Questioning the Music Education Paradigm Lee Bartel,2004-09-15 Twenty three contributors turn a critical lens on the dominant music education paradigm to examine how we teach what we teach for what we teach what is expected of teachers and how we teach them whom we should be teaching and the very assumptions and structures of which we base our practice

Teaching Art & Design in the Primary School Gloria Callaway,Abigail Leach,Mary Kear,2013-12-19 First Published in 1999 It is difficult to imagine a world without arts with no drawing music or painting for example Few if any cultures are without these elements This accessible book roots the practical in the theoretical to explain carefully the principles which underpin practice as well as offering a day to day reference book for classroom use It includes ideas and examples of cross curricular work which retain the integrity of visual arts teaching within the structures and strictures of today s primary schools

Not for Profit Martha C. Nussbaum,2024-12-03 A passionate defense of the humanities from one of today s foremost public intellectuals In this short and powerful book celebrated philosopher Martha C Nussbaum makes a passionate case for the importance of the liberal arts at all levels of education Historically the humanities have been central to education because they have been seen as essential for creating competent democratic citizens But recently Nussbaum argues thinking about the aims of education has gone disturbingly awry in the United States and abroad We increasingly treat education as though its primary goal were to teach students to be economically productive rather than to think critically and become knowledgeable productive and empathetic individuals This shortsighted focus on profitable skills has eroded our ability to criticize authority reduced our sympathy with the marginalized and different and damaged our competence to deal with complex global problems And the loss of these basic capacities jeopardizes the health of democracies and the hope of a decent world In response to this dire situation Nussbaum argues that we must resist efforts to reduce education to a tool of the gross national product Rather we must work to reconnect education to the humanities in order to give students the capacity to be true democratic citizens of their countries and the world Translated into twenty five languages Not for Profit draws on the stories of troubling and hopeful global educational developments Nussbaum offers a manifesto that should be a rallying cry for anyone who cares about the deepest purposes of education      Visual Arts Research ,2007      Art Therapy Through the Lifespan Peg Dunn-Snow,Jill McNutt,2024-10-01 Art Therapy Through the Lifespan A Collection of Case Studies introduces theories and models of human development highlighted by case studies written by art therapists and broken down by developmental age ranges Each chapter introduces vignettes written by seasoned art therapists illuminating the clinical practice of art therapy across relevant developmental levels Chapters cover major developmental factors through a range of theoretical perspectives including the definition and use of art therapy and how developmental knowledge and understanding impact art therapy practice with clients of all ages The reader will develop an understanding of the impact of human development on assessment treatment planning and implementation of art therapy and will be able to create effective art therapy interventions that coincide with factors related to events across the human lifespan that include normal and abnormal development The first of its kind this book encourages and supports readers to develop their knowledge of art therapy and human development across the lifespan with a focus on safety material quality and artistic intent      Arts-Based Methods in Education Around the World Xiangyun Du,Tatiana Chemi,2022-09-01 Arts Based Methods in Education Around the World aims to investigate arts based encounters in educational settings in response to a global need for studies that connect the cultural inter cultural cross cultural and global elements of arts based methods in education In this extraordinary collection contributions are collected from experts all over the world and involve a multiplicity of arts genres and traditions These contributions bring together diverse cultural and educational perspectives and include a large variety of artistic genres and research methodologies The topics covered in the book range from policies to pedagogies from social impact to philosophical conceptualisations They are informative on specific topics but also offer a clear monitoring of the ways in which the general attention to the arts in education evolves through time      Healing Through the Arts for Non-Clinical Practitioners Bopp, Jenny,Grebe, Amy M.,Denny, Joanna Hope,2018-09-07 Time and time again the arts have been called on to provide respite and relief from fear anxiety and pain in clinical medicinal practices As such it is vital to explore how the use of the arts for emotional and mental healing can take place outside of the clinical realm Healing Through the Arts for Non Clinical Practitioners is an essential reference source that examines and describes arts based interventions and experiences that support the healing process outside of the medical field Featuring research on topics such as arts based interventions and the use of writing theatre and embroidery as methods of healing this book is ideally designed for academicians non clinical practitioners educators artists and rehabilitation professionals
