Napier, 2016-06 Now nearly two decades later Napier is ready to share more of her own life story while returning to the subject she was first introduced to by her grandmother. As she comes again to the topic that pervades her life story, she focuses on several themes including the importance of experiencing a sense of meaning in life, the sacred nature of all beings and life itself, the belief that everything is an essential part of the full expression of one life both individually and collectively, and that we inherently draw from an underlying wholeness the power of what it means to be aware in the present moment and the fact that suffering is part of everyday life and we can learn to move through it. Napier explains that once we recognize our place within collective consciousness and focus on compassion and mindfulness, we can begin to experience more directly the interdependence and interconnection underlying our place in the universe.

Cloister and Community Mary Jo Weaver, 2002 Cloister and Community is both a history of the Carmelite monastery of Indianapolis and an introduction to the Carmelites, a contemplative order of Roman Catholicism founded in the 13th century and rededicated as a reform movement for women religious in the 16th century by Teresa of Avila. A key element of the order is that its nuns live an ascetic, cloistered life, but as Mary Jo Weaver demonstrates, the view that one must leave the world to find sacred space apart from it has evolved to embrace the notion that the world itself is a sacred space Weaver focuses on a modern Indianapolis community and describes how the sisters incorporate Carmelite belief and practice into their daily lives Cloister and Community is a beautifully written and handsomely produced book that offers readers a privileged view of the world of present day contemplative spirituality ALSO OF INTEREST Being Right Conservative Catholics in America Edited by Mary Jo Weaver and R Scott Appleby 0 253 32922 1 HB 34 500 253 20999 4 PB 15 50 What s Left Liberal American Catholics Edited by Mary Jo Weaver 0 253 21332 0 HB 30 500 253 21332 0 PB 14 50
