Biographical Dictionary Of The Australian Senate:

Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate Volume 1 Ann Millar, 1996-10-08 The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate covers the period 1901-1929 the period in which the Parliament operated from Melbourne This first volume provides short articles on Australia's Senators during the first thirty years of the Federal Parliament These entries place particular emphasis on the events of a Senator's parliamentary experience contributions to debates committee work parliamentary positions as well as ministerial appointments It provides also a window on the colonial and post colonial societies in which these ninety nine Senators and their three Clerks lived and worked It explains how miners merchants constitutionalists soldiers printers trade unionists adventurers and pastoralists became Senators and how in an essentially egalitarian society they melded together as Australia's first federal parliamentarians It tells of their work as legislators during a period when Australia was making a unique contribution to democracy itself and reveals the excitement felt by conservatives and non conservatives alike as they shaped the beginnings of an Australian nation The contribution of these Senators to Australian public life was immense The Federationists Richard Baker John Downer Thomas Playford Richard O'Connor James Walker Henry Dobson William Trenwith Simon Fraser Josiah Symon and William Zeal retain some elements of notoriety Others such as the South Australian farmer William Russell or Charles Montague Graham a tailor on the Western Australian goldfields were soon forgotten even in their own time The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate reveals to a new generation the influence and the significance of men who came from all sides of politics and the social spectrum and were able parliamentarians and true representatives of the democratic process This readable and authoritative work of reference will provide readers with a biographical account of all Australian senators and a history of the Senate since 1901 It makes a scholarly contribution to historical and parliamentary knowledge and fills many gaps in our knowledge of less well known senators whose careers have not been fully documented before The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate

F. Ann Millar, 2010 The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate: 1929-1962 Ann Millar, 2000 Contains articles on 103 male senators and one woman the Senator Agnes Robertson Robertson of Western Australia and the three clerks who served them This book shows senators grappling with a mechanised society major industrial economic and social problems and the complexities of public policy Recovering History through Fact and Fiction Dallas John

Baker, Donna Lee Brien, Nike Sulway, 2018-04-18 This edited collection brings together research that focuses on historic figures who have been largely neglected by history or forgotten over time The question of how to recover reclaim or retell the histories and stories of those obscured by the passage of time is one of growing public and scholarly interest The volume includes chapters on a diverse array of topics including semi biographical fiction digital and visual biographies autobiographies and memoirs among others Apart from the largely forgotten the book provides fresh perspectives on historical figures whose biographies are distorted by their fame or limited by public perception The subjects explored here include among others a child author a Finnish grandmother a cold war migr an Elizabethan era playwright a castaway a celebrated female artist and the lauded personalities Mary Shelley Judy Garland and J R R Tolkien Altogether the chapters included in this collection offer a much needed snapshot of new research on biography and its many variations and hybrids which will be of interest to academics and students of biography and life writing in general

Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngunnawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government s campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography

The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate: 1901-1929 Ann Millar, 2000 Volume one in a series Collection of biographical articles on Australia s senators during the first 29 years of the Federal Parliament Entries arranged according to the states they represented appearing chronologically according to their date of election Entries are signed Includes list of contributors appendices abbreviations notes select references and index Introduction by Harry Evans Clerk of the Senate Editor was employed by the Department of the Senate Her previous title is Trust the Women Women in the Federal Parliament

Australian Dictionary of Biography, 1981-1990 Diane Langmore, 1966 Volume 17 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography contains 658 biographies of individuals who died between 1981 and 1990 The first of two volumes for the decade it presents a colourful mosaic of twentieth century Australian life It contains biographies of well known identities such as Sir Henry Bolte Sir Robert Askin Sir Reginald Ansett Sir Macfarlane Burnet Sir Raphael and Lady Cilento Sir Arthur Coles Robert Holmes O Court Sir Warwick Fairfax Sir Edmund Herring Albert Facey Donald Friend Sir Roy Grounds Sir

Bernard Heinze and Sir Robert Helpmann Eminent Australian women in the volume include Dame Elizabeth Couchman Dame Kate Campbell Dame Doris Fitton Dame Zara Holt and Lady Maie Casey Although many of the women achieved prominence in those professions conventionally regarded as the preserve of women othersandmdash such as Ruby Boye Jones coast watcher Ellen Cashman union organiser Elsie Chauvel film maker Dorothy Crawford radio producer Ruth Dobson diplomat Mary Hodgkin anthropologist Margaret Kelly restaurateur and Patricia Jarrett journalistandmdash demonstrate that some women at least were breaking free of the constraints of traditional expectations The lives of fifteen Indigenous Australians are included as are those of a number of immigrants who fled from persecution in Europe to establish a new life in Australia

