Creating Educational Futures:

Class, Ideologies and Educational Futures D Livingstone, 2012-05-16 This book provides a systematic and detailed analysis of class relations in advanced capitalist societies as a basis for understanding both class differences in educational practices and the relative effects of class and other social background factors on public attitudes toward education Secondly the book offers an empirically grounded summary of the contending educational ideologies in advanced capitalism through a discourse analysis of the public statements of spokes persons for major class groupings Thirdly using the data from several public opinion surveys in Ontario profiles of public attitudes on critical education issues are interpreted in terms of the actual effects of class and other social background factors as well as the mediating influences of contending ideologies Finally a general approach and array of tactics for creating practical alternative educational and social futures are illustrated through the book Resources in Education ,2001-04 Creating Connections in Teaching and Learning Lindy Abawi,Joan

Conway,Robyn Henderson,2011-12-01 This book explores the wide range of contexts in which research into creating connections in learning and teaching may take place Creating connections can encompass making links crossing divides forming relationships building frameworks and generating new knowledge The cognitive cultural social emotional and or physical aspects of understanding meaning making motivating acting researching and evaluating are explored as constituent forms of creativity in relation to such connections From this exploration the authors identify varied connective contexts and means which include the learner the educator the organisation and the relevant community The crossing of divides forming learner educator relationships bringing together diverse groups of learners establishing networks and partnerships among educators and establishing links between organisations and communities are all considered as connections which can be created by and within the learning and teaching dynamic By examining the factors which help to facilitate and or restrict the possibilities for creating connections in educational contexts implications for and outcomes of learning and or teaching arise from the connections created The final chapter of this book will explicate the realisations that have emerged for educators and researchers working to create connections These offer suggestions for future directions and enunciate what and how connections might contribute to both educational institutions and the broader society Creating the New African

University ,2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa s development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good It engages issues within the context of how post colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary transdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements Emerging Education Futures John W. Moravec, 2019-10-21 We task fewer industries to think about the future than we ask from education In societies where constant change is the norm schools today must prepare students to be successful in environments and contexts that may differ greatly from what we experience today But are we really thinking about the future With contributions from four continents this book reveals a snapshot of some of our best thinking for building new education futures Diverse experiences visions and ideas are shared to help spark new thinking among educators and policymakers provoke conversation and facilitate new ideas for meeting human development needs in a rapidly transforming world Edited by John W Moravec Chapters authored by Leona Ungerer Lisa B Bosman Julius C Keller Audrey Falk Silvia Cecilia Enr quez Sandra Beatriz Gargiulo Mar a Jimena Ponz Robert Thorn Erling N Dahl Einar N Str mmen John W Moravec Pekka Ihanainen Stefania Savva Gabriela Carre o Murillo Erik Mileti Creating Space for Democracy Timothy J. Shaffer, Nicholas V. Longo, 2023-07-03 We live in divisive and polarizing times often remaining in comfortable social bubbles and experiencing few genuine interactions with people who are different or with whom we disagree Stepping out and turning to one another is difficult but necessary For our democracy to thrive at a time when we face wicked problems that involve tough trade offs it is vital that all citizens participate fully in the process We need to learn to listen think and act with others to solve public problems This collaborative task begins with creating space for democracy This book provides a guide for doing so on campus through deliberation and dialogue At the most basic level this book describes collaborative and relational work to engage with others and co create meaning Specifically dialogue and deliberation are processes in which a diverse group of people moves toward making a collective decision on a difficult public issue This primer offers a blueprint for achieving the civic mission of higher education by incorporating dialogue and deliberation into learning at colleges and universities It opens by providing a conceptual framework with leading voices in the dialogue and deliberation field providing insights on issues pertinent to college campuses from free speech and academic freedom to neutrality and the role of deliberation in civic engagement Subsequent sections describe a diverse range of methods and approaches used by several organizations that pioneered and sustained deliberative practices outline some of the many ways in which educators and institutions are using dialogue and deliberation in curricular co curricular and community spaces including venues such as student centers academic libraries and residence halls All of the chapters including a Resource Section provide readers with a starting point for conceptualizing and implementing their own deliberation and dialogue initiatives This book intended for all educators who are concerned about democracy imparts the power and impact of public talk offers the insights and experiences of leading practitioners and provides the grounding to adopt or adapt the models in their own settings to create educative spaces and experiences that are humanizing authentic and productive It is an important resource for campus leaders student affairs practitioners librarians and centers of institutional diversity community engagement teaching excellence and service learning as well as faculty particularly those in the fields of communication studies education and political science A Co Publication with AAC U and Campus Compact

Edusemiotics Andrew Stables, Inna Semetsky, 2014-10-10 Edusemiotics addresses an emerging field of inquiry educational semiotics as a philosophy of and for education Using sign as a unit of analysis educational semiotics amalgamates philosophy educational theory and semiotics Edusemiotics draws on the intellectual legacy of such philosophers as John Dewey Charles Sanders Peirce Gilles Deleuze and others across Anglo American and continental traditions This volume investigates the specifics of semiotic knowledge structures and processes exploring current dilemmas and debates regarding self identity learning transformative and lifelong education leadership and policy making and interrogating an important premise that still haunts contemporary educational philosophy Cartesian dualism In defiance of substance dualism and the fragmentation of knowledge that still inform education the book offers a unifying paradigm for education as edusemiotics and emphasises ethical education in compliance with the semiotic unity between knowledge and action Chapters contain accessible discussions in the context of educational philosophy and theory crossing the borders between logic art and science together with a provocative theoretical critique Recently awarded a PESA book award for its contribution to the philosophy of education Edusemiotics will appeal to an academic readership in education philosophy and cultural studies while also being an inspiring resource for students

Making Education: Material School Design and Educational Governance Ian Grosvenor, Lisa Rosén Rasmussen, 2018-12-08 This book brings together the notions of material school design and educational governance in the first such text to address this critical interrelationship in any depth In addressing the issue of governance through analysing current and historical material school designs it looks at the intersection of politics economics aesthetics and pedagogical ideas and practices More specifically it explores and unfolds educational governance as it is constituted materialized and transformed in and through material school designs It does so by studying a range of issues from the material and aesthetic language of schooling to the design of the built environment from spatial organization to the furnishing and equipment of classrooms and from technologies of regulation to the incorporation of tools of learning The book presents examples from Europe Latin and Central America and the United States and relates to the past present and future of governance and school design It focuses on design processes and on designers architects and people involved in the planning of school design as well as on school leaders teachers and pupils adopting inhabiting and re shaping them in everyday school life Furthermore the book discusses how to study governance by material school design and how to act upon governance by material design on wishful actual and ethical terms
