Autotheory as Feminist Practice in Art, Writing, and Criticism Lauren Fournier, 2021-02-23 Autotheory the commingling of theory and philosophy with autobiography as a mode of critical artistic practice indebted to feminist writing and activism In the 2010s the term autotheory began to trend in literary spheres where it was used to describe books in which memoir and autobiography fused with theory and philosophy In this book Lauren Fournier extends the meaning of the term applying it to other disciplines and practices Fournier provides a long awaited account of autotheory situating it as a mode of contemporary post 1960s artistic practice that is indebted to feminist writing art and activism Investigating a series of works by writers and artists including Chris Kraus and Adrian Piper she considers the politics aesthetics and ethics of autotheory

Geographical Aesthetics Elizabeth Straughan, 2016-03-03 Geographical Aesthetics places the terms aesthetics and geography under critical question together responding both to the increasing calls from within geography to develop a geographical aesthetics and a resurgence of interdisciplinary interest in conceptual and empirical questions around geoaesthetics environmental aesthetics as well as the spatialities of the aesthetic Despite taking up an identifiable role within the geographical imagination and sensibilities for centuries and having what is arguably a key place in the making of the modern discipline aesthetics remains a relatively under theorized field within geography Across 15 chapters Geographical Aesthetics brings together timely commentaries by international interdisciplinary scholars to rework historical relations between geography and aesthetics and reconsider how it is we might understand aesthetics In renewing aesthetics as a site of investigation but also an analytic object through which we can think about worldly encounters Geographical Aesthetics presents a reworking of our geographical imaginary of the aesthetic Inquiry and Reflection Diane DuBose

Brunner, 1994-01-01 Inquiry and Reflection shows how stories of schooling can elucidate difficult and unexamined problems facing teachers While professional texts tend to raise issues of power and its distribution and questions of culture and ideology often the manner of presentation is abstract and pre service teachers have difficulty making connections Yet literary film and video materials illuminate problems and suggest ideas to which teachers can actively respond This book offers teacher educators a variety of resources for articulating a critical pedagogy and suggests an alternative to the technical job training approach to teacher education by providing a unique educational curricula that illuminates issues of power ideology and culture

The Ohio Educational Monthly, 1877

Art Practice as Research Graeme Sullivan, 2010 Art Practice as Research Second Edition continues to present a compelling argument that the creative and cultural inquiry undertaken by artists is a form of research The text explores themes practices and contexts of artistic inquiry and positions them within the discourse of research Sullivan argues that legitimate research goals can be achieved by choosing different methods than those offered by the social sciences The common denominator in both approaches is the attention given to rigor and systematic inquiry Artists emphasize the role of the imaginative intellect in creating criticizing and constructing knowledge that is not only new but also has the capacity to transform human understanding

Art and Industry: (1897) Industrial and technical training in voluntary associations and endowed institutions United States. Office of Education, 1898

Rhetorical Theory Timothy Borchers, Heather Hundley, 2018-03-30 From the moment we begin to understand the meanings of words and symbols we have used rhetoric It is how we determine perceptions of who we are those around us and the social structure in which we operate Rhetorical Theory Second Edition introduces a broad selection of classical and contemporary theoretical approaches to understanding and using rhetoric Historical context reveals why rhetorical theories were created while present day examples demonstrate how they relate to the world in which we live Borchers and Hundley present conceptual topics in a succinct and approachable manner The text is organized topically rather than chronologically so similarities and differences are easily detected in central ideas Each chapter is enhanced by the inclusion of theorist biographies applications of theory to practice and Internet exercises The Second Edition expands coverage on mediated rhetoric feminist rhetoric alternative rhetorical theories including Afrocentricity and intersectionality cultural and critical rhetoric and postmodern implications of rhetoric

