Biographical Truth:

Biography Catherine Neal Parke, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang, 2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research The Auto/biographical I Liz Stanley, 1992 This feminist literary study discusses postmodern ideas about the self particularly about the way in which selves are constructed by biography and autobiography The author particularly examines the manner in which women write about themselves

Literary Biography Michael J. Benton, 2015-08-03 Literary Biography An Introduction illustrates and accounts for the literary genre that merges historical facts with the conventions of narrative while revealing how the biographical context can enrich the study of canonical authors Provides up to date and comprehensive coverage of issues and controversies in life writing a rapidly growing field of study Offers a valuable biographical and historical context for the study of major classic and contemporary authors Features an interview with Wilfred Owen's biographer Dominic Hibberd a gallery of literary portraits with commentaries close readings that illustrate the differences between fiction and biography speculation about likely future developments and detailed suggestions for further reading Neo-Victorian Fiction and Historical Narrative L. Hadley, 2010-10-13 Placing the popular genre of neo Victorian fiction within the context of the contemporary cultural fascination with the Victorians this book argues that these novels are distinguished by a commitment to historical specificity and understands them within their contemporary context and the context of Victorian historical and literary narratives

Recognizing Biography William H. Epstein, 2017-11-15 Epstein's narrative interweaves interpretive and theoretical chapters as it emplots the discourse of English biography from Walton to Strachey In this way familiar generic relationships between biographer subject life text falsehood and readership are analyzed in specific if constantly shifting historical literary cultural and economic texts The True Story of Alice B. Toklas Anna Linzie, 2006-04 In this original and intriguing study Anna Linzie examines three mid twentieth century texts never before treated as interrelated in a book length work of literary criticism Gertrude Stein's The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas 1933 and Alice B Toklas's The Alice B Toklas Cook Book 1954 and What Is Remembered 1963 Taking these three texts as intertexts or as an assemblage of the true story of Alice B Toklas Linzie challenges assumptions about primary authorship and singular identity that have continued to limit lesbian and feminist rereadings of autobiography as a genre and of Stein and Toklas as writers and historical figures The True Story of Alice B Toklas explores how the concept of autobiography as a primarily referential genre is challenged and transformed in relation to autobiographical texts written about the same person the same life but differently by different writers at different points in time The concept of one true story is deconstructed in the process as Linzie modifies Homi K Bhabha s almost the same but not quite not white for the purposes of this particular study as almost the same but not quite not straight The investigation moves simultaneously on the planes of textuality and sexuality in order to provisionally articulate a lesbian autobiographical subject in Linzie s reading of these three texts Linzie s study fills a gap in literary criticism where Stein s companion and her work have been more or less neglected conceptualizing the Stein Toklas sexual textual relationship as fundamentally reciprocal The True Story of Alice B Toklas provides a new critical perspective on Toklas as indispensable to Stein s literary production a cultural laborer in her own right and a writer of her own books Making a significant contribution to recent lesbian feminist reconceptualizations of the genre of autobiography this study will fascinate Stein and Toklas scholars as well as those interested in queer and autobiography studies

A Companion to Literary Biography Richard Bradford, 2018-11-28 An authoritative review of literary biography covering the seventeenth century to the twentieth century A Companion to Literary Biography offers a comprehensive account of literary biography spanning the history of the genre across three centuries The editor an esteemed literary biographer and noted expert in the field has encouraged contributors to explore the theoretical and methodological questions raised by the writing of biographies of writers The text examines how biographers have dealt with the lives of classic authors from Chaucer to contemporary figures such as Kingsley Amis The Companion brings a new perspective on how literary biography enables the reader to deal with the relationship between the writer and their work Literary biography is the most popular form of writing about writing yet it has been largely neglected in the academic community This volume bridges the gap between literary biography as a popular genre and its relevance for the academic study of literature This important work Allows the author of a biography to be treated as part of the process of interpretation and investigates biographical reading as an important aspect of criticism Examines the birth of literary biography at the close of the seventeenth century and considers its expansion through the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries Addresses the status and writing of literary biography from numerous perspectives and with regard to various sources methodologies and theories Reviews the ways in which literary biography has played a role in our perception of writers in the mainstream of the English canon from Chaucer to the present day Written for students at the undergraduate level through postgraduate and doctoral levels as well as academics A Companion to Literary Biography illustrates and accounts for the importance of the literary biography as a vital element of criticism and as an index to our perception of literary history

Melancholy and Literary Biography, 1640-1816 J. Darcy, 2013-06-25 This book traces the development of literary biography in the eighteenth century how writers melancholy was probed to explore the inner life Case studies of a number of significant authors reveal the 1790s as a time of biographical experimentation Reaction against philosophical biography led to a nineteenth century taste for romanticized lives

Wagner and Beethoven Klaus Kropfinger, 1991-07-04 This book analyzes the lifelong impact of Beethoven's music on Wagner and its importance for his conception of music drama Kropfinger charts and scrutinizes Wagner's early responses to the composer and considers his experience as a conductor of Beethoven's music A discussion of the Romantic Beethoven image leads to a careful study of Wagner's aesthetic writings including his programmatic explanations the text Concerning Franz Liszt's symphonic poems and his Beethoven centenary essay The penultimate chapter addresses Wagner's theory and practice of music drama which he came to regard as the preordained successor to the Beethoven symphony By analyzing special terms such as Leitmotiv Wagner's structural view of musical drama comes to the fore it is a view that deepens not only our understanding of musical drama as a hybrid genre of art but also of purely musical structure and forms that Wagner sought to outdo

