Beauty in Context Wilfried van Damme, 2021-11-01 This is the first study to survey the field of the anthropology of aesthetics which during the last few decades has emerged on the cross roads between anthropology and non Western art scholarship While critically examining the available literature thereby addressing such basic issues as the existence of aesthetic universals the author elaborates on a central thesis which concerns the relationship between aesthetic preference and sociocultural ideals Drawing on empirical data from several African cultures he demonstrates that varying notions of beauty are inspired by varying sociocultural ideals thus shedding light on the phenomenon of cultural relativism in aesthetic preference Emphasizing unity within diversity the systematic anthropological approach offered in this volume invites the reader to reconsider aesthetic preference from an empirical cross cultural and contextual perspective

The Arts of Africa ,1992 African Dream Machines Anitra Nettleton, 2007-10-01 African Dream Machines takes African headrests out of the category of functional objects and into the more rarefied category of art objects Styles in African headrests are usually defined in terms of western art and archaeological discourses but this book interrogates these definitions of style and demonstrates the shortcomings of defining a single formal style model as exclusive to a single ethnic group Among the artefacts made by southern African peoples headrests were the best known Anitra Nettleton s study of the uses and forms of headrests opened up a number of art historical methodologies in the attempt to gain an understanding of form style and content in African art objects Her drawings of each and every headrest encountered become a major part of the project

Tribal Art ,2008 Quarterly journal of the art culture and history of traditional peoples and Old World civilizations

Eternal Ancestors Barbara Drake Boehm, 2007 Many masterpieces of central African sculpture were created to amplify the power of sacred relics that affirm a family s vital connection to its ancestral heritage This important volume focusing on some 130 works representing a diverse variety of regional genres illuminates the purpose and significance of these icons of African art which first came to prominence because of their appeal to the Western avant garde While providing an overview of sources ranging from colonial explorers missionaries critics artists and art historians the book breaks new ground in its examination of the complex aesthetic and spiritual dimensions of the reliquaries Its interdisciplinary approach brings together the perspectives of scholars in African and medieval art history along with those in African history religion and ethnography Publisher

Fang Louis Perrois, 2006 Fang art is one of the most distinguished arts of Black Africa Its masks with their facial markings abstract features and strong elegant lines were among the most influential in 20th century modern art Fang figures called Bieri are renowned for their child like proportions contrasted with a muscular poised vigilance Fang art also includes iron currency and other objects that exhibit the traditional African ability to making everyday functional objects things of artistic merit Fang reviews these artifacts and their social ritual or symbolic characters Statuettes related to ancestors dance masks of the various rites insignia of power headdresses and jewellery decorated music instruments and everyday utensils all have an amazingly varied aesthetic creativity in harmony with their profuse world of beliefs and myths

Guide to the Literature of Art History 2 Max Marmor, Alex Ross, 2005 This bibliography supplements the greatest of modern art bibliographies Etta Arntzen and Robert Rainwater's Guide to the literature of art history ALA 1980 Preface

Introduction to Equatorial Guinea Gilad James, PhD, Equatorial Guinea is a small country located in west central Africa bordered by Cameroon to the north and Gabon to the south and east The country consists of the mainland region which is the R o Muni and the island region of Bioko which is made up of the islands of Bioko and Annob n The country has a small population of around 1.2 million people with roughly the same number of people living on the mainland as on the islands Equatorial Guinea is one of the smallest countries in Africa in terms of both population and land area It is also one of the most ethnically diverse countries in Africa with over 50 different ethnic groups present Equatorial Guinea gained independence in 1968 after Spanish colonization Since then the country has been ruled by one political party the Democratic Party of Equatorial Guinea PDGE The country is one of the wealthiest in Africa with a per capita GDP that ranks among the highest on the continent This is largely due to oil reserves discovered in the 1990s which make up the majority of the country's export earnings Despite its wealth Equatorial Guinea is also known for its human rights abuses and corruption with the country frequently ranking poorly on global indices measuring these factors
