Art With A Mission Objects Of The Arts And Crafts Movement:

Art Nouveau Gabriel P. Weisberg, Elizabeth K. Menon, 2013-09-05 First published in 1998 Design reform in the fields of architecture and the decorative or applied arts became objectified through writings published during the period of 1885 to 1910 This investigation includes but is not limited to Art Nouveau in France and Belgium and the arts and crafts movement in England and the United States Even though the similar processes of creativity and shared goals of Art Nouveau and the arts and crafts movement have long been recognized attempts to explore their origins and their points of interrelation with the broader scope of art history have been largely unsuccessful until now Jewelry and Metalwork in the Arts and Crafts Tradition Elyse Zorn Karlin, 1993 The best study of Arts and Crafts style jewelry and metalwork to date Hundreds of beautiful pieces of jewelry are illustrated their history characteristics materials motifs influences and makers marks are traced Biographical sketches are provided for the most influential British designers jewelers metalworkers Professional Pursuits Catherine W. Zipf, 2007 Zipf focuses on five gifted women in various parts of the country In San Diego Hazel Wood Waterman parlayed her Arts and Crafts training into a career in architecture Cincinnati's Mary Louise McLaughlin expanded on her interest in Arts and Crafts pottery by inventing new ceramic technology New York's Candace Wheeler established four businesses that used Arts and Crafts production to help other women earn a living In Syracuse both Adelaide Alsop Robineau and Irene Sargent were responsible for disseminating Arts and Crafts related information through the movement's publications Each woman's story is different but each played an important part in the creation of professional opportunities for women in a male dominated society Mission Furniture Paul A. Royka, 1997 In 1988 Barbara Streisand paid 363 000 dollars at auction for a sideboard by Gustav Stickley establishing mission furniture as a rival of early American furniture Since then dealers and collectors have scrambled to learn how to identify makers and evaluate prices This extensive book presents the histories of the major mission furniture companies including Stickley Limbert Roycroft Young Harden Leavens and others With more than 300 color photographs Mission Furniture provides identification clues glossary of terms and values It also documents the never before published furniture designs of the William Leavens Company This is an excellent reference source that is a must for dealers collectors interior designers and anyone interested in the American Arts and Crafts Movement Art with a Mission Patricia J. Fidler, 1991 Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham, 1997-05 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Furniture of the American Arts and Crafts Movement David M. Cathers, 1996 FURNITURE OF THE AMERICAN ARTS CRAFTS MOVEMENT by David M Cathers Here is the long awaited updated revised edition of David M Cathers groundbreaking book on American Arts Crafts furniture Originally published in 1981 it provided authoritative information on Gustav Stickley's Craftsman Workshops the L J G Stickley Furniture Company the Roycroft Shop The book was the first to trace the style through a richly detailed text over 200 illustrations provide a means for identification dating subjectively evaluating many individual pieces This extensively illustrated book is an invaluable reference for anyone interested in the history of American decorative arts To order Turn of the Century Editions P O Box 908 Philmont NY 12565 518 672 4639      The Resurgence of the Real Charlene Spretnak,1999 In this insightful beautifully written work an important feminist ecological thinker argues that an ecological postmodern ethos has been lately emerging      Colonized Through Art Marinella Lentis,2017 Colonized through Art explores how the federal government used art education for American Indian children as an instrument for the colonization of consciousness hoping to instill the values and ideals of Western society while simultaneously maintaining a political social economic and racial hierarchy Focusing on the Albuquerque Indian School in New Mexico the Sherman Institute in Riverside California and the world s fairs and local community exhibitions Marinella Lentis examines how the U S government s solution to the Indian problem at the end of the nineteenth century emphasized education and assimilation Educational theories at the time viewed art as the foundation of morality and as a way to promote virtues and personal improvement These theories made the subject of art a natural tool for policy makers and educators to use in achieving their assimilationist goals of turning student savages into civilized men and women Despite such educational regimes for students however indigenous ideas about art oftentimes emerged from below particularly from well known art teachers such as Arizona Swayney and Angel DeCora Colonized through Art explores how American Indian schools taught children to abandon their cultural heritage and produce artificially native crafts that were exhibited at local and international fairs The purchase of these crafts by the general public turned students work into commodities and schools into factories      American Arts & Crafts from the Collection of Alexandra & Sidney Sheldon Palm Springs Desert Museum,1993      Arthur Wesley Dow and American Arts & Crafts Nancy E. Green,Jessie J. Poesch,1999 The full range of Dow s creative genius is represented in this volume reproduced in color Two authoritative essays explore