Rethinking Literary Naturalism Ian James, 2025-04-16 This book gives original readings of Proust and Quignard to elaborate a novel theory of literary naturalism Drawing on contemporary biological perspectives the book argues that despite their opposition to traditional naturalism both understand human experience meaning making and creativity as being immanent to and as emerging from shared biological life Rethinking Literary Naturalism reads contemporary biosemiotic theory Proust and Quignard alongside each other in the context of a shared genealogy that leads back into nineteenth century philosophical and literary visions of natural life that are inherited from German Romanticism and Idealism Here biological theory and forms of literary practice are recast as distinct techniques of thought that aim to situate themselves in relation to biological life Each in its own way is shown to adopt an interpretative posture that steps back into the immanence of sense and meaning that is constitutive of qualitatively lived existence Each produces a different kind of knowledge scientific literary literary philosophical of shared biological life that can be understood as distinctive variations of a saying after life The novel literary naturalism that is rethought here can be understood as post dicative and as being entirely distinct from that of mile Zola Maupassant or the Goncourt brothers

Authorizing Early Modern European Women James Fitzmaurice, Naomi Miller, Sara Jayne Steen, 2025-10-01 The essays in this volume analyze strategies adopted by contemporary novelists playwrights screenwriters and biographers interested in bringing the stories of early modern women to modern audiences It also pays attention to the historical women creators themselves who be they saints or midwives visual artists or poets and playwrights stand out for their roles as active practitioners of their own arts and for their accomplishments as creators Whether they delivered infants or governed as monarchs or produced embroideries letters paintings or poems their visions the authors argue have endured across the centuries As the title of the volume suggests the essays gathered here participate in a wider conversation about the relation between biography historical fiction and the growing field of biofiction that is contemporary fictionalizations of historical figures and explore the complicated interconnections between celebrating early modern women and perpetuating popular stereotypes about them

Theoretical Discussions of Biography Hans Renders, Binne De Haan, 2014-04-17 Theoretical Discussions of Biography Approaches from History Microhistory and Life Writing offers comprehensive overviews by 14 academic scholars of the actual state of the field of Biography Studies In the volume edited by biography scholars Hans Renders and Binne de Haan specifically the connections between biography and the fields of microhistory journalism and Life Writing illuminate key challenges and problems in studying individual lives Different perspectives are provided on the ways in which biography contributes to scholarship in the humanities in general and academic historiography in particular The contributing authors are academic experts in these fields and include Richard D Brown Carlo Ginzburg Nigel Hamilton Marlene Kadar Giovanni Levi Sabina Loriga Matti Peltonen and James Walter Constructing American Lives Scott E. Casper, 2018-07-25 Nineteenth century American authors critics and readers believed that biography had the power to shape individuals characters and to help define the nation s identity In an age predating radio and television biography was not simply a genre of writing says Scott Casper it was the medium that allowed people to learn about public figures and peer into the lives of strangers In this pioneering study Casper examines how Americans wrote published and read biographies and how their conceptions of the genre changed over the course of a century Campaign biographies memoirs of pious women patriotic narratives of eminent statesmen mug books that collected the lives of ordinary midwestern farmers all were labeled biography however disparate their contents and the contexts of their creation publication and dissemination Analyzing debates over how these diverse biographies should be written and read Casper reveals larger disputes over the meaning of character the definition of American history and the place of American literary practices in a transatlantic world of letters As much a personal experience as a literary genre biography helped Americans imagine their own lives as well as the ones about which they wrote and read

Towards Poetic Narratology: A New Visit to Narrative

Studies and Poetic Studies Luo Jun, 2021-09-15 For a very long time I have been preoccupied with the exploration of the academic blind spots that have cropped up in the organic combination of poetic studies and narrative studies that is inclined to give a lot of perceptive and cognitive inspiration to the systematic and strategic construction of the theoretical frameworks and theoretical systems of poetic narratology to provide more perceptive and cognitive convenience for the vast majority of readers and scholars to give a much more profound and perspicacious interpretation and illustration of the ideological and epistemological values implied in the diverse and distinctive narration of most poetic narrative texts in an unnoticeable fashion and in an untraceable fashion

Unlikely Muse Daniel Kornstein, 2010 This trail blazing book explores previously uncharted aspects of law and literature as well as the psychology paradoxes and wonderful mystery of creativity A study of artistic inspiration Unlikely Muse examines and analyzes the lives and works of three very different writers who combine law literature and imagination nineteenth century French novelist Honor de Balzac modernist American poet Wallace Stevens and controversial playwright memoirist Lillian Hellman From the literary careers of those three writers emerge two intertwined and exciting new themes The first theme demonstrates unexpected synergy between law and literature Opening original lines of inquiry Unlikely Muse probes the possible relationship between legal training and artistic creativity A surprisingly large number of great creative artists writers such as Balzac poets such as Stevens painters such as Matisse and composers such as Tchaikovsky studied or practiced law This book asks whether such people became great creative artists because of or despite their legal background Others such as Hellman had no legal training but wrote much about the law This book sketches the intellectual atmosphere and biographical background that shaped these three writers creative process highlighting the impact of the law on their work The second theme uses these same three writers to focus on the changing role of imagination in literature From Balzac through Stevens to Hellman and beyond the author traces imagination's arc from a positive artistic quality to something that is sometimes more controversial perhaps deceitful and negative In the last few decades ever since Hellman's memoirs were attacked as untrue journalists memoirists and other writers have palmed off works of fiction as non fiction often causing literary scandals This book offers a new theory why this phenomenon is happening and how it should be regarded

The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms, Emily Gioielli, 2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History Social Theory for Old and New Modernities Franco Ferrarotti,2008-07-01 Franco Ferrarotti s essays are of special interest to social scientists working in social theory and cultural sociology His insights are far reaching and applicable to those studying the areas of religion immigration violence and social movements Biographical Register of the Officers and Graduates of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. George Washington Cullum,1891
