Art Of Performance:

The Analysis of Performance Art Anthony Howell, A. Howell, 2013-11-05 This finely illustrated book offers a simple yet comprehensive grammar of a new discipline Performance Art first became popular in the fifties when artists began creating happenings Since then the artist as a performer has challenged many of the accepted rules of the theatre and radically altered our notion of what constitutes visual art This is the first publication to outline the essential characteristics of the field and to put forward a method for teaching the subject as a discipline distinct from dance drama painting or sculpture Taking the theory of primary and secondary colours as his model Anthony Howell posits three primaries of action and shows how these may be mixed to obtain a secondary range of actions Based on a taught course the system is designed for practical use in the studio and is also entertaining to explore Examples are cited from leading performance groups and practitioners such as Bobbie Baker Orlan Stelarc Annie Sprinkle Robert Wilson Goat Island and Station House Opera This volume however is not just an illustrated grammar of action it also shows how the syntax of that grammar has psychoanalytic repercussions This enables the performer to relate the system to lived experience ensuring a realisation that meaning is being dealt with through these actions and that the system set forth is more than a dry structuring of the characteristics of movement Freud's notion of transference and Lacan's understanding of repetition are compared to a performer's usage of the same terms Thus the book provides a psychoanalytic critique of performance at the same time as it outlines an efficient method for creating live work on both fine art and theatre courses The Art of Performance Katleen Van Langendonck, 2023

Navigating the Unknown Christopher Bannerman, Joshua Sofaer, Jane Watt, 2006 Navigating the Unknown The creative process in contemporary performing arts offers insight into the different kinds of processes that practitioners in the performing arts undertake in their creative work and considers the implications these processes have in the wider world Based on a five year research programme conducted by ResCen Centre for Research into Creation in the Performing Arts this publication brings together internationally renowned performance makers in the fields of dance performance live art and music to share their creative processes Jacket Philology and Performing Arts Mattia Cavagna, Costantino Maeder, 2014-10-30 This volume invites to bridge the traditional gap between the author and the scribes which means between the original text and the copies in order deal with more complex situations in which the performer the screenwriter or the director Art, Performance, Media Nicholas Zurbrugg, 2004 Over the course of fifteen years Nicholas Zurbrugg interviewed the avant garde poets filmmakers dancers writers composers and performance artists who were defying tradition crossing genres and forever changing how art would be created performed and interpreted These conversations with thirty one of the leading multimedia artists in the United States now form a comprehensive record from the insiders perspectives of the most vital component of the postmodern American art world Passionate about postmodernism and committed to innovative creativity Zurbrugg asks these artists probing and insightful questions How did their work evolve Who most influenced them How did they assess changes in contemporary art and what did they think of each other's work Which of their experiences had the most powerful effects on their creative development What could lie ahead for American art As these questions are answered by individual artists the interviews also cumulatively address larger issues of artistic expression including the idea of the avant garde itself The book features interviews with Kathy Acker Charles Amirkhanyan Laurie Anderson Robert Ashley Beth B David Blair William S Burroughs Warren Burt John Cage Richard Foreman Kenneth Gaburo Diamanda Galas John Giorno Philip Glass Brion Gysin Dick Higgins Jenny Holzer Mike Kuchar Robert Lax Jackson Mac Low Meredith Monk Nam June Paik Yvonne Rainer Steve Reich Rachel Rosenthal Bill Viola Larry Wendt Emmett Williams Robert Wilson Nick Zedd and Ellen Zweig Introductory notes to each interview provide context and connect the work and experiences of various artists and photographs of these artists contribute a significant visual element to the book

Nicholas Zurbrugg 1947-2001 was professor of English and cultural studies as well as director of the Centre of Contemporary Arts at De Montfort University in Leicester England He is the author of The Parameters of Postmodernism and Critical Vices: The Myths of Postmodern Theory

The Transformative Power of Performance Erika Fischer-Lichte, 2008-06-05 In this book Erika Fischer Lichte traces the emergence of performance as an art event in its own right In setting performance art on an equal footing with the traditional art object she heralds a new aesthetics The peculiar mode of experience that a performance provokes blurring distinctions between artist and audience body and mind art and life is here framed as the breeding ground for a new way of understanding performing arts and through them even wider social and cultural processes With an introduction by Marvin Carlson this translation of the original sthetik des Performativen addresses key issues in performance art experimental theatre and cultural performances to lay the ground for a new appreciation of the artistic event

Acts of Intervention David Roman, 1998-02-22 Acts of Intervention traces the ways in which performance and theatre have participated in and informed the larger cultural politics of race sexuality citizenship and AIDS in the United States in the last fifteen years

