Biographies Of Creative Artists An Annotated Bibliography:

Biographies of Creative Artists Susan M. Stievater, 1991 A selective bibliography encompassing the most nearly definitive English language biographies of some 500 visual artists poets novelists playwrights composers and choreographers mostly from the 19th and 20th centuries Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: Autobiographies, novels, poetry, letters, historical works, natural history and science, linguistics, painting and the other arts, politics, psychopathology, biography, miscellaneous, dissertations Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich The Price of Greatness Arnold M.

Ludwig, 1995-03-24 Exploring the lives and achievements of over 1 000 extraordinary men and women this book offers answers to the age old questions about the relationship between mental illness and greatness and also reveals factors that predict creative achievement The book is filled with colorful stories about many of the most eminent artists scientists social activists politicians soldiers and business people of our time Moving beyond anecdotal accounts The Price of Greatness is based on over 10 years of original scientific research on major 20th century figures Delving into many of humankind's greatest achievements and the special attributes and backgrounds of those who accomplished them this illuminating work will interest anyone who wants to know why some people achieve fame and what price they may pay in the process

Annotated Bibliography of Fine Art Russell Sturgis, 1897 An Annotated Bibliography of Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall, Susan M. Crandall, 2015-07-25 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications Annotated bibliography of fine art, by R.
