Art Of The Northern Tlingit:

Art of the Northern Tlingit Aldona Jonaitis, 1986 An overview of the art related theories of American and European scholars artists historians and social scientists which are then refocused on Tlingit art and culture Illustrated with 70 black and white photographs The Arts of the North American Indian Philbrook Art Center, 1986 Fourteen authorities explore sociology anthropology art history of Native American creativity Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well Alaska Native Art Susan W. Fair, 2006 The rich artistic traditions of Alaska Natives are the subject of this landmark volume which examines the work of the premier Alaska artists of the twentieth century Ranging across the state from the islands of the Bering Sea to the interior forests Alaska Native Art provides a living context for beadwork and ivory carving basketry and skin sewing Examples of work from Tlingit Aleutian Islanders Pacific Eskimo Athabascan Yupik and Inupiaq artists make this volume the most comprehensive study of Alaskan art ever published Alaska Native Art examines the concept of tradition in the modern world Alaska Native Art is a volume to treasure a tribute to the incredible vision of Alaska s artists and to the enduring traditions of all of Alaska s Native peoples Art of the North American Indians Fenimore Art Museum (Cooperstown, N.Y.), 2000 This text is a comprehensive examination of Native American art containing introductions for each of the eight culture areas as well as 34 regional sections The majority of works covered in the book are from the historic period some as early as 500 BC but contemporary pieces are also covered Living Our Cultures, Sharing Our Heritage Aron A. Crowell, Rosita Worl, Paul C. Ongtooguk, Dawn D. Biddison, 2010-05-18 Living Our Cultures Sharing Our Heritage The First Peoples of Alaska features more than 200 objects representing the masterful artistry and design traditions of twenty Alaska Native peoples Based on a collaborative exhibition created by Alaska Native communities the Smithsonian s National Museum of Natural History the Smithsonian s National Museum of the American Indian and the Anchorage Museum at Rasmuson Center this richly illustrated volume celebrates both the long awaited return of ancestral treasures to their native homeland and the diverse cultures in which they were created Despite the North s transformation through globalizing change the objects shown in these pages are interpretable within ongoing cultural frames articulated in languages still spoken They were made for a way of life on the land that is carried on today throughout Alaska Dialogue with the region s First Peoples evokes past meanings but focuses equally on contemporary values practices and identities Objects and narratives show how each Alaska Native nation is unique and how all are connected After introductions to the history of the land and its people universal themes of Sea Land Rivers Family and Community and Ceremony and Celebration are explored referencing exquisite masks parkas beaded garments basketry weapons and carvings that embody the diverse environments and practices of their makers Accompanied by traditional stories and personal accounts by Alaska Native elders artists and scholars each piece featured in Living Our Cultures Sharing Our Heritage evokes both historical and contemporary meaning and breathes the life of its people

The Anthropology of Art Howard Morphy, Morgan Perkins, 2009-02-04 This anthology provides a single volume overview of the essential theoretical debates in the anthropology of art Drawing together significant work in the field from the second half of the twentieth century it enables readers to appreciate the art of different cultures at different times Advances a cross cultural concept of art that moves beyond traditional distinctions between Western and non Western art Provides the basis for the appreciation of art of different cultures and times Enhances readers appreciation of the aesthetics of art and of the important role it plays in human society

Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness, 2003-01-01 This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures

Early Art of the Southeastern Indians Susan C. Power, 2004 Early Art of the Southeastern Indians is a visual journey through time highlighting some of the most skillfully created art in native North America The remarkable objects described and pictured here many in full color reveal the hands of master artists who developed lapidary and weaving traditions established centers for production of shell and copper objects and created the first ceramics in North America Presenting artifacts originating in the Archaic through the Mississippian periods from thousands of years ago through A D 1600 Susan C Power introduces us to an extraordinary assortment of ceremonial and functional objects including pipes vessels figurines and much more Drawn from every corner of the Southeast from Louisiana to the Ohio River valley from Florida to Oklahoma the pieces chronicle the emergence of new media and the mastery of new techniques as they offer clues to their creators widening awareness of their physical and spiritual worlds The most complex works writes Power were linked to male and sometimes female leaders Wearing bold ensembles consisting of symbolic colors sacred media and richly complex designs the leaders controlled large ceremonial centers that were noteworthy in regional art history such as Etowah Georgia Spiro Oklahoma Cahokia Illinois and Moundville Alabama Many objects were used locally others circulated to distant locales Power comments on the widening of artists subjects starting with animals and insects moving to humans then culminating in supernatural combinations of both and she discusses how a piece s artistic language could function as a visual shorthand in local style and expression yet embody an iconography of regional proportions The remarkable achievements of these southeastern artists delight the senses and engage the mind while giving a brief glimpse into the rich symbolic world of feathered serpents and winged beings Indians of North America Fiona Reynoldson,1997 Focusing on the Indians of North America this text is part of the Foundation History series which provides simplified versions of topics in the Heinemann History Study Units series In each student book the content has been reduced and the text simplified to meet the needs of less able students Plundered Skulls and Stolen Spirits Chip Colwell,2017-03-08 A leading anthropologist explores the fraught project of repatriating Native American sacred objects in this moving and thoughtful work Publishers Weekly Who own the objects that connect us to history And who has the right to decide particularly when the objects are sacred or in the case of skeletal remains human As senior curator of anthropology at the Denver Museum of Nature Science Chip Colwell has navigated questions like these firsthand In Plundered Skulls and Stolen Spirits he examines how to weigh the religious freedom of Native Americans against the academic freedom of scientists and whether the emptying of museum shelves elevates human rights or destroys a common heritage Today hundreds of tribes use the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act to recover their looted heritage from museums across the country Colwell shares a personal account of this process following the trail of four objects as they were created collected and ultimately returned to their sources a sculpture that is a living god the scalp of a massacre victim a ceremonial blanket and a skeleton from a tribe considered by some to be extinct These stories reveal a dramatic process that involves not merely obeying the law but negotiating the blurry lines between identity and morality spirituality and politics Repatriation Colwell argues is a difficult but vitally important way for museums and tribes to heal the wounds of the past while creating a respectful approach to caring for these rich artifacts of history Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner,Mary F. Williamson,1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981 Handbook of North American Indians: Northwest Coast William C. Sturtevant,1990 Encyclopedic summary of prehistory history cultures and political and social aspects of native peoples Tsimshian Culture Jay Miller,2000-10-01 The Tsimshians are a Northwest Coast Native people known for their dazzling works of art and rich array of social religious and oral traditions that have captured the attention of scholars for over a century Jay Miller brings together for the first time a wealth of material about the Tsimshians presenting an unforgettable picture of their cultural universe That universe is built around the metaphor of light which was brought into the world by Raven its refraction forms the chief social religious and symbolic institutions of Tsimshian culture Family heraldic crests express light in one way masks in another Miller argues convincingly that the genius of Tsimshian culture and one of the main reasons for its continuing vitality is that its people are sensitive to different and often creative ways of capturing and embodying light The Coast Indians of Southern Alaska and
