Art from Koln Penelope Curtis,1989      Art Markets and Digital Histories Claartje Rasterhoff,Sandra van Ginhoven,2020-03-16 This Special Issue of Arts investigates the use of digital methods in the study of art markets and their histories As historical and contemporary data is rapidly becoming more available and digital technologies are becoming integral to research in the humanities and social sciences we sought to bring together contributions that reflect on the different strategies that art market scholars employ to navigate and negotiate digital techniques and resources The essays in this issue cover a wide range of topics and research questions Taken together the essays offer a reflection on what takes to research art markets which includes addressing difficult topics such as the nature of the research questions and the data available to us and the conceptual aspects of art markets in order to define and operationalize variables and to interpret visual and statistical patterns for scholarship In our view this discussion is enriched when also taking into account how to use shared or interoperable ontologies and vocabularies to define concepts and relationships that facilitate the use and exchange of linked open data for cultural heritage and historical research      Art from Köln ,1989      The Fine Arts Karl W. Hiersemann (Firm),1893      Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill,2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts      The rock paintings of the Upper Brandberg Part VI Harald Pager,      Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology ,1994      Art & Text ,1999      Entangled Art Histories Valérie Mavridorakis,Alexander Streitberger,Hilde Van Gelder,Erik Verhagen,2025-10-20 Throughout the Cold War era a sustained and intense dialogue developed between both the West and East German and the North American art scenes on artistic socio cultural institutional and economic levels Entangled Art Histories offers new insights into the complex and intertwined transatlantic networks that gradually emerged in the wake of movements such as Pop Art Minimalism and Conceptualism involving artists museums galleries curators critics and the art market The essays in this volume written by internationally renowned scholars address key issues ranging from travel and infrastructure to East West cultural policy during the Cold War By exploring the exhibition strategies controversial receptions and geopolitical concerns of these entangled histories this book contributes to a better understanding of the dynamic interplay between artists galleries and museums from a transnational perspective      Belarusian Fine Art: Time and Time Again Zina Gimpelevich,2023-02-06 It s hard to imagine feeling a sense of loss for artwork until you become immersed in the stories of the Belarusian fine artists Dr Zina Gimpelevich has spotlighted in her newest book She brought to life artists whose work was curtailed under the tyranny of the Russian Empire the tragedy of the Holocaust and persistent poverty Yet these artists collective resilience and the work they produced paintings sculptures textiles ceramics and more have helped bring beauty and joy to the world even when depicting the suffering felt by so many In Bie arusian Fine Art Time and Time Again Dr Gimpelevich celebrates the work of over 150 Bie arusian fine artists including many from the School of Paris She estimates more than 3 000 Bie arusian artists are creating today in Bie aru her birth country Many remained in their home country Many became migr s who traveled beyond borders and never returned home Native sons such as Mark aha Marc Chagall and Markus Yaka levi Rotkovi Mark Rothko have left their influence and work the world over and are often claimed by other countries Other fine artists created in obscurity or self imposed exile hiding their work to avoid the grasp of oppressive regimes Dr Gimpelevich has ensured their names and work will not be forgotten and will receive the recognition they richly deserve The harsh truths Dr Gimpelevich brings to light are tempered with glimmers of hope from recent generation Bie arusian fine artists Like their predecessors and mentors their work shows an unyielding reverence for their country s landscapes culture history and people Although this book has its lens focused on Bie arusian fine art Dr Gimpelevich adeptly provides readers with a deeper understanding of how politics and power struggles have affected this little known country s citizens many of which still endure today

Caribbean and Latinx Street Art in Miami Jana Evans Braziel, 2024-02-29 This study focuses on street art and large scale murals in metropolitan Miami Dade County while also foregrounding the diasporic and aesthetic interventions made by migrant and second generation artists whose families hail from the Caribbean and Latin America Jana Evans Braziel argues that Caribbean and Latinx street artists define and visually mark the city of Miami as a diasporic transnational urban space These artists also help define Miami as a cosmopolitan city yet one that is also a distinctly Caribbean and Latinx urban space and simultaneously resist but also at times reluctantly participate in the forces of gentrification and urban re development particularly through the myriad and complex ways in which street art contributes to city branding and art tourism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history urban studies American studies and Latin American Caribbean studies
