both iconic Cambridge economists were highly influenced by the economic theory of Karl Marx and integrated important elements of Marx's economic system into their theories. This book argues based on published and unpublished documents that the work of Sraffa and Robinson can in fact be considered as essentially post Keynesian neo Marxist. The first part of the book reviews the intellectual development of several key thinkers to this neo Marxist current in economic thought. Kalecki, Steindl, Baran and Sweezy. Part One and Part Two separately examine Robinson and Sraffa's works and questions how they fit into this specific neo Marxist current either building on it in Robinson's case or following another direction in Sraffa's case. Part Three observes Robinson's theory of economic growth and its relationship to the views of Marx and Kalecki. Overall, Cuyvers demonstrates how their thought processes share characteristics with neo Marxist key ideological ideas such as stating or implying the labour theory of value as either redundant or wrong, emphasising the role of class struggle in the distribution of income and rejecting Marx's falling rate of profits. Following on from ideas briefly introduced in Cuyvers's Economic Ideas of Marx's Capital (2017), this book will particularly appeal to readers interested in the history of economic thought, the work of Sraffa, Robinson and Marx, post Keynesian economics and neo Marxism.

Concise Biographical Companion to Index Islamicus Wolfgang Behn, 2004-12-01. This third and last of the three volumes Who's Who in Islamic Studies presents the scholarly world at long last with its own biographical encyclopaedia. Taking as a starting point the inventory of authors from the renowned Index Islamicus, the author Wolfgang Behn, Berlin, has systematically collected numerous data on the lives and works of the tens of thousands of authors listed in the Index Islamicus from 1665 to 1980. This Biographical Companion will be an indispensable reference tool for the serious student and scholar of Islamic Studies. It enables the user to quickly gain knowledge on the life, work and professional background of almost every major and minor author and thus to place each author in his/her proper perspective. A tremendous achievement and a true must for every library.

Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner, 2002-01-04. Recent years have witnessed a burgeoning interest in the study of everyday life within the social sciences and humanities. In Critiques of Everyday Life, Michael Gardiner proposes that there exists a counter tradition within everyday life theorising. This counter tradition has sought not merely to describe lived experience but to transform it by elevating our understanding of the everyday to the status of a critical knowledge. In his analysis, Gardiner engages with the work of a number of significant theorists and approaches that have been marginalized by mainstream academe, including the French tradition of everyday life theorising from the surrealists to Henri Lefebvre and from the Situationist International to Michel de Certeau, Agnes Heller and the relationship between the everyday, rationality and ethics, Carnival, prosaics and intersubjectivity in the work of Mikhail Bakhtin, Dorothy E. Smith's feminist perspective on everyday life. Critiques of Everyday Life demonstrates the importance of an alternative multidisciplinary everyday life paradigm and offers a myriad of new possibilities for critical social and cultural theorising and empirical research.

Partners in Hate Werner Cohn, 1995. Discusses Chomsky's views on Zionism, Israel and the Holocaust as well as his relations with Holocaust revisionists in France and the USA both extreme right and extreme left and in particular with Faurisson Chomsky has always justified his stance as a defense of freedom of speech At the same time he did not refrain from expressing his views in neo Nazi and other radical publications This fact as well as an examination of his pronouncements and arguments shows that antisemitism underlies his views Examines the leftist neo Trotskyist intellectual tradition the Marlenites who inter alia claimed that the Nazis were not more criminal than the Allies which influenced Chomsky s views on the Holocaust and Zionism and recently found expression in the views of the leftist group and publishing house La Vieille Taupe Compares the views of Holocaust deniers with those of the Marlenites and the post Zionist and pro Palestinian historians if the latter groups had no malicious anti Jewish intentions in their writings Chomsky and Faurisson had This edition includes a preface dealing in particular with the activities of Chomsky and his accomplices after 1988 The Road to Disillusion: From Critical Marxism to Post-communism in Eastern Europe Raymond C. Taras,2015-02-24 The history of reform movements in postwar Eastern Europe is ultimately ironic inasmuch as the reformers successes and defeats alike served to discredit and demoralize the regimes they sought to redeem The essays in this volume examine the historic and present day role of the internal critics who whatever their intentions used Marxism as critique to demolish Marxism as ideocracy but did not succeed in replacing it Included here are essays by James P Scanlan on the USSR Ferenc Feher on Hungary Leslie Holmes on the German Democratic Republic Raymond Taras on Poland James Satterwhite on Czechoslovakia Vladimir Tismaneanu on Romania Mark Baskin on Bulgaria and Oskar Gruenwald on Yugoslavia In concert the contributors provide a comprehensive intellectual history and a veritable Who s Who of revisionist Marxism in Eastern Europe

