Psychohistory in Psychology of Religion, 2021-11-22

Psychology of religion is one of the rare fields in psychology where an interdisciplinary approach has been preserved. Psychohistory, especially understood as the systematic application of psychological knowledge in explorations of the past, has enjoyed substantial attention. Traditionally the emphasis in such studies has been on biographical research. This volume attempts to broaden the horizon and to include studies of phenomena as well on a group or subcultural level. The volume contains chapters on such subjects as apparitions of the Virgin Mary in Belgium, attitudes towards suicide in seventeenth century Sweden, the pillarization of Dutch Calvinists. There are also studies of famous individuals such as Hitler, Stalin, Freud, Van Gogh and J. H. Newman. Among the contributors are well known authors like Donald Capps, Michael P. Carroll, William W. Meissner, Ana Mar a Rizzuto and Antoine Vergote.

Bodies in Society, Margaret R. Miles, 2008-08-01

Education is about learning to think. Much of what we call thinking, however, is a hodgepodge of repetitious self talk, opinion and cutting and pasting of second hand ideas. Moreover, thinking in the present has often been alien to scholars who were tempted to think abstractly. But life and thought belong together and require each other, as Plotinus pointed out many centuries ago. The object of contemplation is living and life and the two together are one. Ennead 3.8.8. Presently many women and men in the academic world are thinking concretely within the context of their own lives and with acknowledged accountability to broader communities with whom they think and to whom they are answerable. The essays in this volume consider Christianity as an aspect of North American culture, bringing the critical tools of the academy to thinking about some of the perplexing and pressing problems of contemporary public life. Three interactive and interdependent themes traverse these essays: gender, the effects of media culture and institutions. Each of these themes has been central to Margaret Miles's work for thirty years. Each understands corporeality as fundamental both to subjectivity and society. Miles finds that Christianity critically appropriated provides ideas and methods for thinking concretely about life in North American society.

Spirituality, Kees Waaijman, 2002

This textbook is a systematic guide to the extensive field of spirituality. Kees Waaijman charts the multiform phenomenon of spirituality: the spirituality of ordinary people, the great spiritual traditions and the force of counter movements. From the foundation of this survey he answers questions like: What exactly is spirituality? What forms can a scholarly approach take? Finally the book provides methodic access to the study of spirituality focusing on the following questions: Which are the different forms of spirituality and how can we describe them? How can spiritual texts be given a reliable reading? Which themes can be distinguished in the field of spirituality and what would be a meaningful way to address them? What do we mean by spiritual guidance and what can we learn from it? This textbook has no equal. It is indispensable to scholars wishing to study the subject but also to others who want to learn about spirituality.

Encountering Islam Yew-Foong Hui,2013 This volume seeks to introduce and deepen the understanding of Islam and its role in politics as encountered in different national and transnational contexts in Southeast Asia eschewing the neo orientalist approach that has informed public discourse in recent years In Encountering Islam the book lingers beyond the summary moment and reflects on the multiple impressions suppressions and repressions whether coherent or incoherent associated with Islam as a socio political force in public life To this end it is not adequate simply to represent the divergent identities associated with Islam in Southeast Asia whether embedded in state endorsed orthodoxy or Islamic movements that contest such orthodoxy It is also important to examine religious minorities in political contexts where Islam is dominant and Muslim communities in national contexts where they are minorities By situating these religious identities within their larger socio political contexts this volume seeks to provide a more holistic understanding of what is encountered as Islam in Southeast Asia Bishop Stephen Neill Dyron B. Davies, 2013-06-28 This book explores Mormon theology in new ways from a scholarly non Mormon perspective Bringing Jesus and Satan into relationship with Joseph Smith the founding prophet Douglas Davies shows how the Mormon Plan of Salvation can be equated with mainstream Christianity's doctrine of the Trinity as a driving force of the faith Exploring how Jesus has been understood by Mormons his many Mormon identities are described in this book he is the Jehovah of the Bible our Elder Brother and Father probably also a husband he visited the dead and is also the antagonist of Satan Lucifer This book offers a way into the Mormon problem of evil understood as apostasy from pre mortal times to today Three images reveal the wider problem of evil in Mormonism Jesus pre mortal encounter with Lucifer in a heavenly council deciding on the Plan of Salvation Jesus Christ's great suffering engagement with evil in Gethsemane and Joseph Smith's First Vision of the divine when he was almost destroyed by an evil force Douglas Davies well known for his previous accounts of Mormon life and thought shows how renewed Mormon interest in theological questions of belief can be understood against the background of Mormon church organization and its growing presence on the world stage of Christianity

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement

Buddhist Hagiography in Early Japan Jonathan Morris Augustine, 2004-10-21 Hagiographies or idealized biographies which recount the lives of saints bodhisattvas and other charismatic figures have been the meeting place for myth and experience In medieval Europe the lives of saints were read during liturgical celebrations and the texts themselves were treated as sacred objects In Japan it was believed that those who read the biographies of lofty monks would acquire merit Since hagiographies were written or compiled by believers the line between fantasy and reality was often obscured This study of the bodhisattva Gyoki regarded as the monk who started the largest social welfare movement in Japan illustrates how Japanese Buddhist hagiographers chose to regard a single monk's charitable activities as a miraculous achievement that shaped the course of Japanese history

Jerusalem and Athens E. A. Judge, 2010 E. A. Judge's third collection of essays moves on from Rome and the New Testament to the interaction of the classical and biblical traditions to the cultural transformation of late antiquity and to the contested heritage of Athens and Jerusalem in the modern West A lifelong interest in Rome bridges this range Christianity emerges as essentially a movement of ideas opposed at first to the cultic practice of ancient religion which had been meant to secure the existing order of things The new message with its demanding morality laid the foundations for our radically different sense of religion as the quest for the ideal life The Judge method tackles such momentous questions by starting with textual detail translated from Latin and Greek Inspired by the project of the Dolger Institut in Bonn the interaction of antiquity and Christianity he brings to it a particular focus on those documents of the times retrieved from stone or papyrus The collection reflects the more holistic approach to history starting with the ancient world that has been developed at Macquarie University in Sydney where diverse interests are now drawn together from as far back as ancient Egypt or China in an attractive approach to the modern world

The Picara Anne K. Kaler,1991 Courtesan and criminal thief and trollop warrior and wanderer the picara embodies the continuing archetypal pattern of a woman s autonomy She is the sly sharpster in Defoe s heroines such as Roxana and Moll Flanders With an ancestress like Becky Sharp the picara evolves into Scarlett O Hara before finding a comfortable niche as the female hero in fantasy written by women The Picara traces the development of this character from an autonomous woman in a harsh patriarchal society to the female hero of the modern fantasy novel The Longest Journey Eric

A. Judge,2020-10-15 The command of the risen Christ was to make students of all nations On this Rock I will build But the spread of the Pentecostal gospel disrupted the national values of eternal Rome with her increasingly international citizenship Loyalty to the Caesars obligatory in the Roman world could not break the Christians trust in their Christ In despair the government gave in to the unimaginable Galerius tolerated the Christian alternative communities and their divergent outlook on life One must now tolerate living in two incommensurate communities at once This is at the heart of Late Antiquity The Rock remains but masked in the antique ceremonial of religion That late antique compromise has laid the foundation for the interaction of church and state in the modern West Successor to Paul and the Conflict of Cultures 2019 this seventh collection of Judge s historical essays explores the development of Christianity in Roman society from the New Testament era to the time of Constantine and beyond always with a view to the modern situation
