Jon McGee, Richard L. Warms, 2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why if you will In response SAGE Reference plans to publish the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader s Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader s Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion Claiming Individuality Vered Amit, Noel Dyck, 2006-07-20 Individuality is often interpreted as a force for the separation and autonomy of the individual This book takes a different approach it explores the expression of individuality as a form of social action inextricably linked to questions of belonging Using case studies from North America Europe Africa and Asia the authors examine a wide range of topics Covering everything from studies of childhood and family relations to patterns of movement for tourism work and religious pilgrimage from the spinning of fashions to the sculpting of life narratives the contributors analyse the shifting forms of the cultural politics of distinction The book illustrates the variation and ingenuity with which people in various settings claim diverse forms of individuality their motivations for doing so and the outcomes of their actions Historicizing Canadian Anthropology Julia Harrison, Regna Darnell, 2011-11-01

Philipp Schweighauser, 2022-11-30 Boasian Verse explores the understudied poetic output of three major twentieth century anthropologists Edward Sapir Ruth Benedict and Margaret Mead Providing a comparative analysis of their anthropological and poetic works this volume explores the divergent representations of cultural others and the uses of ethnographic studies for cultural critique This volume aims to illuminate central questions including Why did they choose to write poetry about their ethnographic endeavors Why did they choose to write the way they wrote Was poetry used to approach the objects of their research in different perhaps ethically more viable ways Did poetry allow them to transcend their own primitivist even evolutionist tendencies or did it much rather refashion or even amplify those tendencies This in depth examination of these ethnographic poems invites both cultural anthropologists and students of literature to reevaluate the Boasian legacy of cultural relativism primitivism and residual evolutionism for the twenty first century This volume offers a fresh perspective on some of the key texts that have shaped twentieth and twenty first century discussions of culture and cultural relativism and a unique contribution to readers interested in the dynamic area of multimodal anthropologies Invisible Contrarian
