A Complement to Genealogies in the Library of Congress Library of Congress, 2012-09 A complement to genealogies in the Library of Congress t p of fifth v Biographical Books, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company, 1983 This book is a companion volume to Biographical books 1950 1980 completing a comprehensive one hundred and five year bibliography of biographical and autobiographical works published or distributed in the United States Preface History of Morgan County, Ohio, with Portraits and Biographical Sketches of Some of Its Pioneers and Prominent Men Charles Robertson, 1886 Religious Books 1876-1982 , 1983 The Ethnographer's Magic and Other Essays in the History of Anthropology George W. Stocking, 1992 George Stocking has been widely recognized as the premier historian of anthropology ever since the publication of his first volume of essays Race Culture and Evolution in 1968 As editor of several publications including the highly acclaimed History of Anthropology series he has led the movement to establish the history of anthropology as a recognized research specialization In addition to the study Victorian Anthropology his work includes numerous essays covering a wide range of anthropological topics The eight essays collected in The Ethnographer's Magic consider the emergence of anthropology since the late nineteenth century as an academic discipline grounded in systematic fieldwork Drawing extensively on unpublished manuscript materials the essays focus primarily on Franz Boas and Bronislaw Malinowski the leading figures in the American and the British academic fieldwork traditions According to George Marcus of Rice University the essays represent the most informative and insightful writings on Malinowski and Boas and their legacies that are yet available Beyond their biographical material the essays here touch upon major themes in the history of anthropology its powerfully mythic aspect and persistent strain of romantic primitivism the contradictions of its relationship to the larger sociopolitical sphere its problematic integration of a variety of natural scientific and humanistic inquiries and the tension between its scientific aspirations and its subjectively acquired data To provide an overview against which to read the other essays Stocking has also included a sketch of the history of anthropology from the ancient Greeks to the present For this collection Stocking has written prefatory commentaries for each of the essays as well as two more extended contextualizing pieces An introductory essay Retrospective Prescriptive Reflections places the volume in autobiographical and historiographical context the Afterword Postscriptive Prospective Reflections reconsiders major themes of the essays in relation to the recent past and present situation of academic anthropology Quaker History , 1962 Cowles Encyclopedia of Nations Cowles Education Corporation, 1968 A single handy reference volume of the world's nations colonies dependencies cities and geographic features Strange Names of God Sangkeun Kim, 2004 One of the most precarious and daunting tasks for sixteenth century European missionaries in the cross cultural mission frontiers was translating the name of God Deus into the local language When the Italian Jesuit Matteo Ricci 1552 1610 introduced the Chinese term Shangti as the semantic equivalent of Deus he made one of the most innovative cross cultural missionary translations Ricci's employment of Shangti was neither a simple rewording of a Chinese term nor the use of a loan word but was indeed a risk taking identification of the Christian God with the Confucian Most High Shangti Strange Names of God investigates the historical progress of the semantic configuration of Shangti as the divine name of the Christian God in China by focusing on Chinese intellectuals' reaction to the strangely translated Chinese name of God Humanities, 1992
