Art Institute Of Chicago Twentieth Century Painting And Sculpture:

The Art Institute of Chicago James N. Wood, T. J. Edelstein, 1996-05 The Art Institute's holdings of twentieth century painting and sculpture is one of the most important in the world. Now for the first time this outstanding collection is surveyed in this stunning full color volume celebrating a century of innovation and creativity. Included are over one hundred and forty masterpieces by the most celebrated American and European artists of the period spanning such diverse movements as Cubism, Surrealism, Abstract Expressionism, Pop Art, and Minimalism. World renowned highlights of the collection include Brancusi's lyrical sculpture Golden Bird, Hopper's poignant Nighthawks, Matisse's monumental Bathers by a River, Picasso's masterful Old Guitarist, Wood's iconic American Gothic, as well as important works by Cornell, Hockney, Lawrence, O'Keeffe, Moore, Pollock, Sherman, Stella, and Warhol. In addition to an introduction on the history of the collection, this handsome volume offers a comprehensive overview of twentieth century painting and sculpture. All of the featured works are accompanied by brief informative entries written for the general reader by Margherita Andreotti, Courtney Donnell, Audrey Fosse, Madeleine Grynsztejn, and Daniel Schulman of The Art Institute of Chicago; Sue Taylor of the University of Chicago; and Dennis Nawrocki of the College of Art and Design in Detroit.

American Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art: A catalogue of works by artists born between 1865 and 1885 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lauretta Dimmick, Donna J. Hassler, 1999 Volume One This volume catalogues the distinguished and comprehensive collection of approximately 400 works of American sculpture by artists born before 1865. This publication includes an introduction on the history of the collection's formation, particularly in the context of the Museum's early years of acquisitions, and discusses the outstanding personalities involved. Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago, 2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family, longtime Chicago collectors. The catalog comprises 135 drawings, prints, and sculptures from the collection, all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism. The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh, as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston. Toulouse-Lautrec, Matisse, and Picasso form the backbone of the collection, with nearly 30 works of art apiece. Suzanne Folds McCullagh, curator of prints and drawings, Art Inst of Chicago, provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection. Authored by a bevy of contributors, the well-written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself. While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute, it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries. It does, however, belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections. Kraig A. Binkowski, Delaware Art Museum, Wilmington. 135 colour illustrations
