been based on a Peasant Myth originating with nineteenth century Romantics and still accepted by many historians today In this book Tracy Dennison shows how Russian society looked from below and finds nothing like the collective redistributive and market averse behaviour often attributed to Russian peasants On the contrary the Russian rural population was as integrated into regional and even national markets as many of its west European counterparts Serfdom was a loose garment that enabled different landlords to shape economic institutions especially property rights in widely diverse ways Highly coercive and backward regimes on some landlords estates existed side by side with surprisingly liberal approximations to a rule of law This book paints a vivid and colourful picture of the everyday reality of rural Russia before the 1861 abolition of serfdom

Borras Jr.,2013-09-13 Agrarian transformations within and across countries have been significantly and dynamically altered during the past few decades compared to previous eras provoking a variety of reactions from rural poor communities worldwide The recent convergence of various crises financial food energy and environmental has put the nexus between rural development and development in general back onto the center stage of theoretical policy and political agendas in the world today Confronting these issues will require re engaging with critical theories taking politics seriously and utilizing rigorous and appropriate research methodologies These are the common messages and implications of the various contributions to this collection in the context of a scholarship that is critical in two senses questioning prescriptions from mainstream perspectives and interrogating popular conventions in radical thinking This book focuses on key perspectives frameworks and methodologies in agrarian change and peasant studies The contributors are leading scholars in the field of rural development studies Henry Bernstein Terence J Byres Saturnino M Borras Jr Marc Edelman Crist bal Kay Benedict Kerkvliet Philip McMichael Shahra Razavi Ian Scoones and Teodor Shanin This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies
