality self other power and ideology are the dominant themes of this book whilst key topics include music in totalitarian regimes music as propaganda music and national identity migr communities and composers music's role in shaping identities of self and other and music as both resistance to and instrument of oppression Taking the contributions together it becomes clear that shared experiences such as war dictatorship colonialism exile and emigration produced different yet clearly inter related musical consequences

Faces of Displacement Mykola Soroka, 2012 How emigration transformed the creative palette of a major Ukrainian writer and political figure Polish American History after 1939 Joanna Wojdon, 2024-06-03 This book is the second in a three part multi authored study of Polish American history which aims to present the history of Polish Americans in the United States from the beginning of Polish presence on the continent to the current times shown against a broad historical background of developments in Poland the United States and other locations of the Polish Diaspora According to the 2010 US Census there are 9.5 million persons who identify themselves as Polish Americans in the United States making them the eighth largest ethnic group in the country today Polish Americans or Polonia for short has always been one of the largest immigrant and ethnic groups and the largest Slavic group in America Despite that common knowledge about its social and political life culture and economy is still inadequate in Academia and among the Polish Americans themselves The book discusses the major themes in Polish

American history such as organizational life and the structure of the community facing subsequent waves of immigration from Poland its leadership and political involvement in Polish and American affairs as well as living and working conditions and the everyday life of families and communities their culture ethnic identity and relations with the broadly understood American society starting from the outbreak of World War 2 in Poland in September 1939 and ending with the highlights of the 21st century developments It depicts Polish Americans transition from a minority through ethnic group to Americans who take pride in their symbolic ethnicity maintained intentionally and manifested occasionally This volume will be of great value to students and scholars alike interested in Polish and American History and Social and Cultural History Polish, Hybrid, and Otherwise George Z. Gasyna, 2011-05-05 Making Home(s) in Displacement Luce Beeckmans, Alessandra Gola, Ashika Singh, Hilde Heynen, 2022-01-17 Making Home s in Displacement critically rethinks the relationship between home and displacement from a spatial material and architectural perspective Recent scholarship in the social sciences has investigated how migrants and refugees create and reproduce home under new conditions thereby unpacking the seemingly contradictory positions of making a home and overcoming its loss Yet making home s in displacement is also a spatial practice one which intrinsically relates to the fabrication of the built environment worldwide Conceptually the book is divided along four spatial sites referred to as camp shelter city and house which are approached with a multitude of perspectives ranging from urban planning and architecture to anthropology geography philosophy gender studies and urban history all with a common focus on space and spatiality By articulating everyday homemaking experiences of migrants and refugees as spatial practices in a variety of geopolitical and historical contexts this edited volume adds a novel perspective to the existing interdisciplinary scholarship at the intersection of home and displacement It equally intends to broaden the canon of architectural histories and theories by including migrants and refugees spatial agencies and place making practices to its annals By highlighting the political in the spatial and vice versa this volume sets out to decentralise and decolonise current definitions of home and displacement striving for a more pluralistic outlook on the idea of home Memory and Migration Julia Creet, Andreas Kitzmann, 2014-02-24 Memory plays an integral part in how individuals and societies construct their identity While memory is usually considered in the context of a stable unchanging environment this collection of essays explores the effects of immigration forced expulsions exile banishment and war on individual and collective memory The ways in which memory affects cultural representation and historical understanding across generations is examined through case studies and theoretical approaches that underscore its mutability Memory and Migration is a truly interdisciplinary book featuring the work of leading scholars from a variety of fields across the globe The essays are collaborative successfully responding to the central theme and expanding upon the findings of individual authors A groundbreaking contribution to an emerging field of study Memory and Migration provides valuable insight into the connections between memory place and displacement A Mirror in the Roadway Morris Dickstein, 2021-08-10 In a famous passage in The Red and the Black the French writer

Stendhal described the novel as a mirror being carried along a roadway In the twentieth century this was derided as a naive notion of realism Instead modern writers experimented with creative forms of invention and dislocation Deconstructive theorists went even further questioning whether literature had any real reference to a world outside its own language while traditional historians challenged whether novels gave a trustworthy representation of history and society In this book Morris Dickstein reinterprets Stendhal's metaphor and tracks the different worlds of a wide array of twentieth century writers from realists like Theodore Dreiser Sinclair Lewis Edith Wharton and Willa Cather through modernists like Franz Kafka and Samuel Beckett to wildly inventive postwar writers like Saul Bellow Günter Grass Mary McCarthy George Orwell Philip Roth and Gabriel García Márquez Dickstein argues that fiction will always yield rich insight into its subject and that literature can also be a form of historical understanding Writers refract the world through their forms and sensibilities He shows how the work of these writers recaptures yet also transforms the life around them the world inside them and the universe of language and feeling they share with their readers Through lively and incisive essays directed to general readers as well as students of literature Dickstein redefines the literary landscape a landscape in which reading has for decades been devalued by society and distorted by theory Having begun with a reconsideration of realism the book concludes with several essays probing the strengths and limitations of a historical approach to literature and criticism