Art Borderlands in Theory, Practice, and Teaching Christen Sperry García,Leslie C. Sotomayor II,2025-04-29 Responding to an absence of Latine and Chicane artist and teaching resources Art Borderlands in Theory Practice and Teaching shows how artists and educators can use borderlands in between geographical emotional cultural and conceptual spaces in three ways theory art practice and teaching Throughout this teaching oriented text the authors draw from borderlands theories and apply them to visual art and teaching This volume centers art making and teaching practices based on borderlands lived experiences that are not commonly taught in higher education Making productive the rupture and fragmentation that occurs in borderlands spaces this text explores ways in which artists rebuild and become whole again through the process of making art Using hands on approaches the authors model how to use borderlands theories in the classroom by employing arts based and teaching methodologies This includes access to Latine and Chicane centered digital information interactive classroom activities artist resources and beyond the classroom learning experiences Art Borderlands in Theory Practice and Teaching offers artists students and educators art making and teaching approaches that are centered on Latine and Chicane theories and concepts

Feminist Practices Lori A. Brown, 2016-04-15 Women continue to be extremely under represented in the architectural profession Despite equal numbers of male and female students entering architectural studies there is at least 17 25% attrition of female students and not all remaining become practicing architects In both the academic and the professional fields of architecture positions of power and authority are almost entirely male and as such the profession is defined by a heterosexual Eurasian male perspective This book argues that it is vital for all architectural students and practitioners to be exposed to a diversity of contemporary architectural practices as this might provide a first step into broadening awareness and transforming architectural engagement It considers the relationships between feminist methodologies and the various approaches toward design and their impact upon our understanding and relationship to the built environment In doing so this collection challenges two conventional ideas firstly the definition of architecture and secondly what constitutes a feminist practice This collection of up and coming female architects and designers use a wide range of local and global examples of their work to question different aspects of these two conventional ideas While focusing on feminist perspectives the book offers insights into many different issues concerns and interpretations of architecture proposing through these types of engagement architecture can become more culturally politically and environmentally relevant This next generation of architects claim feminism as their own and through doing so help define what feminism means and how it is evolving in the 21st century

The Art of Figure Drawing; Containing Practical Instructions for a Course of Study in this Branch of Art Weigall, 1890 Practice-Led Theology Neil K. Ferguson, 2024-03-11 Following a series of economic and political changes in the late 1980s art design schools and performing arts academies were incorporated into the university system To justify their teachings as academic research they developed the idea of practice led research Practice led research recognizes two or more languages that is the validity of both explicit propositional knowledge and embodied tacit knowledge allowing for the researcher s corresponding output expressed through both the written word and relevant practice Christians often find themselves living a life of two languages a set of intellectual beliefs and the practice of being a Christian This book develops this methodology and translates it for use in theological research Most importantly it clearly develops key elements of this methodology using a comprehensive model and detailed definitions This is a book which not only presents a fully articulated and flexible model of practice led research but also presents Christian researchers with an approach they could incorporate into their theological work Thinking Through Art Katy Macleod, 2013-01-11 Focusing on a unique arena Thinking Through Art takes an innovative look at artists experiences of undertaking doctorates and asks If the making of art is not simply the formulation of an object but is also the formation of complex ideas then what effect does academic enquiry have on art practice Using twenty eight pictures never before seen outside the artists universities Thinking Through Art focuses on art produced in higher educational environments and considers how the material product comes about through a process of conceiving and giving form to abstract thought It further examines how this form which is research art sits uneasily within academic circles and yet is uniquely situated outside the gallery system The journal articles from eminent scholars artists philosophers art historians and cultural theorists demonstrate the complexity of interpreting art as research and provide students and scholars with an invaluable resource for their art and cultural studies courses en mathématiques la cohomologie galoisienne est l'étude de l'action d'un groupe de galois sur certains groupes par des méthodes cohomologiques elle permet d'obtenir des résultats à la fois sur le groupe de galois agissant et sur le groupe sur lequel il agit en particulier le groupe de galois d'une extension de corps de nombres k agit naturellement par exemple sur le groupe multiplicatif k^\times mais aussi sur le groupe des unités de l'anneau des entiers du corps k ou sur son in mathematics galois cohomology is the study of the group cohomology of galois modules that is the application of homological algebra to modules for galois groups a galois group G associated to a field extension L/K acts in a natural way on some abelian groups for example those constructed directly from L but also through other galois representations that may be derived by more abstract means galois cohomology accounts for the way in which taking galois invariant elements fails
