Creating The School An Introduction To Education:

Creating the School Bruce R. Joyce, Greta G. Morine, 1976 Creating School Partnerships that Work Frances K. Kochan, Dana M. Griggs, 2020-07-01 THIS IS A UNIQUE BOOK IF YOU CARE ABOUT SCHOOLS AND SCHOOLING AND THE WAY IN WHICH PARTNERSHIPS MAY HELP TO STRENGTHEN AND IMPROVE THEM AND THE INSTITUTIONS THAT PARTNER WITH THEM YOU SHOULD READ IT School partnerships have a long history in the United States The inception of public schooling was a type of partnership with the community The concept of local school boards and local control was integral to the establishment of schools and the idea that public education was a public good has deep roots in the country Partnerships denote relationships which are mutually beneficial to the parties involved and which result in joint benefits for those who create and engage in them The partnerships presented in this book provide ample evidence of the value and benefits of these arrangements The book contains stories and research about school partnerships from a variety of groups and perspectives which are focused upon multiple issues within educational institutions and communities within the United States The final chapter presents an analysis across all the partnerships to identify the elements that fostered and hindered their success and the primary lessons learned This analysis should provide meaningful information for those engaged in developing and operating similar partnerships or those involved in conducting research on or about them Although the cases presented in this book occur within the United States the findings may also have relevance for similar initiatives in other countries Praise for Creating School Partnerships that Work A Guide for Practice and Research Kudos to Dana Griggs and Frances Kochan for compiling the rich accountings of eight different school partnerships all in one place Readers will learn a great deal from both the individual accountings of a broad array of partnerships as well as the collective analysis of the partnerships and lessons learned across them Creating School Partnerships that Work A Guide for Research and Practice is a must read book for anyone who ever has been is or desires to be involved in any type of school partnership Nancy Fichtman Dana Professor School of Teaching and Learning University of Florida Gainesville Creating School Partnerships that Work A Guide for Research and Practice is a must read for scholars researchers practitioners and community members seeking to identify elements of successful school partnerships that foster students academic and personal successes This edited volume shares stakeholders perspectives on multi dimensional school partnerships which have successfully led to sustained collaborations across diverse purposes that are mutually beneficial for all groups The usefulness of the content analysis presented in the final chapter which identifies elements both fostering and hindering partnerships with recommendations cannot be overstated Mary Barbara Trube Professor Emerita Ohio University Chillicothe Contributing Faculty Dissertation Mentor Walden University Early Childhood Education Adjunct Faculty Florida SouthWestern State College Mentor Early Childhood Consultant ILEAD Xi an Jiaotong Liverpool University Reimagining the Purpose of Schools and Educational Organisations Anthony Montgomery, Ian Kehoe, 2015-12-22 This book features a diverse set of perspectives all focused towards questioning the role schools actually play in society and more importantly the role they could potentially play. Containing papers presented at the 1st International Conference on Reimagining Schooling which took place in Thessaloniki Greece June 2013 bringing together international and multi disciplinary perspectives on the future of education and schools. Combines diverse specialties analyzing schools as organizations and questions the purpose of schools. The book explores the current purpose of schooling and debates what roles and values young people currently learn from schooling. It examines such issues as the impact of Neoliberalism the pursuit of the socially just school and imagining contemporary schools beyond their consumerist mentality. Tackling development in the growing economic and social crisis in Europe and offering transformative analysis of the psychology and decision making involved for innovating teaching learning socio economic and policy contexts. In addition the book shows different ways young people can be creatively involved in reimagining schooling. It also details both innovative and radical ideas that currently exist about school transformation such as building learning partnerships for all and creating synergies across formal and informal settings of learning. Raising important questions for the future of the relationship between teacher and pupil and positive and pro active behavior. There is a growing realization that schools fail to accommodate diverse types of learning and that their purpose is not simply about education. Featuring academics and practitioners from many different disciplines this book boldly questions the values that currently permeate school walls and suggests ways that schooling itself can be made better. New School Management Approaches OECD, 2001-05-21 Those who manage schools and educational systems today have an arduous task as schools everywhere are being asked to do more than ever before.
