Early Christian Writers in the West and the Classical Literary Tradition Sophia Papaioannou, Thomas Tsartsidis, 2024-12-02 Early Christian prose writers of the Latin West 2nd-5th c AD have long been studied predominantly from theological and historical perspectives. Hence there is a conspicuous scarcity of comprehensive studies approaching these texts from stylistic and literary angles. This volume will be an important step towards filling this substantial gap in recent scholarship. It will include chapters on selected Latin Christian writers such as Tertullian, Arnobius, Lactantius, Firmicus Maternus, Ambrose, Jerome, and Augustine. It aims at investigating on the one hand ways in which these texts can be appreciated as literary texts in their own right by exploring the style and imagery employed in them, and on the other the intricate and meaningful modes in which these writers interact, develop, and transform phraseology, topoi, concepts, and techniques found in Classical literature. This volume will offer a paradigmatic overview as to the usefulness of approaching early Christian writers through a literary lens, thus opening up new paths of research across various disciplines including Classics, Literary Studies, Theology, and Social History.
