Art In China:

Art in China Craig Clunas, 1997 China can boast a history of art lasting 5 000 years and embracing a huge diversity of images and objects jade tablets painted silk handscrolls and fans ink and lacquer painting porcelain ware sculptures and calligraphy They range in scale from the vast terracotta army with its 7 000 or so life size figures to the exquisitely delicate writing of fourth century masters such as Wang Xizhin and his teacher Lady Wei But this rich tradition has not until now been fully appreciated in the West where scholars have focused their attention on sculpture downplaying art more highly prized by the Chinese themselves such as calligraphy Art in China marks a breakthrough in the study of the subject Drawing on recent innovative scholarship and on newly accessible studies in China itself Craig Clunas surveys the full spectrum of the visual arts in China He ranges from the Neolithic period to the art scene of the 1980s and 1990s examining art in a variety of contexts as it has been designed for tombs commissioned by rulers displayed in temples created for the men and women of the educated elite and bought and sold in the marketplace Many of the objects illustrated in this book have previously been known only to a few specialists and will be totally new to a general audience

Performance Art in China Thomas J. Berghuis, 2006 Performance Art in China takes as its subject one of the most dynamic and controversial areas of experimental art practice in China In his comprehensive study Sydney based theorist and art historian Thomas J Berghuis introduces and investigates the idea of the role of the mediated subject of the acting body in art a notion grounded in the realization that the body is always present in art practice as well as its subsequent secondary representations Through a series of in depth case studies Berghuis reveals how during the past 25 years Chinese performance artists have acted out their art often in opposition to the principles governing correct behavior in the public domain In addition to a 25 year chronology of events a systematic index of places names and key terms as well as a bibliography and a glossary in English and Chinese this study also offers the reader numerous previously unpublished photos and documents

A Companion to Chinese Art Martin J. Powers, Katherine R. Tsiang, 2015-12-31 Exploring the history of art in China from its earliest incarnations to the present day this comprehensive volume includes two dozen newly commissioned essays spanning the theories genres and media central to Chinese art and theory throughout its history Provides an exceptional collection of essays promoting a comparative understanding of China's long record of cultural production Brings together an international team of scholars from East and West whose contributions range from an overview of pre modern theory to those exploring calligraphy fine painting sculpture accessories and more Articulates the direction in which the field of Chinese art history is moving as well as providing a roadmap for historians interested in comparative study or theory Proposes new and revisionist interpretations of the literati tradition which has long been an important staple of Chinese art history Offers a rich insight into China's social and political institutions religious and cultural practices and intellectual traditions alongside Chinese art history theory and criticism

Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan, 2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere

Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art's rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan's The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin's sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out
