Robin Attfield, 2016-07-15 This book relates the value present in the natural world and in human creativity to an underlying purpose which it traces in creation. It opens by invoking the wonder aroused by nature's value and celebrated by poets and moves to a cosmic purpose as the best explanation of this value. Natural evils are considered and set in their evolutionary context. Human creativity is later related to inspiration and to traditional theistic teaching about the purpose of human life. Criticisms of the value approach are considered together with the quest for meaning and fears that Darwinism undermines it which are found to be illusory. New ground is broken through this response to the spectre of bleakness. The author's previous studies of meaningful work are applied to the question of the nature of a worthwhile life and life's meaning. While the world's value is argued to point to creation by a transcendent lover of value, human beings are shown to be capable of augmenting that value through their creativity, not least through activities such as craftsmanship and gardening. In integrating the themes of value, creativity and purpose, the book contributes a new synthesis to the literature of philosophy, environmental studies and theology.

Lost in Wonder Aidan Nichols O. P., 2016-04-22 This book explores the Liturgy as the manifestation by cultic signs of Christian revelation, the setting of the Liturgy in terms of architectural space, iconography and music, and the poetic response which the revelation the Liturgy carries can produce. The conclusion offers a synthetic statement of the unity of religion, cosmology and art. Aidan Nichols makes the case for Christianity's capacity to inspire high culture both in principle and through well-chosen historical examples which draw on the best in Catholicism, Eastern Orthodoxy and Anglicanism.

Wonder and Exile in the New World Alex Nava, 2013-06-21 In Wonder and Exile in the New World Alex Nava explores the border regions between wonder and exile particularly in relation to the New World It traces the preoccupation with the concept of wonder in the history of the Americas beginning with the first European encounters goes on to investigate later representations in the Baroque age and ultimately enters the twentieth century with the emergence of so called magical realism In telling the story of wonder in the New World Nava gives special attention to the part it played in the history of violence and exile either as a force that supported and reinforced the Conquest or as a voice of resistance and decolonization Focusing on the work of New World explorers writers and poets and their literary descendants Nava finds that wonder and exile have been two of the most significant metaphors within Latin American cultural literary and religious representations Beginning with the period of the Conquest especially with Cabeza de Vaca and Las Casas continuing through the Baroque with Cervantes and Sor Juana In's de la Cruz and moving into the twentieth century with Alejo Carpentier and Miguel ngel Asturias Nava produces a historical study of Latin American narrative in which religious and theological perspectives figure prominently Wisdom and Wonder Abraham Kuyper, 2011-11-15 Who's Afraid of Modern Art? Daniel A.

Siedell, 2015-01-07 Modern art can be confusing and intimidating even ugly and blasphemous And yet curator and art critic Daniel A Siedell finds something else something much deeper that resonates with the human experience With over thirty essays on such diverse artists as Andy Warhol Thomas Kinkade Diego Velazquez Robyn O Neil Claudia Alvarez and Andrei Rublev Siedell offers a highly personal approach to modern art that is informed by nearly twenty years of experience as a museum curator art historian and educator Siedell combines his experience in the contemporary art world with a theological perspective that serves to deepen the experience of art allowing the work of art to work as art and not covert philosophy or theology or visual illustrations of ideas meanings and worldviews Who's Afraid of Modern Art celebrates the surprising beauty of art that emerges from and embraces pain and suffering if only we take the time to listen Indeed as Siedell reveals a painting is much more than meets the eye So who's afraid of modern art Siedell's answer might surprise you Weird Wonder in Merleau-Ponty, Object-Oriented Ontology, and New Materialism Brian Hisao Onishi, 2023-12-15 This book connects recent developments in speculative realism new materialism and eco phenomenology to articulate an approach to wonder that escapes the connected traps of anthropocentrism and correlationism Brian Onishi argues that wonder has explanatory power for the constitution of the world and the organization of meaning To do this he appeals to both fiction speculative and Weird fiction in particular and quantum physics More specifically he argues that the focus of Weird fiction on impossible experiences and a feeling of something just beyond the limits of one's grasp dramatizes the speculative reach beyond the limits of our understanding But more than a tool for knowledge acquisition wonder is an organizing property of objects Like the collapse of superposition in quantum physics reality is constituted when objects reveal themselves to other objects and thereby organize themselves into complex objects Since no relation is exhaustive the capacity to wonder remains at a material level and the possibility of reorganization is ever present Ultimately Onishi argues for a speculative eco phenomenology with wonder as an engine for a Weird environmental ethics The Works of Beaumont and Fletcher Francis Beaumont, John Fletcher, 1840 The Works of Beaumont and Fletcher with an Introduction by George Darley Francis Beaumont, 1840 *The works of Beaumont and Fletcher, with an intr. by G.
