Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Banking, Currency, and Housing United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Currency, and Housing, 1978 Credit to the Community Dan Immergluck, 2016-07-08 This book provides the most comprehensive examination of community reinvestment and fair lending problems and policies currently available It outlines the history of lending discrimination and redlining in U S mortgage and small business lending markets and documents the persistence of such problems today The author explains the role that government has played in developing banking and credit markets in the United States from the creation of Alexander Hamilton's First Bank of the United States to the ongoing support government provides through the subsidization of secondary markets and through maintenance of critical regulatory infrastructure Immergluck takes issue with those calling for deregulation of financial services especially in the arena of fair lending and consumer protection and gives new voice to rationales for social contract policies such as the Community Reinvestment Act He provides new long term analysis of the failure of federal bank regulators to enforce the CRA and also shows how increased community activism and media attention have led to sporadic periods of stronger CRA enforcement Finally he recommends a number of policy changes that are needed to modernize the nation s fair lending and community reinvestment laws and make them more relevant for the 21st century
