Creating Theatre The Professionals Approach To New Plays:

Scriptwork David Kahn, Donna Breed, 1995 Directors can use this unique guidebook for new play development from the beginning to the end of the process Kahn and Breed explore ways of choosing new projects talk about where to find new scripts and explore the legal aspects of script development They present a detailed system for theatrical analysis of the new script and show how to continue exploration and development of the script within the laboratory of the theatre Most importantly they delineate the parameters of the relationship between the director and the playwright offering proven methods to help the playwright and to facilitate the healthy development of the script Kahn and Breed offer suggestions on casting incorporating rewrites and script handling plus how and when to use audience response and how to decide what step to take next They also include extended interviews with developmental directors dramaturgs and playwrights who give credence to the new script development process

The Plays of Beth Henley Gene A. Plunka, 2014-11-18 Beth Henley's twelve complete plays three of which have been turned into films have achieved worldwide production At age 29 she produced her first full length drama Crimes of the Heart which won a Pulitzer Prize and garnered three Academy Award nominations as a film Her Mississippi upbringing and her penchant for the eccentricities of southern culture however have caused critics to categorize her writing as a kind of southern gothic folklore inspired by feminist ideology This book the first critical study of Henley's complete plays attempts to dispel the common stereotypes that associate Henley's work with regional drama and sociological treatises It argues instead that Henley can best be perceived as a dramatist who delineates an existential despair manifested in various forms of what Freud calls the modern neurosis The book maintains that Henley's plays must be understood as universal statements about the angst of modern civilization and Henley's characters are assessed in light of Freud's proposition that cultural restrictions create neurotic individuals The introduction provides a brief account of Henley's childhood and career Early chapters summarize the theory of the modern angoisse espoused in Freud's Civilization and Its Discontents while later chapters relate this theory to thematic and stylistic elements of Henley's most popular play Crimes of the Heart as well as Am I Blue The Wake of Jamie Foster The Miss Firecracker Contest The Debutante Ball The Lucky Spot Abundance Signature Control Freaks Revelers L Play and Impossible Marriage

King Richard II Margaret Shewring, 1998 Considers the theatrical fortunes of Richard II from its politically controversial beginnings on the Elizabethan and Restoration stage to its various later interpretations responding to 19th and 20th century tastes and attitudes A wide range of performances is documented and discussed These illustrate the ways in which different theatres and companies have staged the play by cutting restructuring or adding to Shakespeare's script to highlight spectacle the personality of the King the nature of authority and the place of Richard in the overall sweep of English history Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1987 Passing

Performances Robert A. Schanke, Kimberley Bell Marra, 2023-06-20 Passing Performances gathers a range of critical and biographical essays on notable personalities whose major contributions to the stage occurred before 1969 the year of the Stonewall riots that kicked off the gay rights movement in the United States How these theater practitioners variously passed i.e. managed unconventional sexual inclinations both on and offstage significantly determined the course of their personal and professional lives and thus the course of U.S. theater history The actors directors producers and agents examined here include Edwin Forrest Charlotte Cushman and Adah Isaacs Menken whose personal lives and careers traded on the same sex erotics of true love in the antebellum period Elisabeth Marbury Elsie de Wolfe Elsie Janis Nance O Neil and Alla Nazimova whose intimate female liaisons were variously interpreted around the turn of the century the lavender marriages of Alfred Lunt to Lynne Fontanne and Guthrie McClintic to Katharine Cornell the lesbian collaborations of Margaret Webster and Cheryl Crawford the comic antics of Monty Woolley which negotiated codified constructions of homosexual perversion in the post Freudian interwar years and the on and offstage performances of Mary Martin and Joe Cino which resisted the paranoid enforcements of heterosexual normality in the McCarthy era Central to these investigations are the complex connections of performances of sexuality and gender and their different implications for men and women practitioners working under pervasive sexism and homophobia The volume also includes striking archival photographs of the performers and their performances and an index to facilitate the cross referencing of subjects intersecting careers Passing Performances will engage both general and academic readers interested in theater gay and lesbian history American studies and biography Robert A.
