BLACK LIVES MATTER Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan Tsao,Roger T. Ames,2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse Competition Science Vision ,2008-07

art's capacity to emancipate the life world from globalized technological enframing Louise Carrie Wales presents the work of five contemporary artists Martha Rosler Christian Boltanski Krzysztof Wodiczko and collaborators Noorafshan Mirza and Brad Butler who challenge our thinking and compel a dramatic re-positioning of social norms and hidden beliefs The through line is rooted in Heidegger's question posed at the conclusion of his technology essay as understood through artworks that provides a counter to enframing while using increasingly sophisticated technological methods The themes are political in nature and continue to have profound resonance in today's geopolitical climate The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history aesthetics philosophy and visual culture

Delirium and Resistance Gregory Sholette, 2017-04-20 In the aftermath of the 2016 US elections Brexit and a global upsurge of nationalist populism it is evident that the delirium and the crisis of neoliberal capitalism is now the delirium and crisis of liberal democracy and its culture And though capitalist crisis does not begin within art art can reflect and amplify its effects to positive and negative ends In this follow up to his influential 2010 book Dark Matter Art and Politics in the Age of Enterprise Culture Sholette engages in critical dialogue with artists collectives counter institutions and activist groups to offer an insightful firsthand account of the relationship between politics and art in neoliberal society Sholette lays out clear examples of art's deep involvement in capitalism the dizzying prices achieved by artists who pander to the financial elite the proliferation of museums that contribute to global competition between cities in order to attract capital and the strange relationship between art and rampant gentrification that restructures the urban landscape With a preface by noted author Lucy R Lippard and an introduction by theorist Kim Charnley Delirium and Resistance draws on over thirty years of critical debates and practices both in and beyond the art world to historicize and advocate for the art activist tradition that radically and at times deliriously entangles the visual arts with political struggles

Children of Marx and Coca-Cola Xiaoping Lin, 2009-11-02 Children of Marx and Coca Cola affords a deep study of Chinese avant garde art and independent cinema from the mid 1990s to the beginning of the twenty first century Informed by the author's experience in Beijing and New York global cities with extensive access to an emergent transnational Chinese visual culture this work situates selected artworks and films in the context of Chinese nationalism and post socialism and against the background of the capitalist globalization that has so radically affected contemporary China It juxtaposes and compares artists and independent filmmakers from a number of intertwined perspectives particularly in their shared avant garde postures and perceptions Xiaoping Lin provides illuminating close readings of a variety of visual texts and artistic practices including installation performance painting photography video and film Throughout he sustains a theoretical discussion of representative artworks and films and succeeds in delineating a variegated postsocialist cultural landscape saturated by market forces confused values and lost faith This refreshing approach is due to Lin's ability to tackle both Chinese art and cinema rigorously within a shared discursive space He for example aptly conceptualizes a central thematic concern in both genres as postsocialist trauma aggravated by capitalist globalization By thus focusing exclusively on the two parallel and often intersecting movements or phenomena in the visual arts his work brings about a fruitful dialogue between the narrow field of traditional art history and visual studies more generally Children of Marx and Coca Cola will be a major contribution to China studies art history film studies and cultural studies Multiple audiences specialists teachers and students in these disciplines as well as general readers with an interest in contemporary Chinese society and culture will find that this work fulfills an urgent need for sophisticated analysis of China's cultural production as it assumes a key role in capitalist globalization
