A Critical History of Soul Train on Television Christopher P. Lehman, 2014-11-26 As a wildly popular local dance show Soul Train provided a venue for Chicago s soul singers and political activists and gave African American teenagers their first significant chance to see and identify with their peers on television The subsequent national series garnered even more popularity establishing producer and host Don Cornelius as one of the most successful pioneers of African American television production This work discusses Cornelius s role in the evolution of his groundbreaking series from a small all black 1970s television show to a lucrative brand name applying not only to the program but also to awards and various merchandise in the present day The first two chapters focus on Cornelius s years in Chicago and the initial launching of Soul Train in 1970 The next two chapters explore how the nationally televised California based version of the show rose steadily in both popularity and cultural influence among primarily African American viewers and how Cornelius himself became a rising celebrity during that time The final chapters illustrate Cornelius s efforts in branching out beyond the dance show through various music related business ventures including the Soul Train Music Awards The work includes interviews with several former cast members and guests along with a complete chronology of the series and Cornelius s other professional ventures

Rembis, Catherine Jean Kudlick, Kim E. Nielsen, 2018 The Oxford Handbook of Disability History features twenty seven articles that span the diverse global history of the disabled from antiquity to today The New York Times Biographical Service, 1995 A compilation of current biographical information of general interest Brothers David Talbot, 2008-09-04 Robert F Kennedy was the first conspiracy theorist about his brother's murder In this astonishingly compelling and convincing new account of the Kennedy years acclaimed journalist David Talbot tells in a riveting superbly researched narrative why even on 22 November 1963 RFK had reason to believe that dark forces were at work in Dallas and reveals for the first time that he planned to open an investigation into the assassination had he become president in 1968 BROTHERS also portrays a JFK administration more besieged by internal enemies than has previously been realised from within the Pentagon the CIA the FBI and the mafia This frightening portrait of sinister elements within and without the government serves as the background for the emotionally charged journey of Robert Kennedy Reading it you can absolutely believe any number of people would have been happy for both brothers to meet a sticky end The tragedy not just for America but for the world is that since their murders no one has had the nerve to stand against the dark forces they challenged in quite the same way Current Biography Yearbook Charles Moritz, 1976 The Geraldo Show Geraldo Rivera, 2018-04-03 During my half a century in public life my image and reputation have had more ups and downs than the Cyclone roller coaster at Coney Island I have been called savior and sinner fool and wise man crusader and exploiter hothead and dope I am routinely scorned admired beloved and belittled which one is usually based on when the viewer tuned in Were you around for my early days as a crusading local newsman Did you waste an evening with me inside Al Capone's empty vault Were you watching when the bombs dropped in Afghanistan or Iraq or did you tune in to the raucous talk show when my nose was broken in the best television studio brawl ever caught on tape Since the attacks of September 11 2001 and my employment by the conservative rabble rousers of Fox News and more recently with the coming of the Age of Trump my professional life has been even more difficult to define How could a sincerely progressive native born Jew Rican New Yorker like me ever work for an outfit better suited to the vibes of Orange County California the Dixie Appalachia or the Mountain West How could I not condemn and obstruct a wrecking ball like Donald Trump Over five decades I have met most of the era's good and bad guys from Ronald Reagan to Charles Manson Fidel Castro to Yasser Arafat Muhammad Ali to John Lennon and Elvis Presley to Michael Jackson Two figure heavily in this book both longtime friends Roger Ailes the disgraced yet undeniably brilliant creator of Fox News and Donald Trump once a flamboyant playboy billionaire businessman and now 45th President of the United States At the vigorous twilight of a long and largely improvised life lived in plain sight I have little left to prove Faced with a series of random chances for better and worse what I made of my life is what I made of those chances Time has enlightened and humbled me Sincerely Geraldo Rivera A Cultural History of Disability in the Modern Age David T.
