Justice for Victims of Crime Albin Dearing, 2017-02-06 This book analyses the rights of crime victims within a human rights paradigm and describes the inconsistencies resulting from attempts to introduce the procedural rights of victims within a criminal justice system that views crime as a matter between the state and the offender and not as one involving the victim To remedy this problem the book calls for abandoning the concept of crime as an infringement of a state's criminal laws and instead reinterpreting it as a violation of human rights The state's right to punish the offender would then be replaced by the rights of victims to see those responsible for violating their human rights convicted and punished and by the rights of offenders to be treated as accountable agents

The New Criterion December 2010 Roger Kimball, 2010-12-13 The New Criterion now co edited by the art critic Hilton Kramer and Roger Kimball was founded in 1982 by Mr Kramer and the pianist and music critic Samuel Lipman A monthly review of the arts and intellectual life The New Criterion began as an experiment in critical audacity a publication devoted to engaging in Matthew Arnold's famous phrase with the best that has been thought and said This also meant engaging with those forces dedicated to traducing genuine cultural and intellectual achievement whether through obfuscation politicization or a commitment to nihilistic absurdity We are proud that The New Criterion has been in the forefront both of championing what is best and most humanely vital in our cultural inheritance and in exposing what is mendacious corrosive and spurious Published monthly from September through June The New Criterion brings together a wide range of young and established critics whose common aim is to bring you the most incisive criticism being written today