Actors and the Art of Performance Susanne Granzer, 2016-05-12 Actors and the Art of Performance Under Exposure combines the author's two main biographical paths her professional commitment to the fields of both theatre and philosophy The art of acting on stage is analysed here not only from the theoretical perspective of a spectator but also from the perspective of the actor The author draws on her experience as both a theatre actor and a university professor whose teachings in the art of acting rely heavily on her own experience and also on her philosophical knowledge The book is unique not only in terms of its content but also in terms of its style Written in a multiplicity of voices the text oscillates between philosophical reasoning and narrative forms of writing including micro narratives fables parables and inter alia by Carroll Hoffmann and Kleist Hence the book claims that a trans disciplinary dialogue between the art of acting and the art of philosophical thinking calls for an aesthetical research that questions and begins to seek alternatives to traditionally established and ingrained formats of philosophy

Choreographing Intersubjectivity in Performance Art Victoria Wynne-Jones, 2021-09-29 This book offers new ways of thinking about dance related artworks that have taken place in galleries museums and biennales over the past two decades as part of the choreographic turn It focuses on the concept of intersubjectivity and theorises about what happens when subjects meet within a performance artwork The resulting relations are crucial to instances of performance art in which embodied subjects engage as spectators participants and performers in orchestrated art events Choreographing Intersubjectivity in Performance Art deploys a multi disciplinary approach across dance choreography and evolving manifestations of performance art An innovative overarching concept of choreography sustains the idea that intersubjectivity evolves through places spaces performance and spectatorship Drawing upon international examples the book introduces readers to performance art from the South Pacific and the complexities of de colonising choreography Artists Tino Sehgal Xavier Le Roy Jordan Wolfson Alicia Frankovich and Shigeyuki Kihara are discussed Performance Art in Ireland Aine Phillips, 2015-01-01 This book the first devoted to the history and contemporary forms of Irish performance art in the north and south of Ireland brings together contributions by prominent Irish artists and major academics It features rigorous critical and theoretical analysis as well as historical commentaries that provide an absorbing sense of the rich histories of performance art in Ireland Presenting diverse visual documentation of performance art practices this collection shows how performance art in Ireland engaged with and in turn influenced and led contemporary performance and Live Art scholarly discourse Each offers the opportunity to examine their experiences creating artworks and in turn contributes to the context of phenomenological examination within this publication through complementary scholarly texts from leading thinkers who frame phenomenological application to both visual art and transdisciplinary context Featuring artists through new exclusive interviews and contributions including Marina Abramovi Jelili Atiku Ron Athey Franko B Niya B Marisa Carnesky Chelsea Coon Victor Martinez Diaz Rufus Elliot Ernst Fischer Louis Fleischauer Poppy Jackson Mirabelle Jones Andrei Molodkin Hermann Nitsch ORLAN Mike Parr Greta Sharp tjb and Paola Paz Yee and reference to many more Alongside new scholarly insight by leading phenomenological and interdisciplinary art scholars and philosophers including T J Bacon Chelsea Coon Stuart Grant Kelly Jordan Lynn Lu Roberta Mock Amber Musser and Raegan Truax Together they represent a significant exploration of intricate and dynamic responses to the cultural fabric of contemporary lived experiences across space and time through the medium of blood in performance art This incredible analysis of this performance art will be of huge interest to students and practitioners of live art performance art phenomenology and performance philosophy

Actors and the Art of Performance Susanne Valerie Granzer, 2020-10-08 Acting on stage is a mode of performing an action in the context of which the bodily aspects implicitly at work in acting reveal their own significance and power This event can actualize a wound incarnated in human beings because the actor acts and does not act at the same time and hence the concept of being the doer unmasks itself as being illusionary One could call it a kind of symbolic death Mueller an anthropological mutation Agamben an event of great interest because of its highly ethical call The book Actors and the Art of Performance Under Exposure opens with a cascade of contradictory motives for becoming an actor But if theatre is no longer understood as a theatre of representation then what takes place on stage is a transformation at play with truth in which ethics are realized by the aesthetic Insofar the book summarizes the attempt to explore and map guidelines of acting as being under the perspective of becoming That may sound fairly harmless in theory but it feels anything but harmless when you experience it on your own body For example for being physical under exposure actors have to learn that there exists no fundamental dualism between mind and matter Furthermore actors are espoused to a dynamic shifting ground in the name of creativity They have to carry the burden that the self is no sovereign identity as we generally suppose but rather a threshold of permanent becoming One could call it the outstanding gift of acting In the German language gift means poison in German ears the word has the double meaning of poison and present thus expressing the fact that a gift is disturbing and blessing at the same time Loaded with fear and joy as the crucial point of acting which attacks and attracts actors and spectators most This work was published by Saint Philip Street Press pursuant to a Creative Commons license permitting commercial use All rights not granted by the work's license are retained by the author or authors
