Voices Revived Lessons and Legacies XV Erin McGlothlin, Avinoam Patt, 2024-05-15 The fifteenth volume in the Lessons Legacies series featuring multidisciplinary research in the Holocaust and Jewish cultural history on the theme of Global Perspectives and National Narratives The fourteen chapters included in this volume manifest three broad categories history literature and memory These chapters continue the recent trend in Holocaust Studies of a focus on local history integrating specific regional and national narratives into a more global approach to the event Newer studies have continued to incorporate what was once termed the periphery into a more global examination of the experiences of Jewish refugees in flight to Latin America Africa and the Soviet Union At the same time very specific local studies deepen our knowledge of the mechanics of genocide along with the experiences of refugees in flight and the subsequent dimensions of Holocaust memory and representation New research on Holocaust literature continues to unearth unexamined texts from the period of the war itself which can shed light on Jewish responses to persecution and strategies for survival The study of Holocaust testimonies continues to grapple with the challenge of language how to convey through the limits of human language the depths of barbarity to an audience that could never fully understand what they had not personally experienced Likewise literary studies continue to incorporate texts that were once considered outside the standard canon of Holocaust literature such as science fiction and children's literature The tension between local and global perspectives can also be seen quite clearly in what the volume's editors understand by the term memory studies or new approaches to research on museums and memorials. The very specific nature of collective memory on the national level continues to be the site of the contested politics of memory. A number of the chapters in this volume engage with the conflict of monuments and memorials, museums' attempts to resolve provenance issues, questions around the ethics of Holocaust tourism and the inclusion of new technologies and digital survivors into the memorial landscape.

Art Nouveau Charlotte Ashby, 2021-10-21. Art Nouveau presents a new overview of the international Art Nouveau movement. Art Nouveau represented the search for a new style for a new age, a sense that the conditions of modernity called for fundamentally new means of expression. Art Nouveau emerged in a world transformed by industrialisation, urbanisation and increasingly rapid means of transnational exchange, bringing about new ways of living, working and creating. This book is structured around key themes for understanding the contexts behind Art Nouveau, including new materials and technologies, colonialism and imperialism, the rise of the modern woman, the rise of the professional designer and the role of the patron/collector. It also explores the new ideas that inspired Art Nouveau, nature and the natural sciences, world arts and world religions, psychology and new visions for the modern self. Ashby explores the movement through 41 case studies of artists and designers, buildings, interiors, paintings, graphic arts, glass, ceramics and jewellery, drawn from a wide range of countries.

Mackintosh Tamsin Pickeral, 2005. Mackintosh follows the rise and fall of one of Britain's most fascinating and original artists and designers of the twentieth century. Covering everything from his early architecture, furniture and decorative arts to his late watercolours, this stunning book provides the reader with a wealth of information on the life and work of Charles Rennie Mackintosh.
