Creating Portfolios For Success In School Work And Life:

Creating Portfolios Kay Burke, Martin Kimeldorf, 1994 Creating Portfolios Martin Kimeldorf, 1994-09-01 A portfolio is a powerful tool for learning assessment and self discovery In some school districts portfolios are being mandated into the curriculum The 12 in depth exercises contained in this reference leads students through the process of preparing four different types of portfolios personal student project and professional Illustrations Resources in Education ,2001-04

Capturing the Wisdom of Practice Giselle Martin-Kniep, 1999-09-15 What do professional portfolios consist of Who are their audiences Why should teachers and administrators use them How are they structured In Capturing the Wisdom of Practice Giselle Martin Kniep answers these and other questions drawing on her work with more than 3 000 teachers and administrators from 400 school districts Through excerpts from actual portfolios Martin Kniep illustrates how to select a range of artifacts that will lead portfolio developers to evaluate and improve their work She also discusses using portfolios for key purposes learning curriculum development and assessment research and staff development Readers will find many practical strategies for building and using portfolios and learn what conditions are needed for success I am absolutely convinced says Martin Kniep that every professional who uses portfolios in a serious way will become a better teacher or administrator Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book Sourcebook of Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice David P. Moxley, John R. Finch, 2006-04-11 We live in a day and age in which many fields come together to define new ones and out of these newly defined areas come innovative practices and emergent ways of thinking The Sourcebook on Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice documents one of these new fields one formed by the coalescence of rehabilitative and mental health services and employment Only recently have human service practitioners policy makers and administrators recognized that there is a growing synergy among these areas once separated by great gulfs of differences in culture perspectives and values and technologies It is not happenstance that rehabilitation mental health and employment are becoming increasingly integrated in contemporary human services There is considerable interest in work in contemporary society although different values and perspectives mediate this interest For people with disabilities an interest in work often comes from deep frustration from not having ready access to work and from not having enough of it to facilitate an acceptable quality of life or independent living Some people find work to be a source of problems that negatively affects their functioning They find the workplace stressful and unsupportive or they feel that work exacts too much from them reducing their quality of life and setting into motion numerous negative personal effects Beck 2000 110 Strategies for Success in College and Life Joan H. Rollins & Mary Zahm, 2006-02-13 110 Strategies for Success in College and Life offers students clear presentations of 110 strategies to guide them through to college graduation and beyond These principles are derived from numerous research studies from a wide range of areas within psychology as well as from the authors many years of experience as college professors researchers and student advisors This book closes the gap between scientific knowledge and its application to college success Topics include information processing and learning critical thinking and decision making identifying and achieving goals managing time money and energy reading and writing effectively reducing test anxiety knowing thyself and preparing for a career The latest research findings are presented It is a valuable guide for freshman whether coming right out of high school or after a hiatus of years working and or taking care of a family This book is particularly appropriate for minority and first generation college students who may have fewer mentors to help them along the college path Each chapter offers case studies of successful students to serve as role models The focus of the book is on the practical application of the strategies in the student s daily life within a framework of flexibility integrity and balance Learning, Practicing, and Living the New Careering Anna Miller-Tiedeman,1999 Learning Practicing and Living the New Careering presents a theoretical overview of conventional career counseling theories and compares them to the New Careering This volume does not dismiss traditional career theories but rather illustrates the symbiosis while placing conventional wisdom in a subordinate position to personal reality Miller Tiedeman uses case studies and discussion points to help both professionals and students learn practical application Jacket The Heart of Wisdom Teaching Approach Robin Sampson,2005-04 Details the Bible based homeschool teaching approach for parents and discusses Christian education learning styles unit studies bible study and more Writing as a Learning Tool Päivi Tynjälä,L. Mason,K.

Lonka,2012-12-06 In a brief summary the debate concerning the nature of writing processes is about whether the essential characteristic of expertise in writing is a matter of mastering problem solving strategies In this respect the role of social and interactive factors such as writers familiarity with the particular genre in which they are writing and their relationship with the discourse community in which they are participating have been pointed out e g Nystrand 1989 According to the socio interactive approach which refers to Vygotsky s theory the composition process is a dialogue between the writer and the reader made possible by socially shared knowledge The meaning of a text is a social construct that is negotiated between the reader and the writer through the medium of the text The importance of motivational aspects has also been highlighted by two main lines of research studies of the relationship between writing and self efficacy e g Pajares Benton Corkill Sharp Downey Khrantsova 1995 Hidi McLaren 1990 1991 Self efficacy in this context individuals beliefs about their ability to produce certain types of texts have been found to be predictive of writing skills strategy use and writing performance