The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate: 1929-1962, 2000 Slick Royce Kurlmelovs, 2024-07-30 A riveting expose of the global oil industry s multi decade conspiracy to muddy the waters around the science of climate change and use the Australian government to undermine worldwide efforts to address environmental devastation Researched and written by one of Australia s most fearless investigative journalists Slick reveals how the US petroleum industry was warned about its environmental impacts back in the 1950s and yet went on to build the Australian oil industry which in turn tried to drill the Great Barrier Reef sought to strongarm governments and joined a global effort to bury the science of climate change and delay action despite knowing the harms it would cause Slick also tells the stories of fire and flood survivors as well as of the activists engaged in a high risk fight for the future of Australia and of the efforts being made to save ourselves from catastrophe In this superb in depth work of journalism Royce Kurlmelovs provides an on the ground examination of how the fossil fuel industry captured Australia and outlines what s at stake for the survival of the planet and our democracy The Humanitarians Joy Damousi, 2022-08-11 A longitudinal study spanning six decades to map the national and international humanitarian efforts undertaken by Australians on behalf of child refugees Ninety Not Out Paul Davey, 2010 The Nationals originally the Australian Country Party is the second oldest political party in Australia This is the first comprehensive study of the federal Nationals since 1963 Highlights the political fortunes of an organisation that is often disregarded by the mainstream media Heroic Women Mary Cresp, 2024-12-15 The Book of Proverbs asks who can find a valiant woman Proverbs 31 10 The text goes on to describe a woman who displays endurance courage and resilience Are not these the characteristics that Queenslanders have recognised in their own home grown Sisters of Perpetual Adoration Always a relatively small group and despite what might be judged as overwhelming odds these women achieved the seemingly impossible People might judge that it was through sheer persistence and hard work that they succeeded But there is only one source from which such energy can be found and that is Love Eucharist the Sacrament of Love tells us of life given love poured out for the life of the other This is what the Sisters of Perpetual Adoration learned as they spent hours each day in the company of the Sacrament of Love and then took that Love to others in the nitty gritty of life s realities It is what we too can learn as we enter into the story of the Sisters of Perpetual Adoration Law in War Catherine Bond, 2020-04-01 During the Great War law was used in everyday life as a tool to discriminate oppress censor and deprive many Australians of property liberty and basic human rights A nation often amends its laws during war not least to regulate life at home Yet few historians have considered the impact of the law on Australians during the First World War In this original book Catherine Bond breathes life into the laws that were central to the way people were managed in Australia 1914 18 Engaging and revelatory Law in War holds those who wrote the laws to account exposing the sheer breadth and impact of this wartime legal regime the injustices of which linger to this day More than anything it illuminates how ordinary people were caught up in and sometimes destroyed by these laws created in the name of victory Law in War gives us insights into the law and Australia s Great War that Charles Bean declined to publish ninety odd years ago Pioneering full of wonderful life and energy the result has been worth waiting for Professor Peter Stanley UNSW Canberra

Neither Power Nor Glory Paul Strangio,2012 When Frank Hardy published Power Without Glory his notorious novel about corruption and venality in the Victorian Labor Party it quickly came to be seen as a true account of the party Until now there has been no authoritative chronicle of the struggles of political Labor in Victoria from its origins in the mid nineteenth century through to the calamitous split of the 1950s By conventional measures these were fallow years Ensnared by the colony s powerful liberal protectionist tradition in the late nineteenth century Victorian Labor then found itself hindered by a grossly unfair electoral system and the lack of a constituency outside Melbourne s industrial suburbs But exile from government also meant that the party developed its own distinctive traditions and culture It was a unique and intriguing species among the state Labor parties Meticulously researched and elegantly written Neither Power Nor Glory fills an important gap in Australian political history and our understanding of the Labor Party It is also a timely antidote to nostalgia about Labor s past In Victoria at least that past was anything but golden

