Biography and social exclusion in Europe Chamberlayne, Prue, Rustin, Michael, 2002-11-27 Based on 250 life story interviews in seven European Union countries Biography and social exclusion in Europe analyses personal struggles against social exclusion to illuminate local milieus and changing welfare regimes and contexts points to challenging new agendas for European politics and welfare beyond the rhetoric of communitarianism and the New Deal vividly illustrates the lived experience and environmental complexity working for and against structural processes of social exclusion refashions the interpretive tradition as a teaching and research tool linking macro and micro realities Students academic teachers and professional trainers practitioners politicians policy makers and researchers in applied and comparative welfare fields will all benefit from reading this book Biography and Social Exclusion in Europe Chamberlayne, Prue, Rustin, Michael, Tom Wengraf, 2002-11-27 Based on 250 life story interviews in seven EU countries this text analyses personal struggles against social exclusion and highlights how they are affected by changing welfare regimes It emphasises the ethnic gender generation and class implications of economic and social deregulation Housing and Social Policy Peter Somerville, Nigel Sprigings, 2005 The chapters in this book each consider a specific social category such as class gender or disability and evaluate the experience and understanding of housing and social policy under these categories Realist Biography and European Policy Jeffrey David Turk, Adam Mrozowski, 2013-12-11 Realist Biography and European Policy is the first concerted attempt to integrate the separate strands of critical realism as a developed philosophy for social science with biographical narrative methods as a concrete methodological approach The main goal is to demonstrate that the combination of critical realism and biographical methods is not only possible but it is exceptionally well suited for the exploration of newly emerging research fields within European policy studies This volume offers new insights to and is an indispensable reference for researchers in search of solid underpinnings for their own empirical research Foreword by Miriam Kennet Director of the Green Economics Institute Founder and Editor of the International Journal of Green Economics Contributors Tatiana Bajuk Sen ar Scientific Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts Institute of Slovenian Ethnology Bob Carter University of Leicester Department of Sociology Prue Chamberlayne Open University Faculty of Health and Social Care Markieta Domecka independent researcher Norbert Kluge coordinator and adviser for the European Works Council of ThyssenKrupp AG Lyudmila Nurse director of Oxford XXI Elisabetta Perone University of Naples Federico II Valeria Pulignano Centre for Sociological Research KU Leuven Antonella Span University of Naples Federico II Tom Wengraf Middlesex University Developing Strategies to Deal with Trauma in Children Jill Donnelly, 2005 Strategies which mothers fathers teachers or any concerned member of the community can be trained to undertake in order to complement the work of mental health professionals This publication focuses on preventing trauma and dealing with its consequences in children and adolescents as victims witnesses and perpetrators of violence Transforming Society? Price,

Vicky, Simpson, Graeme, 2007-04-11 This book explores the sociological basis of contemporary society and shows how social workers experience tensions and contradictions in practice      Cultural Capital, Identity, and Social Mobility Mick Matthys, 2012 This qualitative study explores the meaning of working class origin in the life and career of university graduates Matthys approaches social mobility as a trajectory of identity construction in which different classes are integrated and uses the notion of identity capital to interpret and discuss the meaning of the individual drive in social mobility

White Identities Simon Clarke, Steve Garner, 2009-11-06 This book guides students as they explore how white identities are forged using both sociological and psycho social ideas Whiteness has traditionally been seen as ethnically transparent the marker against which other ethnicities are measured Only recently have scholars moved away from focusing on ethnic minorities and instead oriented their studies around the construction of white identities Including an excellent survey of the existing literature and original research from the UK this book will be an invaluable guide for sociology students taking modules in race and ethnicity      Risk in Social Science , 2006-10-05 This book is designed as an introduction to recent social science work on risk and is intended primarily for students in sociology social psychology and psychology although it will also be useful for those studying political science government public policy and economics It is written by leading experts actively involved in research in the field The book discusses the basic issues in risk research paying attention to the contributions from different academic disciplines and reviewing debates in the recent literature It then moves on to examine work on risk across the main areas of activity discussing recent research and identifying the themes that are currently subject to debate The areas covered in substantive chapters are Crime the Environment Everyday Life Family Health Life Course Youth and Old Age Risk Regulation and Management Social Inequality covering gender ethnicity disability and social class Media Social and Public Policy as well as theoretical foundations and current issues in research      The Culture of Homelessness Megan Ravenhill, 2016-03-16 Despite an extensive literature on homelessness there is surprisingly little work that investigates the roots of homelessness by tracking homeless people over time In this fascinating and much needed ethnographic study Megan Ravenhill presents the results of ten years research on the streets and in the hostels and day centres of the UK incorporating intensive interviews with 150 homeless and formerly homeless people as well as policy makers and professionals working with homeless people Ravenhill discusses the biographical structural and behavioural factors that lead to homelessness Amongst the important and unique features of the study are the use of life route maps showing the circumstances and decisions that lead to homelessness a systematic study of the timescales involved and a survey of people s exit routes from homelessness Ravenhill also identifies factors that predict those most vulnerable to homelessness and factors that prevent or considerably delay the onset of homelessness      Culture, Subject, Psyche Anthony Molino, 2004 The 20th Century was marked by two profoundly different insights into human nature one views each person as the product of unconscious desires while the other sees the individual as the product of language and culture While some still believe these two insights to be irreconcilable many social scientists are attempting to integrate psychoanalysis into their culturally bound research In this groundbreaking new work Anthony Molino has collected in depth interviews with seven renowned anthropologists and social theorists Marc Auge Vincent Crapanzano Kathering Ewing Gananath Obeyesekere Michael Rustin Kathleen Stewart and Paul Williams These dialogues alongside essays by Molino anthropologists Wesley Shumar and Waude Kracke and psychoanalyst Lucia Villela update the prevailing conceptions of psychoanalysis within anthropology exploring distinctive psychoanalytic contributions and ethnographic theory and practice Psychoanalytic Theory for Social Work Practice Marion Bower, 2005 Written by practicing social workers and social work educators this text analyzes modern psychoanalytic and psychosocial approaches to social work and relates them to current practices and values Focusing on working with children and families the text covers salient issues in social work practice including risk assessment dealing with parents with drug and alcohol problems supervision and management of emotional stress Throughout the book there is an emphasis on the realities of frontline practice and looking at what can realistically be achieved It also addresses the research evidence for this approach With psychoanalytic and psychosocial approaches becoming increasingly popular this text will be a welcome addition for professionals students and social work educators
