Ken Ludden, 2011-09-07. The detailed outline for the curriculum of The Margot Fonteyn Academy of Ballet. Ken Ludden, artistic director, publishes the entire educational method with detailed course descriptions, standards, and traditions, audition requirements, requirements for matriculation, and the levels of education. In the end, graduates of MFAB will have received a thorough education to prepare them to become the artistic leaders of their generation, and as they take to the stages of the world, eyes will open once again to the tremendous artistic achievements possible when the most inspired artists are given impeccable technical training in classical ballet but also in dramatic arts, music, and visual arts. Students are trained for an entire lifetime in the fine art of performance, beginning as performing artists and then, once retired from stage, as leaders of the art world.

Maskwork Jennifer Foreman, 2021-01-01. The practice of mask wearing has a long history, even becoming mandatory in times of global crisis. In this useful contribution to the performing arts curriculum, Maskwork takes a new look at the creative and timeless art of masks and mask making while also exploring their cultural anthropology from prehistory to the present day. Drawing on her extensive experience in professional theatre and running workshops, Foreman promotes the life-affirming qualities of masks, providing us with an invaluable resource for artists and teachers as well as parents seeking activities for children at home. Eight themed projects use photographs to document masks and mask-making techniques, with each one offering practical advice and design ideas. Materials are inexpensive and easy to acquire. Margot Fonteyn Academy: Basic Handbook Ken Ludden, 2012-03-26. This handbook contains your complete information on how The Margot Fonteyn Academy of Ballet operates. It is designed to aid families and students through their association with the Academy, giving clear rules, regulations, standards, practices, and requirements. It also presents an overview of our Educational Program, designed by Dame Margot Fonteyn de Arias in conjunction with Artistic Director Ken Ludden. Protecting People and