Trailblazers Carolyn Collins,Roy Eccleston,2019-12-11 Australia s first female prime minister The country s first female judge The first woman to win the Archibald Prize for portraiture Australia s first female chief diplomat The nation s first female winemaker These women were all trailblazers but they have something else in common every one of them was South Australian And they are just a handful of the 100 remarkable women whose stories are told in this beautiful book illustrated with hundreds of photographs Written by historian Carolyn Collins and journalist Roy Eccleston Trailblazers shines a light on the lives of these extraordinary women whose feats inspired their state nation and often enough the world Now they can inspire a whole new generation

Australian Political Lives John Nethercote,Tracey Arklay,John Wanna,2006-10-01 This monograph brings together some of the best practitioners of the art and craft of political biography in Australia They are simultaneously some of our best scholars who at least in part have turned their attention to writing Australian political lives They are not merely chroniclers of our times but multidisciplinary analysts constructing layers of explanation and theoretical insight They include academic professional and amateur biographers scholars from a range of disciplines politics history sociology public administration gender studies and politicians who for a time strutted the political stage The assembled papers explore the strengths and weaknesses of the biographical approach the enjoyment it can deliver the problems and frustrations of writing biographies and the various ways the project can be approached by those constructing these lives They probe the art and craft of the political biographer The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate, 1963-2009 Ann Millar, 2010 Annotation Australian senators who served from 1963 to 2009 are featured in this third volume in the Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate series Prepared by academics and parliamentary researchers individual articles on the senators provide biographical accounts and a telling history of the term of the Whitlam government and the rise of the senate s committee system Parliament: A Question of Management V M (Val) Barrett, 2022-10-28 For centuries scholars and practitioners have studied parliament and its potential reform from an institutional perspective Until now few authors have addressed in depth the internal relationships among parliamentary actors their competing beliefs and their influence on parliament s effectiveness Parliament is overwhelmingly an agonistic institution and competition for status resources influence and control has pervaded its administration and impeded reform Parliaments appear to struggle with the concept of institutional management The doctrine of exclusive cognisance or sole jurisdiction implies that parliament and only parliament should retain control of its internal business and processes But why is parliament considered to be unique among public institutions and why do parliaments appear to resist or even defy attempts to manage them more effectively At a time when the public is losing confidence in governments politics and political institutions parliament s role as a broker of ideas and a forum for deliberative policymaking is under threat In an institution where no one has overall authority and direction staying relevant and managing public expectations present major challenges for its members and administrators This book examines parliamentary management in the national parliaments of Australia and the United Kingdom Without claiming to be a how to book it attempts to provide a relatable account of how parliamentary officials and members of parliament carry out their inherently complex roles and how they might be assisted by contemporary public management approaches A Century of Compulsory Voting in Australia Matteo Bonotti, Paul Strangio, 2021-03-13 Compulsory voting has operated in Australia for a century and remains the best known and arguably the most successful example of the practice globally By probing that experience from several disciplinary perspectives this book offers a fresh up to date insight into the development and distinctive functioning of compulsory voting in Australia By juxtaposing the Australian experience with that of other representative democracies in Europe and North America the volume also offers a much needed comparative dimension to compulsory voting in Australia A unifying theme running through this study is the relationship between compulsory voting and democratic well being Can we learn anything from Australia s experience of the practice that is instructive for the development of institutional bulwarks in an era when democratic politics is under pressure globally Or is Australia s case sui generis best understood in the final analysis as an intriguing outlier Law and the Quest for Gender Equality Margaret Thornton, 2023-04-27 For centuries law was used to subordinate women and exclude them from the public sphere so it cannot be expected to become a source of equality instantaneously or without resistance from benchmark men that is those who are white heterosexual able bodied and middle class Equality furthermore was attainable only in the public sphere whereas the private sphere was marked as a site of inequality a wife children and servants could never be the equals of the master Despite their ambivalence about the role of law and its contradictions women and Others felt that they had no alternative but to look to it as a means of liberation This skewed patriarchal heritage the subtext of this collection of essays has continued to impede the quest for equality by women and Others It informs not only gender relations in the private sphere as illustrated by domestic violence and sexual assault but also the status of women in the public sphere Despite the fact that women have entered the paid workforce including the professions in large numbers they are still expected to assume responsibility for the preponderance of society's caring The essays show how maternal and caring roles which are still largely viewed as belonging to an unregulated private sphere continue to be invoked to detract from the authority of the feminine in the public sphere The promise of antidiscrimination legislation in overcoming the heritage of the past is also shown to be somewhat hollow
