Gerstner, Janet Staiger, 2013-09-13 Authorship in film has been a persistent theme in the field of cinema studies This volume of new work revitalizes the question of authorship by connecting it to larger issues of identity in film in the marketplace in society in culture Essays range from the auteur theory and Casablanca to Oscar Micheaux from the American avant garde to community video all illuminating how authorship is a complex idea with far reaching implications This ambitious and wide ranging book will be essential reading for anyone concerned with film studies and the concept of the author Enter at Your Own Risk Leora Lev, 2006 Dennis Cooper has been both praised and censured as the most controversial writer working today for his creation of a searing outlaw textuality that charts psychosexual terrain uncensored by desire police This volume is the first to explore Cooper's significance as a pioneering literary artist who illuminates the hidden or repressed extremities of the fin de millennium American zeitgeist Leora Lev has assembled a roster of internationally acclaimed scholars fiction writers filmmakers and artists who conjure a provocative encounter between Cooper's fiction European transgressive literature and philosophy e.g. Sade Rimbaud Bataille Bresson and American psychocultural topographies Teens, TV and Tunes Doyle Greene, 2014-01-10 This political analysis of teen culture examines the historical and ideological development of American youth society the economic and ideological relationship between television and popular music and the ideological rivalry between Nickelodeon and Disney More than mere entertainment teen sitcoms and pop music portray a complex and often contradictory set of cultural discourses They engage in a process of ideology marketing and hip versus square politics Case studies include Saved by the Bell Britney Spears the movie School of Rock early pop music sitcoms like The Monkees and The Partridge Family and recent staples of teen culture such as iCarly and Hannah Montana What is occurring in teen culture has a crucial bearing as today's teens age into adulthood and become the dominant generation in the impending decades The Cult Film Experience J. P. Telotte, 2014-02-19 Play it again Sam is the motto of cult film enthusiasts who will watch their favorite movie over and over beyond all reason What is the appeal of cult movies Why do fans turn up in droves at midnight movies or sit through the same three hanky classics from Hollywood's golden era These are some of the questions J P Telotte and twelve other noted film scholars consider in this groundbreaking study of the cult film The book identifies two basic types of cult films older Hollywood movies such as Casablanca that have developed a cult following and midnight movies most notably The Rocky Horror Picture Show Telotte Bruce Kawin and Timothy Corrigan offer thought provoking discussions about why these two types of movies become cult films the sort of audience they attract and the needs they fulfill for that audience Subsequent essays employ a variety of cultural feminist ideological and poststructural strategies for exploring these films In a section on the classical cult film the movie Casablanca receives extensive treatment An essay by T J Ross considers Beat the Devil as a send up of cult films while another essay by Wade Jennings analyzes the cult star phenomenon as personified in Judy Garland. Midnight movie madness is explored in essays on The Rocky Horror Picture Show, movie satires of the 1950s science fiction double features and horror thrillers. Illustrated with scenes from favorite movies and written for both fans and scholars, The Cult Film Experience will appeal to a wider audience than the usual suspects.
