The Art of Living Foundation Stephen Jacobs,2016-03-09 The Hindu derived meditation movement The Art of Living AOL founded in 1981 by Sri Sri Ravi Shankar in Bangalore has grown into a global organization which claims presence in more than 150 countries Stephen Jacobs presents the first comprehensive study of AOL as an important transnational movement and an alternative global spirituality Exploring the nature and characteristics of spirituality in the contemporary global context Jacobs considers whether alternative spiritualities are primarily concerned with individual wellbeing and can simply be regarded as another consumer product The book concludes that involvement in movements such as AOL is not necessarily narcissistic but can foster a sense of community and inspire altruistic activity

A History of European Housing in Australia Patrick Troy,2000-06-22 This collection of essays first published in 2000 was the first systematic attempt to explain the social administrative technical and cultural history of European housing in Australia Written by a collaborative team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines it explains how Australian housing has evolved from the ideas brought by the first settlers and what makes Australian housing distinctive in social terms This book covers a broad range of topics including the ways in which houses reflect social values and aspirations the relationship between houses and gardens the home as a site of domestic production and consumption and an exploration of how housing provides the basis for developing a sense of community The book will be invaluable for students of urban affairs and those engaged in housing and the design professions as well as policy makers and analysts in the public and private sectors

The Australian Medical Journal ,1894 Tea in Australia Peter D. Griggs,2020-03-26 Before 1950 Australians were the world s highest consumers of tea per capita This book tells the story of how tea emerged as the national beverage in the Australian colonies during the nineteenth century and explores why Australians consumed so much of the beverage for so long Special attention is devoted to analysing the evolution of the Australian tea distribution network especially the marketing strategies used by the tea traders to promote their products Other topics examined here include the development of tea rituals such as afternoon tea and high tea and their role in Australian society the local manufacture of teawares the establishment of tea rooms and the emergence of a tea growing industry in Australia after 1960 The first comprehensive account of the history of tea in Australia this book will be of particular interest to individuals interested in Australian history economic and social history and food history Australian Agriculture Ted Henzell,2007-05-09 Agriculture in Australia has had a lively history The first European settlers in 1788 brought agricultural technologies with them from their homelands influencing early practices in Australia Wool production dominated the 19th century while dairying grew rapidly during the first half of the 20th century Despite having one of the driest landscapes in the world Australia has been successful in adapting agricultural practices to the land and these innovations in farming are explained in this well researched volume Focusing on the technologies that the farmers and graziers actually used this book follows the history of each of the major commodities or groups of commodities to the end of the 20th century grain crops sheep and wool beef and dairy working bullocks and horses sugar cotton fruit and vegetables and grapes and wine Major issues facing the various agricultural enterprises as they enter the 21st century are also discussed Written in a readable style to suit students of history social sciences and agriculture Australian Agriculture will also appeal to professionals in the industry and those with a general interest in Australian sociology and history London and Westminster Review ,1894 Seed Cake and Honey Prawns Colin Bannerman,2008 In this wry audacious and absorbing consideration of the history of food in this country in the last 150 years Colin Bannerman spares no dish no recipe and no chef that captures his attention Imaging Italy Through the Eyes of Contemporary Australian Travellers (1990-2010) Roberta Trapè,2011-07-12 For centuries Italy has been the destination of a lifetime for an endless stream of travellers This book focussing on the experience of contemporary Australian intellectuals explores an aspect as of yet scarcely studied within the global phenomenon of travel to Italy and discovers an image of the country starkly different from the one that prevailed in previous writings From the beginning of the 1990s onwards there has been a sizeable output of books by Australian writers set in or about Italy After a meticulous examination of these works Roberta Trap has selected and analysed those that she considers the most interesting examples of Australians continuing fascination with Italy works of Jeffrey Smart and Shirley Hazzard and of Robert Dessaix and Peter Robb Examining the ways the four authors describe Italian places Imaging Italy looks into what it is that continues to attract Australian writers and artists to the country and tries to detect new trends in their attitude towards it The image of Italy that emerges from the most recent works is no doubt a superb picture not flattering but certainly not false of its contemporary times The Chautauquan ,1895 The Chautauquan Theodore L. Flood, Frank Chapin Bray,1895 Claiming Space for Australian Women's Writing Devaleena Das, Sanjukta Dasgupta,2017-06-29 This volume explores the subterfuges strategies and choices that Australian women writers have navigated in order to challenge patriarchal stereotypes and assert themselves as writers of substance Contextualized within the pioneering efforts of white Aboriginal and immigrant Australian women in initiating an alternative literary tradition the text captures a wide range of multiracial Australian women authors insightful reflections on crucial issues such as war and silent mourning emergence of a Australian national heroine racial purity and Aboriginal motherhood communism and activism feminist rivalry sexual transgressions autobiography and art of letter writing city space and female subjectivity lesbianism gender implications of spatial categories placement and displacement dwelling and travel location and dislocation and female body politics Claiming Space for Australian Women s Writing tracks Australian women

