Art Past Art Present:

Art Past, Art Present David G. Wilkins, Bernard Schultz, Katheryn M. Linduff, 2009 Authoritative and substantive yet accessible Art Past Art Present 6th edition looks at the historical and cultural contexts of art works and architecture around the world from prehistoric times to the 20th century The authors recognized the need for an easy to use format that is accessible for both teachers and students Each topic in Art Past Art Present is organized into two and four page units and provides a clear and concise treatment of a select number of artworks making it easier for instructors to focus on what is important and for students to learn Art Past, Art Present Harry N. Abrams, Incorporated, 1993-10-01 present David G. Wilkins, 1990 Making Theory/Constructing Art Daniel Herwitz, 1993-11 Artists and critics regularly enlist theory in their creation and assessment of artworks but few have scrutinized the art theories themselves Making Theory Constructing Art On the Authority of the Avant Garde is among the first philosophical texts to provide a close encounter with this theoretical tendency in twentieth century art and aesthetics exploring the norms assumptions historical conditions and institutions that have framed the development and uses of theory in art In a series of intricate readings of constructivism Mondrian and John Cage Daniel Herwitz outlines the avant garde's belief that theory can perfectly prefigure the avant garde art object and invest it with utopian force Through similarly insightful treatments of Arthur Danto Andy Warhol Jean Francois Lyotard Jean Baudrillard and postmodern art and theory Herwitz demonstrates how the contemporary art world is heir to the avant garde s theoretical assumptions and practices In fact avant garde art objects live as art only by partly resisting the master theories of their makers and interpreters Skillfully resisting the lure of grand theory himself Herwitz urges the art world to be more self critical and self reflective about its uses of theory Making Theory Constructing Art is as accessible and entertainingly written as it is philosophically incisive Since the book is both a philosophical and a cultural encounter with theory in twentieth century art it will engage all those who have tried to grapple with the Primitivism and Twentieth-century Art Jack D. Flam, Miriam Deutch, 2003 This is inscrutability of the theoretical art muse a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam's essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism Rich timely illuminating Herbert M Cole author of Icons Ideals and Power in the Art of Art in the Social Order Preben Mortensen, 1997-03-20 Seeks to replace the dominant approaches to the question of the nature of art in contemporary English speaking analytic philosophy with a historicist approach that emphasizes localized cultural historical narratives Art in the Early Years Kristen Ali Eglinton, 2003-12-16 For all involved in teaching young children this timely book offers the necessary tool with which to develop a broad creative and inspirational visual arts programme Presented in two parts this text covers both theoretical and practical angles part one investigates contemporary early childhood art education challenging what is traditionally considered an early years art experience part two puts theory to text by presenting the reader with numerous inventive visual art lessons that imaginatively meet goals for creative development issued by the QCA The author strikes the perfect balance between discussion of the subject and provision of hands on material for use in lessons which makes this book a complete art education resource for all involved in early years art education Teachers trainee teachers or nursery teachers who wish to implement a more holistic art curriculum in the classroom whilst meeting all the required standards will find this an essential companion A Companion to Nineteenth-Century Art Michelle Facos, 2018-12-06 A comprehensive review of art in the first truly modern century A Companion to Nineteenth Century Art contains contributions from an international panel of noted experts to offer a broad overview of both national and transnational developments as well as new and innovative investigations of individual art works artists and issues The text puts to rest the skewed perception of nineteenth century art as primarily Paris centric by including major developments beyond the French borders The contributors present a more holistic and nuanced understanding of the art world during this first modern century In addition to highlighting particular national identities of artists A Companion to Nineteenth Century Art also puts the focus on other aspects of identity including individual ethnic gender and religious The text explores a wealth of relevant topics such as the challenges the artists faced how artists learned their craft and how they

Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1976 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Encounters in Video Art in Latin America Elena Shtromberg ,Glenn Phillips,2023-02-14 With insightful essays and interviews this volume examines how artists have experimented with the medium of video across different regions of Latin America since the 1960s The emergence of video art in Latin America is marked by multiple points of development across more than a dozen artistic centers over a period of more than twenty five years When first introduced during the 1960s video was seen as empowering the portability of early equipment and the possibility of instant playback allowed artists to challenge and at times subvert the mainstream media Video art in Latin America was and still is closely related to the desire for social change Themes related to gender ethnic and racial identity as well as the consequences of social inequality and ecological disasters have been fundamental to many artists practices. This compendium explores the history and current state of artistic experimentation with video throughout Latin America Departing from the relatively small body of existing scholarship in English much of which focuses on individual countries this volume approaches the topic thematically positioning video artworks from different periods and regions throughout Latin America in dialogue with each other Organized in four broad sections Encounters Networks and Archives Memory and Crisis and Indigenous Perspectives the book s essays and interviews encourage readers to examine the medium of video across varied chronologies and The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2014-02 This volume offers 37 original geographies essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts Reports from Commissioners Great Britain. House of Commons, 1863 turns this time line for the postwar New York art world on its head presenting a new pedigree for these artistic movements Drawing on an array of previously unpublished material Catherine Craft reveals that Neo Dada far from being a reaction to Abstract Expressionism actually originated at the heart of that movement's concerns about viewers originality and artists debts to the past and one another Furthermore she argues the original Dada movement was not incompatible with Abstract Expressionism In fact Dada provided a vital historical reference for artists and critics seeking to come to terms with the radical departure from tradition that Abstract Expressionism seemed to represent Tracing the activities of artists such as Robert Motherwell Barnett Newman and Jackson Pollock alongside Marcel Duchamp's renewed embrace of Dada in the late 1940s Craft explores the challenges facing artists trying to work in the wake of a destructive world war and the paintings objects writings and installations that resulted from their efforts Jacket The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music