Social Policy for Effective Practice

Rosemary Chapin, 2011-07-21 First Published in 2011 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Spanish and Latin American Filmmakers Rob Stone, 2013-07-19 This thorough account of the life and films of the Spanish Basque filmmaker Julio Medem is the first book in English on the internationally renowned writer-director of Vacas La ardilla roja Red Squirrel Tierra Los amantes del Círculo Polar Lovers of the Arctic Circle Lucía y el sexo Sex and Lucia La pelota vasca la piel contra la piedra Basque Ball and Catica Ana Chaotic Ana Initial chapters explore Medem's childhood adolescence and education and examine his earliest short films and critical writings against a background of a dramatically changing Spain Later chapters provide accounts of the genesis production and release of Medem's challenging and sensual films which feed into complex but lucid analyses of their meanings both political and personal in which Stone draws on traditions and innovations in Basque art Spanish cinema and European philosophy to create a complete and provocative portrait of Medem and his work

Asylum between Nations Janet Polasky, 2023-05-16 Why some of the most vulnerable communities in Europe from independent cities to new monarchies welcomed refugees during the Age of Revolutions and prospered Janet Polasky unearths an unappreciated history of the experience of asylum in Europe and the United States since the Age of the Democratic Revolutions Facing squarely the destruction of asylum in our own time she ends with a stunningly optimistic vision of a path toward its reconstruction Linda K Kerber author of No Constitutional Right to Be Ladies Driven from their homelands refugees from ancient times to the present have sought asylum in worlds turned upside down There is an age-old story So too are the solutions to their plight In the wake of the American and French Revolutions thousands of men and women took to the roads and waterways on both sides of the Atlantic refugees in search of their inalienable rights Although larger nations fortified their borders and circumscribed citizenship two port cities German Hamburg and Danish Altona opened their doors as did the federated Swiss cantons and the newly independent Belgian monarchy The refugees thrived and the societies that harbored them prospered The United States followed not only welcoming waves of immigrants in the mid nineteenth century but offering them citizenship as well In this remarkable story of the first modern refugee crisis historian Janet Polasky shows how open doors can be a viable alternative to the building of border walls

Exiled Intellectuals: Encounters, Conflicts, and Experiences in Transnational Context Latife Akyüz, Hakan Altun, Eylem Çamuroğlu Çığ, Melehat Kutun, 2024-11-04 Right after the Gezi Resistance a new tendency of authoritarianism rapidly emerged in Turkey and AKP government started targeting anyone it perceives as a threat to its rule especially academics journalists politicians actors directors i e the intellectuals who produce oppositional art and critical knowledge criminalizing them as enemies of the state The authoritarian regime has permeated every aspect of economic social cultural and political life institutionalized primarily through the ongoing state of emergency declared in the wake of the July 15 2016 coup attempt one might also consider this as a controlled and manipulated toxoid coup This new climate has started to limit the opportunities of production and reproduction for the intellectuals and artists and even holding a dissident stance became a source of risk on its own The Republic of Turkey limited oppressed and punished the means of expression by giving one of the harshest and maybe the most violent reactions of its history against critical thought and opposition The culture of democracy which was almost already non existent has been completely abolished through the suspension of democracy on the ostensible level This ongoing period is one in which producers of critical knowledge and opposing artists are being faced with immense oppression and penal sanctions One of the outcomes of this process is a kind of new nomadism that we can sketch out as leaving behind And one of the forms of this leaving is voluntary or involuntary exile The majority of those whom we call new exile intellectuals today have relocated generally to Western Europe Great Britain the United States and especially to Germany This new wave of political forced migration which started in the aftermath of the Gezi uprisings and gained momentum following the coup attempt has been defined by the editors of the book as new exile in order to draw a framework as it has some unique characteristics different from the previous waves The fundamental property of this experience is the simultaneous mobilization of intellectual capital and bi polar opposition This oppositional stance is both against the dominant global order and against German style authoritarianism as well as Turkish style fascism It is bi polar in the context of exile The form of the opposition in question has the ability to take root in the lands it arrives at It does not point towards a single direction forward or backward and a single place the place it was ruptured it is here now and multidirectional This state of new exile bears the efforts of existing critical knowledge and art producers in the heim to which they have relocated as critical knowledge and art producers are opposed to the dominant world system as well as to fascism

in Turkey As political subjects of the resistance against authoritarianism they are continuously and collectively fighting against the structural fate of displacement As both subjects and researchers of this current state of new exile it is our primary responsibility to understand and produce knowledge of these intellectuals responses in this new life to monitor the creation processes of the new mechanisms to cope with the challenges and to understand investigate the effects of all these on the transnational social space We have tried to determine the content of this book based on our own experiences as new exiled intellectuals We believe that in this period of new exile we are subjects and witnesses of a historic period due to our individual struggle for existence as well as our modes of organization and solidarity as a group of new exiled intellectuals On one hand we know that while transforming ourselves we pave the way for mutual interaction and the transformation of the structures in which we relate This is precisely why the motivation behind the idea of compiling this book lies not only in academic concerns such as analyzing the process and contributing to the literature on new exile but also in keeping a record of our own stories creating memories of our new exilic lives strategies of existence solidarity and experiences of activism and in sharing them with intellectuals around the globe who face the same fate We believe that this book with academic analyses and personal stories of new exile intellectuals from different professions will also serve as a guide for the steps towards transnational collaborations
