Paperback The Senior Volunteer Charles C. Sharpe, 2005-06-29 The goal of this comprehensive volume is to encourage volunteerism among retired and older people for their own good and for the good of society To this end it documents the physical and psychosocial benefits and the personal rewards that derive from a productive volunteer experience The book also discusses volunteerism in the context of changing concepts of aging and retirement in America and presents an extensive listing of up to date opportunities for prospective volunteers bringing the idea of volunteer work into the 21st century Three appendices provide both hard data on the ways people volunteer in America today and specific guidance on learning how to use the Internet in volunteering including a useful glossary of Internet terms A list of sources cited in print and on the Internet and an index complete the work What's Next in Your Life? James I. Briggs, 2025-01-16 At different times in our lives we experience transitions from one life stage to another The transition into retirement and the realization that we are growing older are two of those major transition points So much of our identity comes from the work we have done the positions we have held and the families we have raised Shifting what defines our identity when we leave our profession or become empty nesters can be challenging and unsettling This book includes a series of reflective exercises to help you gain a clearer understanding of what you want to do next That process includes answering three essential questions How have you been gifted in life To what purpose do you want to put those gifts at this point in your life How can you be successful in achieving those purposes The author's approach to answering these questions is very much influenced by Ignatian spirituality But you do not need to be a person of faith to participate in the reflective exercises recommended You can adapt them to your own experience without reference to any specific faith or spirituality By thoughtfully reflecting on these questions and participating in these exercises you can find the tools you need to develop a deeper understanding of the transition into retirement and greater clarity about what it is you want to do next with what the poet Mary Oliver calls your one wild and precious life Enjoying Retirement Leonard Doohan, 2010 Offers practical advice to retirees while

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 Parish Ministry for Maturing Adults Richard P. Johnson, 2007 The current crisis in parish ministry for maturing adults is the reason Richard Johnson wrote this book It is his clear intention that parishes become more active more assertive and more focused on the fundamentals of ministering to those in their maturing years As he looks into the future the author sees this ministry growing steadily and surely taking its rightful place among other parish ministries He calls for a new vision for parish ministry with maturing adults that moves beyond social activities to a new model of spiritual growth and personal development The
