Art Scene:

The Contemporary Art Scene in Syria Charlotte Bank, 2020-05-31 This book focuses on the expanding contemporary art scene in Syria particularly Damascus during the first decade of the twenty first century The decade was characterized by a high degree of experimentation as young artists began to work with artistic media that were new in Syria such as video installation and performance art They were rethinking the role of artists in society and looking for ways to reach audiences in a more direct manner and address socio cultural and socio political issues The Contemporary Art Scene in Syria will be of interest to scholars of global and Middle Eastern art studies and also to scholars interested in the recent social and cultural history of Syria and the wider Middle East

Turkey's Democratization Process Carmen Rodriguez, Antonio Avalos, Hakan Yilmaz, Ana Planet, 2013-10-30 Since the end of the 1980 coup d tat Turkey has been in the midst of a complex process of democratization Applying methodological pluralism in order to provide a comprehensive analysis of this process in a Turkish context this book brings together contributions from prominent Turkish English French and Spanish scholars Turkey s Democratization Process utilises the theoretical framework of J J Linz and A C Stepan in order to assess the complex process of democratization in Turkey This framework takes into account five interacting features of Turkey s polity when making this assessment namely whether the underlying legal and socioeconomic conditions are conducive for the development of a free and participant society if a relatively autonomous political society exists whether there are legal guarantees for citizens freedoms if there exists a state bureaucracy which can be used by a democratic government and whether the type and pace of Turkish economic development contributes to this process Examining the Turkish case in light of this framework this book seeks to combine analyses that will help assess the process of democratization in Turkey to date and will be of interest to scholars and researchers interested in Turkish Politics Democratization and Middle Eastern Studies more broadly

Crisis Sascha Bru, Kate Kangaslahti, Li Lin, Iveta Slavkova, David Ayers, 2022-09-06 Notions of crisis have long charged the study of the European avant garde and modernism reflecting the often turbulent nature of their development Throughout their history the avant garde and modernists have both confronted and instigated crises be they economic or political aesthetic or philosophical collective or individual local or global short or perennial The seventh volume in the series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies addresses the myriad ways in which the avant garde and modernism have responded and related to crisis from the late nineteenth to the twenty first century How have Europe s avant garde and modernist movements given aesthetic shape to their crisis laden trajectory Given the many different watershed moments the avant garde and modernism have faced over the centuries what common threads link the critical points of their development Alternatively what kinds of crises have their experimental practices and critical modes yielded The volume assembles case studies reflecting upon these questions and more from across all areas of avant garde and modernist activity including visual art literature music architecture photography theatre performance curatorial practice fashion and design

The Global

Politics of Artistic Engagement, 2022-10-17 Are artistic engagements evolving or attracting more attention The range of artistic protest actions shows how the globalisation of art is also the globalisation of art politics Here based on multi site field research we follow artists from the MENA countries Latin America and Africa along their committed transnational trajectories whether these are voluntary or the result of exile With this global and decentred approach the different repertoires of engagement appear in all their dimensions including professional ones In the face of political disillusionment these aesthetic interventions take on new meanings as activists seek alternative modes of social transformation and production of shared values Contributors are Alice Aterianus Owanga S bastien Boulay Sarah Dornhof Simon Dubois Shyam Iskander Sabrina Melenotte Franck Mermier Rayane Al Rammal Kirsten Scheid Pinar Selek and Marion Slitine The Global Politics of Artistic Engagement Beyond the Arab Uprisings is now available in paperback for individual customers

Selling the Lower East Side Christopher Mele, 2000 The Lower East Side of Manhattan is rich in stories of poor immigrants who flocked there in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries of beatniks hippies and artists who peopled it mid century and of the real estate developers and politicians who have always shaped what is now termed the East Village Today the musical Rent plays on Broadway to a mostly white and suburban audience MTV exploits the neighborhood's newly trendy squalor in a film promotion and on the Internet a cyber soap opera and travel related Web pages lure members of the middle class to enjoy a commodified and sanitized version of the neighborhood In this sweeping account Christopher Mele analyzes the political and cultural forces that have influenced the development of this distinctive community He describes late nineteenth century notions of the Lower East Side as a place of entrenched poverty ethnic plurality political activism and low culture that elicited feelings of revulsion and fear among the city's elite and middle classes The resulting and ongoing struggle between government and residents over affordable and decent housing has in turn affected real estate practices and urban development policies Selling the Lower East Side recounts the resistance tactics used by community residents as well as the impulse on the part of some to perpetuate the image of the neighborhood as dangerous romantic and bohemian clinging to the marginality that has been central to the identity of the East Village and subverting attempts to portray it as new and improved Ironically this very image of urban grittiness has been appropriated by a cultural marketplace hungry for new fodder Mele explores the ways that developers media executives and others have coopted the area's characteristics analyzing the East Village as a style provider where what is being marketed is difference The result is a visionary look at how political and economic actions transform neighborhoods and at what happens when a neighborhood is what is being consumed
