Fatal Future? Richard M. Pearlstein, 2009-06-03 The nature and goals of terrorist organizations have changed profoundly since the Cold War standoff among the U S Soviet and Chinese superpowers gave way to the current polyplex global system in which the old rules of international engagement have been shattered by a new struggle for power among established states non state actors and emerging nations In this confusing state of global disorder terrorist organizations that are privately funded and highly flexible have become capable of carrying out incredibly destructive attacks anywhere in the world in support of a wide array of political religious and ethnic causes This groundbreaking book examines the evolution of terrorism in the context of the new global disorder Richard M Pearlstein categorizes three generations of terrorist organizations and shows how each arose in response to the global conditions of its time Focusing extensively on today's transnational i e privately funded and internationally operating terrorist organizations he devotes thorough attention to the two most virulent types ethnoterrorism and radical Islamic terrorism He also discusses the terrorist race for weapons of mass destruction and the types of attacks including cyberterrorism that are likely to occur in coming years Pearlstein concludes with a thought provoking assessment of the many efforts to combat transnational terrorism in the post September 11 period
