Securities and Exchange Commission, 2000 Federal Register, 2008-03 Next Generation Wireless Networks Sirin Tekinay, 2006-04-18 This book is a collection of extended versions of the papers presented at the Symposium on Next Generation Wireless Networks May 26 2000 New Jersey Institute of Technology Newark NJ Each chapter includes in addition to technical contributions a tutorial of the corresponding area It has been a privilege to bring together these contributions from researchers on the leading edge of the field The papers were submitted in response to a call for papers aiming to concentrate on the applications and services for the next generation deliberately omitting the numeric reference so that the authors vision of the future would not be limited by the definitive requirements of a particular set of standards The book as a result reflects the top down approach by focusing on enabling technologies for the applications and services that are the defining essentials for future wireless networks This approach strikes a balance between the academia and the industry by addressing new wireless network architectures enabling mobility and location enhanced applications and services that will give wireless systems the competitive edge over others. The main theme of the book is the advent of wireless networks as an irreplaceable means of global communication as opposed to a mere substitute for or a competitor of wireline networks. Geolocation emerges as the facilitator of mobility and location sensitive services. The fields of geolocation and wireless communications have been forced to merge following the Federal Commission of Communications FCC ruling that obliges wireless providers with emergency caller geolocation.

Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration, 2007. This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA. It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931-1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan. While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics. This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act. Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid. Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act. Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified. Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA's custody. While this finding aid's coverage is broad it is not comprehensive. Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned. Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest. In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine. Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid. This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Eisenhower. Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions. Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and