Dow s influence and his place within the arts and crafts community of his time BOOK JACKET      Fashioning Vienna Janet Stewart,2013-06-17 This book seeks to extend our understanding of Adolf Loos and his role in the struggle to define the nature of modernity in Vienna at the turn of the nineteenth century      International Arts and Crafts Victoria and Albert Museum,2005-03-08 This book presents exciting new research on one of the most popular far reaching and influential design movements of modern times Lavishly illustrated this is the first major global examination of the Arts and Crafts movement including the US Europe and for the first time Japan The Arts and Crafts movement revolutionised attitudes to work and the home and laid the foundations for a radical shift in approach to design and lifestyle in the early twentieth century From the pioneering example of William Morris and the writings of John Ruskin to a new generation of architects artists designers and patrons the movement championed a unity of the arts and was broadly defined by the common aims of social and industrial reform the revival of handicrafts a return to the simple life and the improvement of art for everyday life It was the first major art movement to focus on the decorative arts but it flung its net much wider drawing architecture garden design photography and graphics into its orbit and changing the way we think about design

Leading scholars in the field explore the regional national and international manifestations of Arts and Crafts looking at the work of many leading designers including Walter Crane C F A Voysey M H Baillie Scott C R Mackintosh Jensen Gustav Stickley Frank Lloyd Wright in Europe and America and Hamada Shoji and Bernard Leach in Japan Lavishly illustrated and extensively researched this book is a major contribution to a wider understanding of Arts and Crafts and an invaluable visual record of an ever popular era of design Old-House Journal ,2004-01 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice Hooked Rugs Cynthia Fowler,2017-07-05 Through a close look at the history of the modernist hooked rug this book raises important questions about the broader history of American modernism in the first half of the twentieth century Although hooked rugs are not generally associated with the avant garde this study demonstrates that they were a significant part of the artistic production of many artists engaged in modernist experimentation Cynthia Fowler discusses the efforts of Ralph Pearson and of Zoltan and Rosa Hecht to establish modernist hooked rug industries in the 1920s uncovering a previously undocumented history The book includes a consideration of the rural workers used to create the modernist narrative of the hooked rug as cottage industries were established throughout the rural Northeast and South to serve the ever increasing demand for hooked rugs by urban consumers Fowler closely examines institutional enterprises that highlighted and engaged the modernist hooked rugs such as key exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the 1930s and 40s This study reveals the fluidity of boundaries among art craft and design and the profound efforts of a devoted group of modernists to introduce the general public to the value of modern art The Register of the Museum of Art University of Kansas. Museum of Art,1991 Enchanted Lives, Enchanted Objects Dianne Sachko Macleod,2008 This insightful and beautifully illustrated book offers the first feminist analysis of the phenomenon of women art collectors in America Dianne Sachko Macleod brings a surprising paradox to light showing that collecting which provided wealthy women with a private sense of solace also liberated them to venture into the public sphere and make a lasting contribution to the emerging American culture Beginning in the antebellum period continuing through the Gilded Age and reaching well into the twentieth century Macleod shows how elite women enlisted the objets d art and avant garde paintings in their collections in causes ranging from the founding of modern museums to the campaign for women s suffrage Authenticity in Architectural Heritage Conservation Katharina Weiler,Niels Gutschow,2016-07-01 The book contributes to a recontextualization of authenticity by investigating how this value is created reenacted and assigned Over the course of the last century authenticity figured as the major parameter for the evaluation of cultural heritage It was adopted in local and international charters and guidelines on architectural conservation in Europe South and East Asia Throughout this period the concept of authenticity was constantly redefined and transformed to suit new cultural contexts and local concerns This volume presents colonial and postcolonial discourses opinions and experiences in the field of architectural heritage conservation and the use of site specific practices based on representative case studies presented by art historians architects anthropologists and conservationists from Germany Nepal India China and Japan With more than 180 illustrations and a collection of terminologies in German English Sanskrit Hindi Nevari and Nepali classical Chinese and standard Mandarin and Japanese these cross cultural investigations document the processual re configuration of the notion of authenticity They also show that approaches to authenticity can be specified with key analytical categories from transcultural studies appropriation transformation and in some cases refusal      The Register of the Spencer Museum of Art Helen Foresman Spencer Museum of Art,1991      Swiss Graphic Design Richard Hollis,2006-01-01 Originally published London Laurence King Pub 2006