Chinese Market Gardening in Australia and New Zealand Joanna Boileau, 2017-07-27 This book offers a fresh perspective on the Chinese diaspora. It is about the mobilisation of knowledge across time and space exploring the history of Chinese market gardening in Australia and New Zealand. It enlarges our understanding of processes of technological change and human mobility highlighting the mobility of migrants as an essential element in the mobility and adaptation of technologies. Truly multidisciplinary Chinese Market Gardening in Australia and New Zealand incorporates elements of economic agricultural social cultural and environmental history along with archaeology to document how Chinese market gardeners from subtropical southern China adapted their horticultural techniques and technologies to novel environments and the demands of European consumers. It shows that they made a significant contribution to the economies of Australia and New Zealand developing flexible strategies to cope with the vagaries of climate and changing business and social environments which were often hostile towards Asian immigrants. Chinese Market Gardening in Australia and New Zealand will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of the Chinese diaspora in particular the history of the Chinese in Australasia the history of technology horticultural and garden history and environmental history as well as Asian studies more generally.

Urban Food Culture Cecilia Leong-Salobir, 2019-04-02 This book explores the food history of twentieth century Sydney Shanghai and Singapore within an Asian Pacific network of flux and flows. It engages with a range of historical perspectives on each city's food and culinary histories including colonial culinary legacies restaurants cafes street food market gardens supermarkets and cookbooks examining the exchange of goods and services and how the migration of people to the urban centres informed the social histories of the cities foodways in the contexts of culinary nationalism ethnic identities and globalization. Considering the recent food history of the three cities and its complex narrative of empire trade networks and migration patterns this book discusses key aspects of each city's cuisine in the twentieth century examining the interwoven threads of colonialism and globalization.

Cousins, Dani Napton, 2024-10-03 How A. D. Hope interpreted and reacted to modernity and modernism has been energetically discussed for some time. What aspects of modernity did he find useful or prize? What precisely did he dislike and why? How did he make use even sometimes especially of what he disliked? This book offers fresh answers to such questions from some of Australia's best known scholars. It is a volume that will be of interest to undergraduates and professional academics alike.

British Medical Journal ,1894      A New History of the Irish in Australia Dianne Hall,Elizabeth

Malcolm,2018-11-01 Irish immigrants although despised as inferior on racial and religious grounds and feared as a threat to national security were one of modern Australia s most influential founding peoples In his landmark 1986 book The Irish in Australia Patrick O Farrell argued that the Irish were central to the evolution of Australia s national character through their refusal to accept a British identity A New History of the Irish in Australia takes a fresh approach It draws on source materials not used until now and focuses on topics previously neglected such as race stereotypes gender popular culture employment discrimination immigration restriction eugenics crime and mental health This important book also considers the Irish in Australia within the worldwide Irish diaspora Elizabeth Malcolm and Dianne Hall reveal what Irish Australians shared with Irish communities elsewhere while reminding us that the Irish Australian experience was and is unique A necessary corrective to the false unity of the term Anglo Celtic this beautifully controlled and clear sighted intervention is timely and welcome It gives us not just a history of the Irish in Australia but a skilful account of how identity is formed relationally often through sectarian class ethnic and racial divisions A masterful book Professor R n n McDonald University of Melbourne
