Art Studies for an Editor Milton S. Fox, 1975 Michelangelo and the Art of Letter Writing Deborah Parker, Michelangelo Buonarroti, 2010-10-21 Deborah Parker examines Michelangelo's use of language in his correspondence as a means of understanding the creative process of this extraordinary artist Performance Anthology Carl E. Loeffler, Darlene Tong, 1989 Performance art is a major contemporary art form and California is recognized internationally as a pivotal area for innovative performance art activity This updated edition of Performance Anthology offers an extraordinary documentation of California performance art from 1970 through 1989 The anthology provides a chronicle of the literature of artists publications art journals major books and catalogues introductions and original essays by artists and leading historians and critics of performance art in California and photographs illustrating major works by California artists Through the documentation of the literature a framework is established of the artists events organizations and spaces that have been instrumental in launching and sustaining the performance art scene in California Revolutions & Watersheds, 2022-02-28 The years between 1775 and 1815 constitute a crucial episode in the evolutionary history of Europe and America Between the start of the American Revolution with the first armed clashes between British regulars and American militiamen at Concord and Lexington and the closing act of the French Revolution with the eclipse of Napoleon's dreams of pan European glory on the battlefield of Waterloo America and Europe witnessed the rise and fall of radicalism which left virtually no aspect of public and private life untouched While the American colonies managed to wrench themselves away from their colonial parent and while France careered down the stormy rapids of its own Revolution Great Britain went through the turbulent process of redefining itself vis vis both these emerging nations and the world at large But the period 1775 to 1815 offers more than the two ideological Revolutions that determined the face of modern America and Europe feeding into and emanating from these Revolutions there were major watersheds in virtually all areas of cultural intellectual and political life varying from the rise of Romanticism to the birth of abolitionism and from the beginnings of modern feminism to the creation of modern nationhood and its enduring cultural stereotypes In this collection of interdisciplinary essays historians and literary critics from both sides of the Atlantic analyze a broad spectrum of the watersheds and faultlines that arose in this formative era of Euro American relations Individually the essays trace one or more of the transatlantic patterns of intellectual cultural or scientific cross pollination between the Old and the New World between pre and post Revolutionary modes and mores Collectively the essays argue that the many revolutions that produced the national ideologies identities and ideas of state of present day America and Europe did not merely play a role in national debates but that they very much belonged to an intricate network of transnational and more particularly transatlantic dialogues Annual Report Art Institute of Chicago, 1970 Action Art John Gray, 1993-05-30 This comprehensive international bibliography is the first to attempt documentation of this diverse field covering the history of Artist's Performance It focuses on its early twentieth century antecedents in such movements as Futurism Dada Russian Constructivism and the Bauhaus as well as its peak period in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s with such developments as Gutai Fluxus Viennese Actionism Situationism and Guerrilla Art Action Major emphasis is also given to sources on 115 individual performance artists and groups More than 3700 entries document print and media materials dating from 1914 to 1992 Organized for maximum accessibility the sources are also extensively cross referenced and are indexed by artist subject title and author Three appendices identify reference works libraries and archives and addenda material not found in the book text and two others list artists by country and by group or collective
