Biographical Directory Of One Hundred Leading Soviet Officials:

A Biographical Directory Of 100 Leading Soviet Officials Alexander Rahr, 2019-03-04 This updated and expanded biographical directory is the first in the series of directories published by Radio Liberty since 1981 to include photographs. The volume provides detailed information about the careers and lives of current members of top Soviet party and government bodies, officials of the armed forces and diplomats. Also represented are a number of middle ranking officials who stand a good chance of attaining top level posts in the next few years. Entries are in alphabetical order and each entry includes a biographical sketch, a career chronology, a summary of the content of published articles and speeches and details of political alignment and connections. The volume is current through summer 1990 and documents the substantial recent turnover in party organizations such as the Central Committee and in state bodies such as the newly elected Council of People's Deputies. It is an indispensable reference for scholars, business people, journalists, government officials and others trying to follow the rapid changes taking place in the USSR.

Prospect research already used by fund raisers with considerable success in the USA to target key people can make all the difference to the success or failure of your initial approach. Targeting the powerful international prospect research is a highly practical guide to prospect research written by a leading expert. It explains how to conduct in depth research into a person, company or charitable foundation and how to use the information to recommend a line of approach most likely to succeed Contents What is prospect research Setting up a prospect research department Online CD ROM the Internet or paper Ethics security and confidentiality Day to day questions Finding the prospects Marketing your organisation to the prospect People Company information Foundations and trusts International comparisons A report on a new country General sources for a new country Specific international resources The United Kingdom Western Europe and Scandinavia Central and Eastern Europe Asia Pacific The United States Canada The rest of the world Addresses Index Patronage and Politics in the USSR John P. Willerton, 1992 How do Soviet politicians rise to power How are national and regional regimes formed How are conflicting political interests brought together as policies are developed in the Soviet Union In Patronage and Politics in the USSR first published in 1991 Professor John Willerton offers major insights into the patronage networks that have dominated elite mobility regime formation and governance in the Soviet Union during the past twenty five years Using the biographical and career details of over two thousand national leaders and regional officials in Azerbaijan and Lithuania John Willerton traces the patron client relations underlying recruitment mobility and policymaking He explores the strategies of power consolidation and coalition building used by Soviet chief executives since 1964 as well as the institutional links and policy outcomes that have resulted from network politics The author also assesses the manner and extent to which leaders in politically stable and less stable settings spanning different national cultural contexts have relied upon patronage networks to consolidate power and to govern Finally Professor Willerton explores how in a period of dramatic change patron client networks may have given way to institutionalised interest groups and political parties Problems of Communism , 1988