Reassessing Political Ideologies Michael Freeden,2004-08-02 This book is a high level examination of each of the major ideologies that have shaped political thinking action and conflict Each chapter provides a critical overview of the current state of the major ideologies and a retrospective assessment of the strengths weaknesses developments and transformations of these ideologies over the past century The volume poses a strong challenge to those who have loudly proclaimed the end of ideology by demonstrating that it is impossible to understand current political developments without an appreciation of their ideological context It features internationally respected contributors who are authorities in their fields and will be an invaluable resource for both students and specialists in areas including Politics and International Relations Beyond Eurocentrism Peter Gran,2021-02-01 Eurocentrism influences virtually all established historical writing With the rise of Prussia and by extension Europe eurocentrism became the dominant paradigm for world history Employing the approaches of Gramsci and Foucault Peter Gran proposes a reconceptualization of world history He challenges the traditional convention of relying on totalitarian or democratic functions of a particular state to explain and understand relationships of authority and resistance in a number of national contexts Gran maintains that there is no single developmental model but diverse forms of hegemony that emerged out of the political crisis following the penetration of capitalism into each nation In making comparisons between seemingly disparate and distinctive nations and by questioning established canons of comparative inquiry Gran encourages people to recognize the similarities between the West and non West nations

Crafting the Third World Joseph LeRoy Love,1996 This innovative study compares the history of economic ideas and ideologies in Romania and Brazil and more broadly those in East Central Europe and Latin America in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Whereas previous histories of the idea of economic development have focused on First World theorists this book considers theorists in two backward countries who made important contributions to the field Latin America is well known to economic historians as the region that gave rise to the Structuralist school and Dependency movement Less well known is the fact that East Central Europe is important as the early training ground and the empirical concern of the first generation of development economists This comparative study examines the ways in which economists and other social scientists in Romania and Brazil confronted the issues of economic backwardness

Life and Times of Cultural Studies Richard E. Lee,2004-01-07 A comprehensive social history of the cultural studies movement with a strong political focus

Stuart Hall Kuan-Hsing Chen,David Morley,2006-05-23 Stuart Hall s work has been central to the formation and development of cultural studies as an international discipline Stuart Hall Critical Dialogues in Cultural Studies is an invaluable collection of writings by and about Stuart Hall The book provides a representative selection of Hall s enormously influential writings on cultural studies and its concerns the relationship with Marxism postmodernism and New Times in cultural and political thought the development of cultural studies as an international and postcolonial phenomenon and Hall s engagement with urgent and abiding questions of race ethnicity and identity In addition to presenting classic writings by Hall and new interviews with Hall in dialogue with Kuan Hsing Chen the collection which includes work by Angela McRobbie Kobena Mercer John Fiske Charlotte Brunsdon Ien Ang and Isaac Julien provides a detailed analysis of Hall s work and his contribution to the development of cultural studies by leading cultural critics and cultural practitioners The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Stuart Hall s writings

Bringing it All Back Home Lawrence Grossberg,1997 As one of the founding figures of cultural studies Lawrence Grossberg was an early participant in the Birmingham Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies project one which sought to develop a critical practice adequate to the complexities of contemporary culture The essays in Bringing It All Back Home bring a sense of history depth and contestation to the current success of cultural studies while charting Grossberg s intellectual and theoretical developments from his time at Birmingham to the present day Written over a twenty year period these essays which helped introduce British cultural studies to the United States reflect Grossberg s ongoing effort to find a way of theorizing politics and politicizing theory The essays collected here recognize both the specificity of cultural studies by locating it in a range of alternative critical perspectives and practices and its breadth by mapping the extent of its diversity By discussing American scholars initial reception of cultural studies its relation to communication studies and its origins in leftist politics Grossberg grounds the development of cultural studies in the United States in specific historical and theoretical context His criticism of easy identification of cultural studies with the theories models and issues of communications and his challenge to some of cultural studies current directions and preoccupations indicates what may lie ahead for this dynamic field of study Bringing together the Gramscian tradition of British cultural studies with the antimodernist philosophical positions of Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Grossberg articulates an original and important vision of the role of the political intellectual in the contemporary world and offers an essential overview of the emerging field of cultural studies by one of its leading practitioners and theorists
