Winslow Homer: Crosscurrents Stephanie L. Herdrich, Sylvia Yount, Daniel Immerwahr, Christopher Riopelle, Gwendolyn DuBois Shaw, 2022-04-04 This timely study of Winslow Homer highlights his imagery of the Atlantic world and reveals themes of racial political and natural conflict across his career Long celebrated as the quintessential New England regionalist Winslow Homer 1836-1910 in fact brushed a much wider canvas traveling throughout the Atlantic world and frequently engaging in his art with issues of race imperialism and the environment This groundbreaking publication focuses for the first time on the watercolors and oil paintings Homer made during visits to Bermuda Cuba coastal Florida and the Bahamas in particular The Gulf Stream 1899 an iconic painting long considered the most consequential of his career revealing a lifelong fascination with struggle and conflict The book also includes Homer's depictions of rural life and the sea in which he grapples with the violence of nature as well as his Civil War and Reconstruction paintings of the 1860s and 1870s which explore the unresolved effects of the war on the landscape soldiers and the formerly enslaved Recognizing the artist's keen ability to distill complex issues in his work Winslow Homer Crosscurrents upends popular conceptions and convincingly argues that Homer's work resonates with the challenges of the present day

American Stories Helene Barbara Weinberg, Carrie Rebora Barratt, 2009 They also consider the artist's responses to foreign prototypes travel and training changing exhibition venues and audience expectations The persistence of certain themes childhood marriage the family and the community the attainment and reinforcement of citizenship attitudes toward race the frontier as reality and myth and the process and meaning of making art underscores evolving styles and standards of storytelling Divided into four chronological sections the book begins with the years surrounding the American Revolution and the birth of the new republic when painters such as Copley Peale and Samuel F B Morse incorporated stories within the expressive bounds of portraiture During the Jacksonian and pre Civil War decades from about 1830 to 1860 Mount Bingham Lilly Martin Spencer and others painted genre scenes featuring lighthearted narratives that growing audiences for art could easily read and understand The Art Museum as Educator Council on Museums and Education in the Visual Arts, Barbara Y. Newsom, Adele Z. Silver, 1978 Art and industry. Education in the industrial and fine arts in the United States. (U.S. dept. of the interior, bureau of educ.). Isaac Edwards Clarke, 1885 Conservation of Modern Architecture Susan Macdonald, Kyle C. Normandin, Bob Kindred, 2015-12-08 The importance of protecting significant buildings from decay and destruction would seem to be undeniable Yet whilst the majority of buildings of merit constructed before the Second World War have been highlighted as worthy of protection there is much indifference and in some cases hostility towards many important post war buildings These deserve to receive wider formal recognition but in many cases continue to be mistreated or even demolished This book examines many of the philosophical and practical issues surrounding the conservation of modern buildings and also the problems faced by building practitioners in dealing with buildings constructed in a wider range of styles and materials than at any other time Climate change in particular has forced change in the way in which we think about buildings with the pressures to address issues of energy efficiency becoming more urgent and likely to have consequences that may alter the perceived architectural and historic interest of modern and traditional buildings alike
