Europe Professor Pål Kolstø, 2014-03-28 After the conflagration of Tito's Yugoslavia a medley of new and not so new states rose from the ashes Some of the Yugoslav successor states have joined or are about to enter the European Union while others are still struggling to define their national borders symbols and relationships with neighbouring states Strategies of Symbolic Nation building in South Eastern Europe expands upon the existing body of nationalism studies and explores how successful these nation building strategies have been in the last two decades Relying on new quantitative research results the contributors offer interdisciplinary analyses of symbolic nation building in Albania Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro and Serbia to show that whereas the citizens of some states have reached a consensus about the nation building project other states remain fragmented and uncertain of when the process will end A must read not only for scholars of the region but policy makers and others interested in understanding the complex interplay of history symbolic politics and post conflict transition

Embodied Knowledge in Ensemble Performance J. Murphy McCaleb, 2017-07-05 Performing in musical ensembles provides a remarkable opportunity for interaction between people When playing a piece of music together musicians contribute to the creation of an artistic work that is shaped through their individual performances However even though ensembles are a large part of musical activity questions remain as to how they function In Embodied Knowledge in Ensemble Performance Murphy McCaleb explores the processes by which musicians interact with each other through performance McCaleb begins by breaking down current models of ensemble interaction particularly those that rely on the same kind of communication found in conversation In order to find a new way of describing this interaction McCaleb considers the nature of the information being shared between musicians during performance Using examples from postgraduate ensembles at Birmingham Conservatoire as well as his own reflective practice he examines how an understanding of the relationship between musicians and their instruments may affect the way performers infer information within an ensemble Drawing upon research from musicology occupational psychology and philosophy and including a DVD of excerpts from rehearsals and performances Embodied Knowledge provides a holistic approach to ensemble research in a manner accessible to performers researchers and teachers
